FORT OF SAND DEFIES GERMANS' BOMBARDMENT.

Strong.

ARMY AROUND DVINISK CAN DO BUT LITTLE AGAINST SLAV DEFENSE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

BERLIN, Nov. 12 (via London.)—The difficulties of the army besieging Dvinsk because of the nature of the fortress, which is built of sand, are pictured by Capt. Von Kueschuetzky, correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung.

"Had it been of rock," he says, "experts declare it would have been knocked to pieces long ago, but an artillery bombardment is of little avail against a sand fortress. It was captured fifteen times between September 15 and October 26 and still is not in the Germans' possession. It has been reduced in size one-half without affecting the strength of the remainder.

"Every rod of land is covered with permanent trenches roofed securely against shrapnel and shell fragments and connected with so-called fox holes, small shelters, where the garrisons are secure against the heaviest shells. Exploding projectiles are smothered in the mud trenches skillfully laid out so they are mutually outflanking. An apparently successful attack often means the destruction of the assailants by the flanking fire of machine guns. One company thus lost fifty-one dead on October 23."

Irrefutable.

HOW WILSON'S NOTE IS REGARDED BY BERLIN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

BERLIN, Nov. 12 (via London.)—The Vossische Zeitung says as regards the American note to Great Britain as an irrefutable document from a legal standpoint, but that everything depends upon practical things the authors intend it to achieve, "for they cannot have been in doubt that they have placed Great Britain between two alternatives—of politely rejecting the American demands, or of considering all the advantages which the navy gives Great Britain in war against the Germans."

Capt. Von Kuehlwetter, the Lokal Anzeiger's naval specialist, says if the note puts an end to "British arbitrariness" the result will be gratifying and probably also will have an important bearing on future maritime war.

Capt. Von Kuehlwetter thinks it is necessary to treat the note with great skepticism, declaring that it does not dispute Great Britain's right of arbitrarily extending her list of articles of absolute contraband.

Die Post says the note opens a new chapter in the history of the freedom of the seas.

"President Wilson," Die Post says, "has, at least on paper, stopped. Formerly he saw only German infringements. But now he comprehends the deeper reasons for Germany's course, namely Great Britain's contempt for all foreign rights.

"What he now demands is nothing other than the rights for the recognition of which Germany's navy worked. However, the note will only achieve historical importance if there is behind it an earnest determination to give pressure to the demands."

The newspaper expresses doubt whether economic interests will suffice to override "America's Anglo-Saxon sympathies."

Defense.

FORTY-EIGHT BATTLESHIPS ROOT'S DEMAND.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] (30)

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Former Senator Elihu Root, president of the Union League Club, presided tonight at a meeting of the club at which a resolution was passed in favor of a national defense programme bigger than that proposed by the administration, one that will include a universal military service of all able-bodied men and a navy of forty-eight ships of the first line with full equipment.

In presenting the resolutions, Senator Root said:

"The war in Europe is not the cause of a movement for preparation for defense. That cause has long existed. The war in Europe is but the demonstration striking the imagination and convincing the judgment of the people of the United States upon the necessity for the adequate preparation for defense.

"Do not let us deceive ourselves. Adequate preparation for the preservation of our liberty means a vast expenditure, but it means more than that: it means a willingness for self-sacrifice, a spirit among our people along the length and breadth of our land, among the rich and the poor, among the highly educated and the graduates of the common school, among professional men, between merchants and bankers, farmers and laborers—a national spirit among the people of the land and a determination to preserve the liberty and welfare of the American republic and to make a sacrifice of means and convenience, comfort and if need be, of life in that cause."

IN DARK ON ANCONA CASE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] (30)

BERLIN (via London) Nov. 12 (5:38 a.m.)—The Ancona case as yet belongs to the category of submarine incidents regarding which German naval circles have no news except that which comes from hostile sources. Even the semi-official announcement made yesterday that the Ancona was sunk while trying to escape was derived from accounts sent out by the Havas and Stefani News bureaus.

Nothing has been published here from the Austrian side and it was stated at the Admiralty that so far as known, the Austrian government has received no report of the incident.

Tug Iroquois Towing Underwater Craft Runs Short of Fuel.

Wireless Message Received at San Francisco Brings a Prompt Response.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The United States cruiser Chattanooga left here late today in answer to a wireless message from the cruiser Maryland, which is towing the submarine F-3 here from Honolulu, T. H. The collier Nanshan and the tug Iroquois, towing the F-1 and the F-2, preceded the Maryland. Heavy seas and rough weather have made the voyage difficult for several days.

The message stated, according to the naval authorities here, that the tug Iroquois, which was known to be running short of fuel, would not be able to complete the voyage without refueling, unless relieved of the weight of the submarine she is towing. The Chattanooga will take the Iroquois' underwater boat in tow.

TAFT PREDICTS G.O.P. VICTORY.

WILSON SUCCESS GOOD DISCIPLINE SAYS FORMER PRESIDENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—William Howard Taft told the Hamilton Club today that the Wilson victory in 1912 was "excellent discipline" for the Republicans. The former President said the "Progressives" were back in the G.O.P., and that if conditions remain unchanged until next November, the party will win in the national election.

"The results of 1912 were a discipline for the Republican party," said Mr. Taft with a face beaming with smiles. "I suppose I am the one man best fitted to bear witness to that. For fourteen or sixteen years that party had been successful. It had so long been victorious that abuses had crept in.

"Then came 1912, and under an illustrious leader one part of the old party coalesced in a party of its own with a crazy quilt platform put together with a view of getting votes.

"The rank and file of the 'Progressives' are back in the party. The trend in 1913 was back; in 1914 the trend was even more pronounced and the recent elections in 1915 show that the bulk of the third party is back with the parent party."

BRITISH SHIP CARIA IS SUNK.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The British steamship Caria has been sunk. The members of the crew were saved. The steamer Caria was owned by the Cunard Steamship Company. Latest available records show that she sailed from Liverpool, October 7 for Naples. The vessel was 3022 tons gross. She was 318 feet long, forty-three feet beam and twenty-five feet deep.

NARROW ESCAPE IN EARLY FIRE.

T. Callahan and his family had a narrow escape early this morning when their bungalow home at No. 838 West Ninety-second street was destroyed by fire. The origin is a mystery. Mr. Callahan carried $2000 insurance on the house and contents.

THREE ROBBERIES; TOTAL LOOT MAY AMOUNT TO $200.

Three burglaries were reported to the police early this morning, the total loot being estimated at $200.

When M. Marcus of No. 326 Cornwall street, went to bed he left $35 and a gold ring in his vip pocket. A few hours later he was aroused by an unusual noise and turned on the light in time to see a burglar leaving through a window.

The home of Mrs. S. Mercy at No. 114 East Thirty-sixth street, was entered shortly before midnight, the burglar escaping with $20 and some jewelry.

A diamond ring valued at $100 and $7 were taken from the home of Fred Stanley, No. 2041 Hillhurst street, Hollywood.

PREDICTS WAR WITH JAPAN.

NORMAN ANGELD BELIEVES IT IS ON THE WAY.

English Author and Journalist Advocates Preparedness Before Women's Peace Party and Thinks it is Time to Frame Real International Policy.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—This country is bound to be led into a war with Japan, in the opinion of Norman Angell, the English author and journalist, who believes that now is the time for the United States to frame a real international policy. He today advocated "preparedness in policy" before the Women's Peace Party, saying in part:

"If this country is led into war with Japan, as I think it probably will be, it will be over questions of the rights of Japanese laborers in Hawaii or the Philippines or the differential treatment of her citizens in the United States or the open door in China; and if Japan is joined by some European power—and she won't fight this country unless she is—that power will not be thinking of the invasion or conquest of this country, but of the use that you intend to put your virtual domination of the Spanish-American republics; your European enemy will be actuated by the fear that you may use that power to exact commercial preference in those immense territories or to exclude them in some way."

RUSSIANS DRAW NEAR TEHERAN.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 11 (via London.)—According to the latest advices received in Teheran, Persia, a Russian force is within forty-five miles of Teheran and indications are that the Germans, Austrians and Turks in the city are preparing to leave, removal of the archives of the German and Austrian legations to the American legation, for instance, being in progress. At the secret session of Parliament, the dispatch said, a majority of the deputies expressed the hope that an amicable arrangement of the difficulties between Russia and Persia could be reached. The Cabinet ministers had been in session for twenty-four hours, it is added, trying to formulate conditions acceptable to Russia and Great Britain.

Much excitement is reported in the city, according to the dispatch, over the energetic action of the Entente allies and it is reported that the Shah will retire to Ispahan in event the Persian proposals are not acceptable.

HIT BY TORPEDO BUT ESCAPES.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The War Office has issued the following announcement:

"On September 2, the transport Southland for Alexandria was torpedoed in the Aegean Sea, but reached Mudros under her own steam the same day. As a precautionary measure, the troops were transferred to other transports.

"There were some casualties, amounting to 9 killed, 2 slightly injured and 22 missing—believed to have been drowned."

A report of the torpedoing of the British transport Southland, which formerly was the Red Star liner Vaderland, was given out by the Overseas News Agency at Berlin on September 9.

WILSON'S NEW ARMY PLAN REJECTED BY MILITIA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] (30)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Refusal to indorse President Wilson's proposal for a continental army of 400,000 men marked the closing session today of the seventeenth annual convention of the National Guard Association of the United States. Asheville, N. C., was selected as the meeting place for 1916, the date to be decided later by the Executive Committee.

A resolution proposing that the association approve President Wilson's plan as made public in an address by the President at the Manhattan Club, New York, was offered by Gen. Henry D. Hamilton of New York. Without debate, the resolution, which asked that "the plan of a President of the United States for a continental army be indorsed by the National Guard Association," was referred to the Legislative Committee.

Officers of the organization gave as one explanation of why Gen. Hamilton's proposition was not acted upon favorably, the fact that Gen. Hamilton, although a member of the San Francisco Bids Farewell After a Demonstration by Thousands.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—Tears mingled with smiles and cheers blended with the tolling of church chimes today at the departure of the Liberty Bell on its way from the Exposition Grounds to the Third-street Station, whence it was started on its long homeward journey.

The passage of the famous old relic was marked by scenes seldom witnessed in San Francisco. School children lined the streets with waving colors and as the Liberty Bell, with its floral tributes of nations and States, passed by, it was showered with cheers and flowers.

Grown-ups took up the cheers of the children, or, as in hundreds of instances where their voices failed them for emotion, waved handkerchiefs while their cheeks were coursed with tears. Even soldiers and officers, seasoned to the hard side of life through long campaigns, were touched with the wave of patriotic demonstration that everywhere greeted the bell.

MILITARY TURNOUT.

A military turnout that even exceeded the Liberty Bell's welcome to San Francisco last July, escorted the relic from its position in front of the Tower of Jewels. A platoon of mounted police headed the procession, followed by Angelo J. Rossi, marshal of the parade, and Chief of Police White.

The Twenty-fourth Infantry followed with the Coast Artillery Corps, a battalion of marines, naval detachments from the warships in the bay and the California Grays in the order named. The First Cavalry followed the Liberty Bell with its ambulance and field hospital corps. Members of the Liberty Bell Committee of Philadelphia, Mayor Rolph, exposition officials and State and foreign commissioners rode in decorated cars.

In passing St. Mary's Cathedral on Van Ness avenue, the bell was greeted with the chimes of the cathedral. Another unusual demonstration occurred along Market street, where people crowded the sides of the street and the windows of the office buildings. St. Patrick's Church chimes also signaled the passing of the bell from the city.

On Third street, the military escort drew aside and with arms presented, the soldiers waited the passing of the bell. The military review of the bell was in itself more than five blocks long.

PLACED ON FLAT CAR.

In the yards of the Southern Pacific, the Liberty Bell was again placed securely on the same festive flat car which brought it from Independence Hall to the exposition. Here a police force was necessary to hold back the throngs of souvenir gatherers who would shortly have shorn the bell of its floral decorations.

The start homeward was made at 1:30, an hour and a half behind the scheduled time of departure. The train was the same de luxe special of the Pennsylvania, consisting of three sleeping cars, a diner and two baggage cars. "It has been a wonderful demonstration," said Charles Segar, Chairman of the Liberty Bell Committee, "and one that we who have seen it will always remember."

"San Francisco is a city of wonderful enterprise and I am glad for the city and for the West that it has been possible for the Liberty Bell to have made this journey." Lieut-Gov. Frank B. McClain declared in a farewell to Mayor Rolph and others at the train. "The Liberty Bell has certainly demonstrated the unity of the East and West, and has been a great object lesson in patriotism to the people of the entire nation," declared Senator Boise Penrose, who accompanied the bell on its return trip.

As the special pulled out with the Liberty Bell on the rear car cheer after cheer speeded it away.

PLANS AT SAN DIEGO.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 11.—The spirit of liberty is rampant here tonight on the eve of the arrival of the Liberty Bell. San Diego and the Panama-California Exposition is ready for a patriotic outpouring in honor of the bell which is scheduled to arrive at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and be exhibited in the Plaza de Panama at the exposition for three days.

On being transferred from its car in the morning, the bell will be taken direct to the exposition on an automobile truck. It will be escorted by a squadron of the first cavalry. Through the grounds to the Plaza de Panama it will be escorted by a battalion of the United States Marine Corps.

IS LATE AT FRESNO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FRESNO (Cal.) Nov. 11.—Three hours and ten minutes behind scheduled time, the Liberty Bell, en route to San Diego from San Francisco, arrived in Fresno tonight at 9 o'clock and was cheered by 10,000 men, women and children. Fancy packed boxes of raisins were presented to the Philadelphia delegation.

HOUSE OF DAVID IS COMING HERE.

KING, PIQUED BY "PERSECUTION," TO QUIT CHICAGO.

Jury in the Slander Suit of Mrs. Holliday Against "Prince" Coy Awards the Plaintiff Six Cents and also Hooks the Costs Onto the Defendant.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ST. JOSEPH (Mich.) Nov. 11.—After deliberating for nine hours, during which sounds of wrangling filled the corridors, the jury tonight entered a verdict for 6 cents in the $25,000 slander suit of Mrs. Augusta Holliday against "Prince" Coy Purnell, son of the reigning monarch of the Israel House of David. The defendant, however, must pay the costs.

Judge Wiest's instructions to the jury eliminated all consideration of the charge of conspiracy to extort money from "King" Benjamin and the House of David Colony, the court holding the defense had failed to introduce any real evidence along this line.

The suit, Judge Wiest held, hinges on the charges of Mrs. Holliday as contained in her bill for the annulment of her marriage. The court outlined these charges as follows:

First—Married couples in the colony do not have marital relations for it is considered a sin by the teachings of the religion.

Second—The plaintiff had never lived with her husband.

Rumors were renewed today "King" Benjamin and his "Pillars," angered by what they term to be a "persecution" of their sect, would move the colony to California.

MRS. WILSON GIVEN DIVORCE.

RENO DECREE AWARDED WIFE OF FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE.

RENO, Nov. 11.—Mrs. Lucy James Wilson, wife of Huntington Wilson, former Assistant Secretary of State, today secured a decree of divorce from her husband on a cross-complaint. Wilson filed action several weeks ago after completing a six months' residence here.

Mrs. Wilson accused the former diplomat of being exacting, inconsiderate, unkind and harsh and recited several incidents of cruelty. She declared that during a recent trip to Europe she wrote seven letters to her husband at Washington, D. C. On her return she found the letters unopened in his office desk. On September 14, 1914, the couple effected a reconciliation at New York and Mrs. Wilson left the John Hopkins Hospital and moved to the Belvedere Hotel, where Mr. Wilson was staying. On March 20, 1915, Wilson disappeared and it was not until several days later that Mrs. Wilson learned her husband was en route to Reno.

Mrs. Wilson was given permission to resume her maiden name of Lucy Wortham James.

DENY SERBIA IS ASKING PEACE.

BERLIN (via London) Nov. 11.—Rumors that Serbia has applied for a separate peace suddenly have sprung into general circulation, but so far as can be ascertained, they are without the slightest foundation.

The Associated Press, on investigating the rumors, found one amusing explanation of them. The bells of the Protestant churches had started pealing similarly, and some one seeking the reason for this, formed the theory that it was the beginning of Serbian negotiations. The conjecture soon developed into a report, the fact being ignored that the bells were being rung on the occasion of the meeting of the synod of the Prussian Evangelical Church.

END OF WAR IN SUMMER.

Frederic Palmer on the Situation.

British Have a Million Men at Front Who Have not been in Action.

Peace at Least Six Months Ahead, According to the Correspondent.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—Frederick Palmer, accredited war correspondent at the front for all American newsgathering organizations, returned today from Europe on the St. Louis. He will remain in this country until February 15. Mr. Palmer has had perhaps the best opportunities afforded any man for observing conditions at the front and told of conditions in the war-stricken countries. The correspondent says that the British now have a million men ready for the campaign and the execution of Edith Cavell as a spy had a wonderful effect on voluntary recruiting in the English army.

Mr. Palmer said he had not heard a British or French officer mention the possibility of any compromise with Germany.

A PROPHECY.

Asked when the war would be over, the correspondent replied: "Not until the British have put into action more than a million men who have not fired a shot. Nobody at the British front," he asserted, "ever considers anything short of next summer."

"Miss Cavell's execution did more for recruiting than all the raids" Mr. Palmer continued. "I happened to be with the French when the news of her death was received. Its effect on the troops was instant, electric. The woman's sacrifice had a Joan of Arc character that struck home to the French heart.

"After having lived at the British front for months the glimpse I had of Zeppelin raids over London seemed pretty tame. For real thrills they are not in the same class with half a dozen fifteen-inch German shells in a French town during the busy hour of the day. At the front old and young hear the fragments whizzing by. In London you have to walk miles to see where the bombs fell.

"The Zeppelin raids were a novelty, but not war. The good burst of a high explosive shell at the front will do more military damage and the novelty has worn off. The Zeppelins must hit the houses of Parliament or the Bank of England if they are to be interesting in the future.

"It takes only five hours to get from the trenches to London—and what a contrast. Everybody is cheerful out at the front. They have only to fight and die for England, not to bother with politics. A year ago when the English and the French were fighting with their last reserves to hold Channelsport, London would not believe you if you said the situation over in Flanders was serious. Optimism was the London cult then. Pessimism is now.

"The British are spreading all their bad news broadcast, the Germans suppressing theirs. The British wash their dirty linen in public and the Germans wash theirs in the cellar with the lights turned off. In London you could hear that Lloyd George would be Premier before Christmas; that Asquith was a hopeless philanderer and that he was a great, patient statesman enduring the same ordeal that was the lot of Lincoln; that Northcliffe was the savior of the nation and that he was intoxicated by his own egotism; that Winston Churchill was winning the praise of his teacher in his efforts at painting; that nobody was for that old ruffian Kitchener, except some of the people and some of the army.

CONFIDENCE SHAKEN.

"The British trusted the leaders, but the Dardanelles and the Balkan mistakes sorely shook their confidence.

"Now we have the new war council—Asquith, Lloyd George and Balfour, with Sir Edward Grey, when there is a question of foreign affairs. That means direct responsibility. Kitchener has the big army organized. It awaits only arms and shells.

"Without endangering the situation on the western front England can send three-quarters of a million of trained men to the near east if she can transport them and supply them with munitions.

"Through the winter the crisis of the war will be in the Balkans. It is a case of a fierce fight for a time in the Balkan mud and mountain passes. The Bulgars cannot keep going long unless the Germans get through to them with munitions. When the Germans have established their communications with Constantinople they will have a long line to guard while they organize all the mischief they can in the East.

"British and French reserves will be moving by ship. A large proportion of French and British military opinion was opposed to the Dardanelles expedition from the start and favored putting troops into Serbia six months ago and closing 'the ring of steel' around Germany before she could connect up with Bulgaria.

"The greatest experience I had was with the British fleet. That is another contrast with the confusing business of politics in London. If we ever go to war, I only hope that our navy may be as ready as the British navy was and that it may also

GREY ON POINT OF RESIGNING.

Came Near Leaving Cabinet When Haldane Quit.

Regarded Viscount's Action as Loss to Public.

Premier Asquith will Head New War Committee.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, told the House of Commons today that he himself had expressed a desire to resign at the time Viscount Haldane left the Cabinet.

"But for a crisis in the public affairs I would have done so," said the foreign secretary.

When the new coalition Cabinet was formed last May, Viscount Haldane was succeeded as Lord High Chancellor by Baron Buckmaster of Cheddington.

Premier Asquith paid tribute to Viscount Haldane, saying:

"He rendered an inestimable service when in the War Office."

Replying to a request to lay the papers on the table respecting the Antwerp expedition, Premier Asquith declined while the war was in progress. He added:

"Mr. Churchill, (formerly first lord of the admiralty) may treat with indifference the allegations against him. He has a good record and will be amply justified when the full story is told."

Sir Edward Grey's expression of regret was in reply to a question whether Viscount Haldane had been assisting in the administration of the Foreign Office. The Secretary went on to say that Lord Haldane had at no time taken part in the work at the Foreign Office, either before or during the war, except with the full knowledge and consent of himself, and in important matters with the authority of the premier, and those primarily responsible.

Personally he regarded Viscount Haldane's withdrawal from the government as a very great loss to the public service.

GREY'S INTENTION.

Sir Edward added:

"I, myself, expressed to the Premier my desire to resign also at the same time, and but for a crisis in the public affairs, I would have done so. If Lord Haldane's services were available in any work for which I were responsible I would consider it in the public interest that they should be utilized."

Sir Edward thought it was right to say this in view of the attacks that have been made upon Viscount Haldane.

AS TO KITCHENER.

To make matters clear, Premier Asquith stated in the House of Commons tonight Earl Kitchener, Secretary of State for War, had not tendered his resignation.

NEW WAR COMMITTEE.

Great Britain's new war committee of the Cabinet during the temporary absence of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, it was officially announced today, will consist of Premier Asquith, Arthur J. Balfour, First Lord of the Admiralty; David Lloyd George, Minister of Munitions; Andrew Bonar Law, Secretary of the Colonies, and Reginald McKenna, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Resuming the debate in the House of Commons which was adjourned last night, owing to the absence of members of the Cabinet, William Joynson Hicks, member for the Brentford division of Middlesex, drew attention to the condition of the royal flying corps and the naval air service. He said there was dissatisfaction connected with the naval air service in regard to organization and the appointment of a chief who knew nothing about air craft above the heads of those who in fact had built up the fame of the service.

It was important, added the member, that Great Britain should have large, new aeroplanes for the offensive next spring, in order to meet the new airships and new aeroplanes which the Germans were building. He asked why work on a British Zeppelin had been stopped in January and whether the admiralty had dropped the policy of attacking Zeppelins by aeroplanes.

During the course of the debate A. J. Balfour, First Lord of the Admiralty, laid down the principle that he would not reply to criticisms of the conduct of the war on the ground that "all criticism of the conduct of the war must wait until after the war is over, and long after, be a matter almost impossible to deal with, because the facts are not and cannot be known."

NEW FRENCH LOAN AT FIVE PER CENT.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—The bill providing for the new French loan was introduced in the Chamber of Deputies today by Finance Minister Ribot. The rate of interest is fixed at 5 per cent., but the price of issue and the price of subscription are left to be fixed by governmental decree.

All the privileges and immunities attached to the 3 per cent. bonds are extended to the new 5 per cent. issue, which is exempt from all taxes. The government renounces the right of payment until after January 1, 1931.

Savings bank depositors are granted the right to liberate half their deposits for investment in the loan without the usual notices of withdrawal.

ITALY DOUBTS THE GREEKS.

ROME, Nov. 11 (via Paris.)—The benevolent sentiments towards the Entente allies expressed by Greece have been received with skepticism in Italian political circle. The Messagero says that uncensored news of events in Greece proves that it has been the fear of naval action by the allies that has held back King Constantin and his government up to the present time.

SECTOR OF LOOS IS BOMBARDED.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—The official communication issued tonight reads as follows:

"The cannonading has been particularly intense on both sides in the sector of Loos, in the region of the La Fosse Calonne and Souches. In several regions the work of our miners obtained excellent results.

"To the south of the Somme, near Faye, the explosion of one of our series of mines shattered the galleries and blew up a German post in front of Beuvraignes. A camouflet destroyed an enemy mine chamber which was being charged.

"In the Argonne two of our mines greatly damaged the enemy workers of the Haute Cheauchee and at Hill 285. At Les Eparges another mine likewise destroyed a German trench. We immediately occupied the excavation despite the resistance of the enemy.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle to the north of Flirey our bom' throwers concentrated a very effective fire on the German positions."

The Belgian communication reads:

"There has been an intermittent bombardment on different points of our front, especially at the height known as La Forme Violone Roodepoort, La Maison de Burgh, Saint Jacques Capelle, Roeninghe and the ferryman's house."

FRENCH GOLD IS INCREASING.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—The weekly statement of the Bank of France shows the following changes:

Notes in circulation, increase 109,617,000 francs; treasury deposits, increase 7,155,000 francs; general deposits, increase 4,089 000 francs; bills discounted, decrease 51,280,000 francs; advances, increase 2,641,000 francs; gold in hand, increase, 27,325,000 francs; silver in hand, decrease, 909,000 francs.

SERBIA EXPLAINS HER WAR AFFAIRS.

PARIS Nov. 11.—The Serbian legation today gave out a note issued with a view to setting at rest certain reports regarding Serbian affairs said to have originated in German sources. The statement said:

"First, Gen. Radomir Putnik, chief of the Serbian General Staff, although he has been in precarious health for a long time, continues at his post directing the operations of the Serbian army.

"Second, the artillery captured by the Germans at Kralievo was unimportant.

"Third, at no moment has the Serbian government thought of peace nor considered making peace before victory was won by the allies."

BRITISH EXPLAIN HOCKING SEIZURE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11. — Great Britain has informed the United States that the cause of the detention of the American steamer Hocking, seized by a British prize crew and taken to Halifax was to determine whether the vessel was enemy-owned, although flying the American flag. The Hocking is one of the ships owned by the American Trans-Atlantic Company of New York. It has been charged, and denied, that some of the stock of the company is German-owned. The Hocking awaits action in a prize court.

GENEVA, Nov. 11 (via Paris.) — Dispatches received from Athens say the Greek General Staff has decided to put into training all citizens who have not done military service.

RIOTOUS SCENES IN LUXEMBURG.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 11 (via London.)—Riotous scenes marked the opening session of the Luxemburg Chamber of Deputies when Radical members expressed dissatisfaction with the new Cabinet headed by Dr. Leutsch, with the result that the sitting was suspended, says a telegram from Luxemburg received by way of Berlin.

RUSSIAN AGENTS VISIT FACTORIES.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Nov. 11.—C. H. Cahan, manager of the Canadian Cars Foundry Company, arrived here today with three members of the Imperial Russian Commission, traveling in a special car. They visited a number of important industrial plants with a view, it was said, of ascertaining how soon certain orders they desire to place could be filled. They were scheduled to leave this afternoon for Dayton, O. The names of the commissioners were not made public.

America Speaks Thoroughly, Says Inspired Dispatch.

Future will Tell if We are Sincere, Declares Press.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

COLOGNE (via London) Nov. 11.—What is said to be an inspired dispatch from Berlin to the Cologne Gazette on the American note to Great Britain, says:

"The energy with which the President, after the settlement of the controversy with Germany, has taken up the settlement of the Anglo-American question is acknowledged unreservedly here. There could be no more convincing documentary proof of the importance of American interests and the extent of the British violations of right than this note.

"America," it must be conceded, "has spoken thoroughly and energetically. The immediate future will show how strong is the political determination behind these words."

GERMAN COMMENT IS STRONG.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

HAMBURG (via London, 6 p.m.) Nov. 11.—The Hamburg Nachrichten, commenting on the American note, says:

"Pirates, commercial robbers, lawbreakers and 'inelegant' extortionists are pilloried before the whole world by the note whose protests and demands are exhaustively based on existing treaties. That is the chief meaning of the note.

"The violation of Grecian neutrality was established for all time by the Grecian note of protest over the signature of the then Premier Venizelos. The note of the United States has now also officially testified to England's numberless crimes against marine law.

"What will happen further depends on how Washington is ready to act if its demands are not fulfilled and if Great Britain does not abandon her violations of neutral rights. The American government does not lack the power and methods of bringing pressure to bear. For the present, we are content with the characterizing of England as a thieving and selfish despot on the free seas."

WAR PLANT IS BURNED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TRENTON (N. J.) Nov. 11. — Approximately $1,000,000 damage was done by fire which, early today, destroyed one of the wire rope shops of the John A. Roeblings Sons Company plant in this city. Due to the fact that the company has orders for war material for European countries, rumors were in circulation that the fire was of incendiary origin, but nothing has been found to substantiate such reports.

The building in which the company is planning to make gun barrels for European belligerents is some distance from the burned structure.

WILSON'S PHRASE TEXT OF COMMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—President Wilson's phrase regarding the "rights of humanity" as something for which America was contending, figured prominently in the comment of the evening newspapers on the Ancona tragedy.

"The fact that America's policy will depend upon the point whether American lives have been lost is a singular comment upon the claim of President Wilson that America is contending for nothing less high and sacred than the rights of humanity," says the Evening Standard, which continues:

"We would frankly ask the American people whether this last addition to the record of murder on the high seas does not convince them that there is only one means by which the pirates can be brought to book, namely, increasing vigilance by the allied fleet. Sea power is one and indivisible, and by demanding that we relax our sea grip on the enemy the American government is demanding that pirates be not punished."

PARIS, Nov. 11.—The Serbian Legation today received the following dispatch dated November 8:

"The enemy has succeded in crossing the Morava of the west, near Kra-Lievo, and the Morava of the south, in the direction of Djunis and Leskovac.

"The enemy's attack near Grdelitza were repulsed. The fighting on the right banks of the Leskovitza River and upon the left bank of the Morava Binatchka River, east of Gnilane, has resulted in our favor. Enemy attacks toward the Gorges of Katchanik were repulsed."

CANNONADING IN BALTIC ROCKS HOUSES ON SHORE.

COPENHAGEN (via London) Nov. 11.—A cannonade of terrific intensity was heard yesterday in the neighborhood of the Fehmarn bell in the Baltic Sea. It is believed by those who heard it to have been the result of a British submarine attack on a German squadron.

The firing lasted twenty minutes and was of such violence that the doors and windows on the rocky harbor were blown open. Houses vibrated as though in an earthquake. The weather was so thick that it was impossible to observe any of the details of the engagement.

Fehmarn Sound is a channel less than a quarter of a mile broad, separating the Prussian island of Fehmarn, or Femern, from the mainland of Holstein. Fehmarn lies about thirty-seven miles east of the entrance to Kiel Harbor.

outnumber the enemy. In that case we need not let the politicians worry us.

"If it takes a navy the size of the British to make an impregnable line of steel from the British Channel to Iceland, how large a one will we require if we should ever be attacked on two sides to defend our coast on two oceans, the Panama Canal, Hawaii and the Philippines, and the Monroe doctrine. Only the sight of the British battleship fleet putting to sea surpassed that of the vast array of ships at anchor as seen from the after deck of Sir John Jellicoe's flagship. Of all the great leaders I had the fortune to meet, Sir John Jellicoe impresses me most, with his young admirals around him.

"The Germans on the western front are not fighting as well as they did six months ago. The initiative is now with the allies in this stubborn siege business. A year ago the British were fighting with rifles and flesh and blood against artillery and machine guns. The Germans fired five shells to their one. But all that is changed. They are now firing more shells than the Germans. My last day at the British front was spent watching the attack on the Hohenzollern redoubt. The British guns laid a perfect swath of explosions over 2000 yards of German trenches for half an hour before the charge.

"I was over the Champagne battlefield where the French might have broken through, but for the heavy rains of the second day of the attack, which was made in order to relieve pressure on the Russians."

AMERICA TO GO SLOW ON SINKING OF ANCONA.

Exact Number of Persons Lost or the Manner of the Destruction of the Vessel is Yet Unknown—If the Submarine Flew German Flag Officials Think this may be Construed as an Act of War Against Italy.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Official reports describing exactly how the Italian liner Ancona was destroyed still were unavailable today and in consequence, Secretary Lansing refrained from expressing an opinion as to the attitude of the case.

Press reports indicating that the Ancona was given warning, but that many passengers were lost as a result of shots fired by the attacking submarine after the liner came to a halt, were read here with grave interest. High officials of the American government hold that when heeding warning a belligerent merchantman is entitled to sufficient time to place noncombatants in a place of safety and that the fact that a vessel previously attempted to escape does not invalidate that right.

Many phases of the question were discussed informally by officials during the day, but with the reservation that formal comment or action, necessarily must await detailed reports from Ambassador Page at Rome and American consuls in Italy and North Africa, who have been instructed to obtain affidavits from survivors. So far it has been impossible to ascertain definitely the number of American citizens lost.

REPORTS CONFLICTING.

Conflicting reports concerning the colors raised by the submarine which attacked the Ancona attracted much attention. If one report—that the submarine flew a German flag—is confirmed, officials said his would be considered as an act of war sufficient to serve notice that Italy and Germany were in a state of war. There never has been any declaration of war between the two countries so far as the State Department is advised and the custom has been in cases of this kind to wait some overt act as an evidence of the state of hostilities.

Should it develop that the submarine was manned by a German naval force and flew a German flag, it is considered certain that the question will be a subject of immediate diplomatic correspondence with the German Foreign Office. Every means of clearing up such points through American diplomatic and consular sources will be exhausted, however, before either the Austrian or German government is approached.

RECEIVE CONSULAR REPORTS.

The State Department received a cablegram from American Consul White at Naples today saying that the Societa Italia says 347 passengers and crew of the Ancona are reported as saved out of 496, and that the steamship officials believe that more will be reported saved. The department also received a message from Ambassador Page giving some brief details.

Consul White's cablegram dated Naples last night and received here early this morning, follows:

"The Societa Italia now reports that the following American citizens were aboard the steamship Ancona.

"First cabin, Mrs. Cecile Griel; steerage, Alessandro Patattivo, wife and four children, Mrs. Francesco Mascolo Lamura and minor child, and Pasquale Laurine and that 347 passengers and crew were reported as saved out of 496. The steamship company is confident that more will be reported as saved."

SURVIVOR DESCRIBES DISASTER.

CAPE BON (Tunis) Nov. 10, via Paris, Nov. 11.—One of the Ancona's officers named Salvemini says that towards noon he sighted two submarines, which by reason of the steamer's nearness, a thick fog and the reduced speed of the liner, were able to approach unobserved.

The officer declares both submarines flew the Austrian colors, but several other survivors affirmed that the flag was struck and replaced by the German colors as soon as the liner was sighted.

The nearest submarine was about 300 feet long and carried 3-inch guns on her bow and stern. The other submarine drew across the Ancona's bows to prevent any attempt to escape. Continuing, the Ancona's officer says:

"At the first shots the captain of the Ancona ordered out the boats. The eighth boat had hardly touched the water when the liner sank by the head, engulfing the remainder of the passengers and crew, who had taken refuge on the poop deck.

"The eight boats, keeping together, steered on a southerly course. After traveling some distance, they sighted a ship with her lights out. The survivors lighted flares and the ship approached them, but the submarines, which were following, turned searchlights upon her and she abruptly changed her course and disappeared in the night.

"The boats then separated. Twenty-six persons were landed at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning, on the beach at Sidi Daoud and on Cape Bon Peninsula, where they were taken in by the European inhabitants."

Salvemini believes the persons who went in the eighth boat inevitably perished.

Another boat with the captain of the Ancona and twenty-eight other persons was picked up this morning on the Zembra Island by the lighthouse tender from Cape Bon, while searching the coast for survivors.

AWAIT AMERICA'S ACTION.

NAPLES, Nov. 11 (via London.)—The offices of the steamship company to which the Ancona belonged remain crowded with people, for the most part women and children, anxiously inquiring for passengers, who are missing, and giving many signs of distress and concern and of anger over the sinking of the vessel.

The loss to the company through the torpedoing of the Ancona is fully covered by insurance, the risk of war being provided in the policies taken out on the vessel, which amounted to $1,000,000.

The public is waiting with the keenest interest the development of America's attitude regarding the Ancona, as her case is regarded here as identical with that of the Lusitania.

Blunders.

LYNCH SCORES KITCHENER AND BRITISH COMMANDERS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Arthur Lynch, Nationalist, today in the House of Commons, made a strong attack against Lord Kitchener, who he said had blundered in not moving to the defense of Liege, again on the question of munitions and once again in Serbia. The blunder in the Dardanelles, he added, "was at least a blunder of a man who meant to do something."

He contended that the war was being conducted with signal incompetency, and that unless there was a change the country was moving straight to disaster. He would sweep away seventy per cent. of the higher British commanders, beginning with Field Marshal French, who had been in command fifteen months and had "made no progress."

In the last offensive, Mr. Lynch continued, the allies broke through the German lines but in the superior command decision was wanting to take full advantage of the moral victory. The government, he declared, had no plan of campaign. The idea of a successful war of attrition was absurd. The war must be won in the field. The men were good and munitions were there. It was leadership and direction which were lacking.

The Intention.

TO TURN TABLES ON THE GERMANS

Allies Say Serbian Army is Holding its Own.

British Force is Landed and Attacks Bulgarians.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 11.—There has been no material change in the last twenty-four hours in the situation, either in Serbia or on the other fronts. The Austro-Germans claim to be advancing along the line west of Nish, but beyond the report of the capture of another 4000 prisoners which the Serbians say like those reported captured previously, were largely civilians or Albanians or Macedonian troops, who surrendered easily, the official reports of the invaders don't record the capture of any town.

In fact the Serbians are now facing the invaders in the mountains which have proved a protection to them in their previous wars, and they may be expected to make the advance of the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians a matter of some difficulty. It also is probable that the opposition the Austrians are meeting in their efforts to drive back the Montenegrins is delaying Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army, for the right wing must be free from this menace before they proceed with their drive.

News from the southern part of the front is conflicting. It is now known that the French did not re-occupy, but simply made a cavalry raid, into the town of Veles, destroying the Bulgarian munition stores. The French, however, are advancing on the west side of the Vardar River, and at the same time are repelling Bulgarian attacks on Krivolak and endeavoring to form a junction with the Serbians who are fighting in the Babuna.

BRITISH FORCES LAND.

A new British division having landed, the force which is to be under command of Gen. Sir Charles Carmichael Monro is spreading out toward Strumitsa, where encounters with the Bulgarian patrols are reported.

With the arrival of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, who should soon be on the scene, a further development in the campaign is expected and it is possible that the Gallipoli army will become more active.

So long as the Serbian army remains intact, which it has done thus far, it is the feeling of military men here that there is a good chance to turn the tables on the Germans and their allies. The Teutons, the military observers say, can hardly send further reinforcements from the near eastern adventure, their line against Russia already having grown dangerously thin, as is evidenced by the Russian successes, both in the north and south.

RUSSIANS GAINING.

The Germans admit that they withdrew troops from ground west of Riga, which they gained only a few weeks ago at considerable sacrifice, and that the Russian fleet in the Gulf of Riga is supporting the Russian army. By their recent gains, the Russians have established a connection between their forces on the Gulf of Riga by way of Kemmern and Lake Babit to Olai, which is half way between Riga and Mitau.

As the result of the activity of hostile submarines freight rates between Cardiff and the Mediterranean Sea continue to jump. A fresh record was made today when a rate of fifty shillings was quoted for Port Said.

Emphatic.

NO RESIGNATION BY KITCHENER.

ASQUITH AGAIN DENIES THE REPORT IN COMMONS.

Explains Suspension of London "Globe" was Because it Deliberately Defied the Government—Decision to Send General to Near East Taken Last Thursday.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 11.—During the course of a discussion in the House of Commons on the suspension of the Globe newspaper, James Myles Hogge, member for East Edinburgh, declared his belief that the statement that Lord Kitchener had resigned was true and that the seizure of the paper because of publication of the statement was not justified.

Premier Asquith, who immediately replied, said that Mr. Hogge accused him of "a deliberate and inexcusable falsehood," and, to make the matter quite clear, he declared:

"Earl Kitchener never tendered his resignation, either to the King or myself, the only two persons to whom he could have tendered it. Earl Kitchener never breathed a word of resignation to either."

NEAR EASTERN TRIP.

The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the Near East, the Premier added, was taken by the Cabinet on Thursday, November 4. Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. He repudiated the charge that the Globe had been singled out for special treatment. Mr. Hogge and William M. R. Pringle, members for Northwest Lanarkshire, however, insisted that other papers which were equally guilty had not been proceeded against.

WHY GLOBE WAS STOPPED.

Sir John Simon, Home Secretary, pointed out that the Globe was in an entirely different position from the other papers in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a request made to all the papers that no reference should be made to Earl Kitchener's movements until further notice.

The next day the Globe, and the Globe alone, published the statement that Earl Kitchener had resigned because he had quarreled with his colleagues. When a denial was issued, the Globe repeated the statement, thus saying in effect that the government was lying. Under the circumstances, it was the bounden duty of the government to prevent further circulation of the lie in the most summary and direct way.

ZEALANDIA CASE IS INVESTIGATED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—British authorities here investigating the reported forcible search of the American steamer ealandia at Progreso, Mex., by a party fro ma British cruiser, have information which leads them to believe that the Zealandia when searched was lying more than three miles off shore and was therefore not in a neutral port but on the high seas. They are investigating further and the State Department is making inquiries.

Latest information to British sources is that the Zealandia, which has been suspected of being engaged in unneutral operations since she cleared mysteriously from Pensacola, Fla., last month, was intending to go from the Mexican port to Sweden. She carried rosin, which is used for making shrapnel.

Gen. Von Linsingen's Austro-Hungarian troops, asisted by German artillery, according to the announcement, have thrown the Russians from Kosceushnoviza."

WILSON TO ASK REPUBLICAN AID.

Would Unite All Parties to Fight Bryan Pacifists.

Determined to Push Through Defense Programme.

No Democratic Caucus will be Called on Plan.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—President Wilson has determined to call upon Republican members of Congress to help him fight William J. Bryan and his followers on the subject of national defense.

The President's friends let it be known today that Senator Boise Penrose of Pennsylvania, ranking minority member of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, Senator Henry A. Dupont of Delaware, of the Military Affairs Committee, J. H. Gallinger of New Hampshire, Republican leader of the Senate, James R. Mann of Illinois, minority leader of the House, Representative Julius Kahn of California, and Representative Thomas S. Butler of Westchester, Pa., Republican members of the House Naval and Military Affairs Committee respectively, are to be asked to confer with the President as fast as they reach Washington. The administration leaders make no secret of the fact that in order to defeat Bryan and his peace party, the President will have to rely on Republican aid.

The President, it is understood, is not underestimating the strength of Mr. Bryan following and in order to do so he has determined to appeal to Congress, irrespective of party, to support his defense programme.

WILL CALL NO CAUCUS.

Tentative plans of the administration do not include a Democratic Senate caucus to pass on the defense issue before it is submitted to Congress. They feel it would be unwise to make defense a party issue with Bryan and his followers fighting the President. Republican leaders can be brought to the support of the administration, the President is said to feel that Bryan can make little or no trouble for him. None of the Republican leaders who are to be asked to visit the White House has as yet arrived in Washington, but Senator Gallinger and Representative Mann are expected within a week.

Senator Penrose, who has been in California, is en route home, and doubtless will come to Washington for conference with the President. In a speech in San Francisco yesterday Senator Penrose declared for a great navy, in fact, second to none. He advocated the building of forty-eight battleships, one bearing the name of each State, reorganization of the army and pay for the National Guards.

INROADS OF BRYAN.

The decision of the President to appeal upon Republican leaders to support him is taken here to mean that Bryan has made inroads on the administration which are not generally known to the public. So far as is known, all the Republican leaders who are to be asked to meet the President are for adequate defense. Whether they would be satisfied with the programme of the President or will demand larger appropriations than those called for by Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary of the Navy Daniels, in their estimates, will doubtless be determined when the conferences are held.

STORM VICTIMS NUMBER EIGHT.

LITTLE KANSAS TOWN OF ZYBA IS NEARLY DESTROYED.

Damage to Property at Great Bend is Placed at Half a Million Dollars—Soldiers are Called Out to Maintain Order—Tornado Sweeps Iowa Village.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Nov. 11.—The number of dead in the wind storms which swept over Central Kansas early last night, wrecking hundreds of homes in its course through several towns, remained at eight tonight. Communication with all but a few outlying sections of the stricken district was re-established late today.

Although the damage was greatest in Great Bend, where a path three blocks wide through the industrial and residential sections was cut by a tornado, reports tonight show that Zyba, Kan., a town of 200 population, was the most thoroughly wrecked of the towns and villages in the storm. Every building in Zyba is said to have suffered damage and many of them were demolished. Three persons were killed there and several injured. In a blow lasting only a few minutes the entire town was thrown into a mass of struggling humanity, wrecked homes, trees and fallen wires.

Reports of damage to buildings, death to live stock and injury to the inhabitants on isolated farms were received late today.

In Great Bend the lighting plant was destroyed and the wires over the greater part of the city were blown into a hopeless mass.

It was believed not an electric light would be available for more than a week.

Hoisington, Kan., was also supplied with the light power from the Great Bend plant.

Great Bend was without water in the city mains tonight and will be in that condition several weeks, according to the city officials. The standpipe was blown down and the pumping plant destroyed.

SOLDIERS AID IN RELIEF WORK.

GREAT BEND (Kan.) Nov. 11.—The death toll of the tornado which struck Great Bend last night was established at two, according to an announcement made late today by the city officials. Eight persons were seriously injured and about seventy-five others suffered more or less severe bruises and cuts.

Forty-one of the injured were being cared for in a local hospital. It is estimated that upwards of twenty-five more with lesser injuries are being cared for in private homes.

The property loss estimate of half a million dollars was unchanged. A large part of the loss was in the railroad and industrial section of the town, where three large flour mills and several grain elevators were destroyed.

Although many families of the city are hard hit by the destruction of their homes, there was no indication of any real suffering today, and the situation, city officials assert, would be handled without outside aid.

PARIS, Nov. 11, 5 p.m.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Tunis says:

"The captain of the Ancona, who arrived here today, confirmed previous reports that the hostile submarine fired upon his vessel while her boats were filled with passengers and ready to be lowered. Shells struck the vessel, killing or wounding many passengers, the captain said, and the boats were also struck by projectiles after they were in the water.

"The captain declared that no signal was given by the submarine, except that a shot was fired when the submarine was about five miles distant. The steamer immediately stopped completely. The last gunshots were fired at a distance of about 300 yards from the steamer. Several of the boats pulled close to the submarine, the captain of the Ancona said, but were warned off with insulting cries."

PROMISED AID BY ROOSEVELT.

Former President Named in the New Haven Trial.

Consulted in Morse Attempt to Buy into System.

Charles Mellen Again Proves a Hostile Witness.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Former President Roosevelt was brought into the testimony today at the trial of the eleven former New York, New Haven and Hartford directors charged with violating the Sherman law, as having given assurances to Charles S. Mellen that the New Haven need have no fear of Federal action during Roosevelt's administration if it rejected a proposition to dispose of its steamship properties to Charles W. Morse.

The testimony, which was given by Mr. Mellen, was adduced by the government to show that Mr. Mellen nevertheless recommended the sale of the properties and that the New Haven directors, in pursuance of their alleged purpose to obtain a monopoly of the transportation traffic of New England declined to consider the President's recommendation. While it was a twice told tale, as Mr. Mellen gave similar testimony at the Interstate Commerce Commission inquiry into New Haven affairs, Mr. Mellen added to it today by saying that Mr. Roosevelt felt that it would be inimical to public interest for Morse to consummate his purpose of getting control of the Atlantic coastwise steamship lines through acquisition of the New Haven properties, and that Commissioners Knapp and Prouty and Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, held the same opinion. The government, however, placed emphasis on the portion of the witness's testimony in which he quoted Col. Roosevelt as saying: "I am no lawyer and I can promise you no immunity if you violate the law."

OFFER BY MORSE.

Morse, in January, 1905, according to Mellen, had offered to buy the New Haven's steamship lines for $20,000,000, which would have been a profit of $14,000,000 on their cost. Mellen thought the New Haven ought to take advantage of the opportunity, inasmuch as the question was being agitated in Congress of requiring railroad lines to divorce themselves from ownership of steamship lines. He said he went to Washington and explained the situation to the President in the presence of Messrs. Knapp, Prouty and Smith.

"I was fearful," he said, "that if this legislation should be passed it might come at a time when there would be no purchaser for the property and we would have the ships on our hands.

"I wanted to protect myself."

The President, after declining to promise immunity, said, according to Mellen:

"But if you don't sell, you'll have no trouble during my administration."

"I did not see then and I do not see now," continued Mr. Mellen, "that he did not act from the highest dictates of public duty. He said that Morse's proposition was in the highest way prejudicial to public interest if he should get a monopoly of the whole coastwise trade, as he was expected to do. He said he was fearful of the success of the Morse combination and Herbert Knox Smith was especially so."

KNAPP AND PROUTY AGREE.

"And Messrs. Knapp and Prouty agreed with him?" interposed R. V. Lindabury of the defense.

"They did," said the witness, adding that in his opinion, the assurance given by the President was one reason why the New Haven steamship lines were not included in the bill in equity brought against the New Haven in 1909. The government maintains, however, that the assurances given by President Roosevelt were meant to apply solely to the proposed legislation and not to acts of the New Haven amenable to the Sherman law.

"May I ask," interrupted Delancy Nicoll, of the defense, "that when the government again comes to amend the bill of particulars they make Theodore Roosevelt a co-conspirator?"

This remark caused laughter in the courtroom.

MELLEN HOSTILE WITNESS.

Mr. Mellen again today proved a hostile witness, in the opinion of the government counsel. Attorney Batts complained that he was unable to elicit sufficient testimony from the witness except in instances where proof could be obtained through other sources. The case in point had to do with the Joy Steamship Company, which the government charges was secretly operated by the New Haven for the purpose of driving the Enterprise line out of business.

Mr. Mellen denied that a semblance of competition was kept up between the Joy line and the New Haven after its acquisition, but he admitted that the United States Transportation Company, another New Haven concern, was used to meet the Enterprise line's competition.

An attempt by the government to show that the United States Company also was secretly controlled, was hampered by Mr. Mellen's failure of memory.

BLISS QUITS ESPE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The resignation of Cornelius N. Bliss as a director in the Southern Pacific Company and the election of Frederick D. Underwood, president of the Erie Railroad, to succeed him, were announced today at the conclusion of a meeting of the Southern Pacific's board of directors.

FIRE SHIP BEACHED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

GALVESTON (Tex.) Nov. 11.—The Italian steamship Livietta, which was on fire sixty miles off Sabine bar yesterday, has beached about sixty-five miles east of Sabine, according to information reaching here today. The fire in the forward part of the ship has been extinguished, but is burning aft. The Livietta had a cargo of case oil from Port Arthur for Buenos Aires.

TRAFTON INDICTED.

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Eight indictments were returned by the Federal grand jury last night against Edward F. Trafton, charged with holding up fifteen stage coaches in the Yellowstone National Park July 29, 1914. Trafton secured more than $4000 from the passengers.

RESUMES CANTALOUPE CASE.

Books of Pittsburgh Concern are Produced in Court After Protests are Overruled.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Nov. 11.—The taking of testimony before the Federal Master, A. R. Beatty, in the Sherman anti-trust action against the Western Cantaloupe Exchange was resumed today when M. O. Coggins, who yesterday refused to testify and who refused to allow the books of the M. O. Coggins Company, produced in court, waived both his objections. Mr. Coggins's objection was based on the belief that his testimony might be used against him in the criminal action pending in the United States Court at Chicago, but changed his view on the advice of his attorney.

The greater part of the day was taken up in an examination of the company's books with a view of ascertaining its business in canteloupes shipped from the Imperial Valley of California by Japanese farmers who brought suit against members of the Western Exchange for $1,800,000 damages.

SMITH AIDS MRS. DOGGETT.

SAN DIEGO MAN IS WITNESS IN CONSERVATION SUIT.

Wealthy Widow Admits Californian has Benefited Financially from Her Immense Estate and at Her Own Suggestion Becomes Her Traveling Companion.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—B. G. Smith, friend, traveling companion, religious coworker and financial beneficiary of Mrs. Eugenia S. Doggett and her $1,100,000 estate, became a conspicuous figure in the hearing of the petition for a conservator of Mrs. Doggett and her estate before Probate Judge Henry Horner today.

Smith, according to the wealthy woman, traveled from London to Chicago with Mrs. Doggett at her request to help her fight the conservator proceedings instituted by her brother and manager of her property, W. L. Doggett, real estate man of Chicago.

Mrs. Doggett and Mr. Smith are followers of the religious cult of Joanna Southcott, an English prophetess who died in 1814.

MEET AT SAN DIEGO.

Mrs. Doggett admitted Smith had benefited financially from her estate. She said she met him in San Diego, Cal., several years ago, when she was there seeking a cure for her daughter, who was afflicted with tuberculosis. Smith, she said, lived at her house in San Diego as a friend and after the death of her daughter five years ago, he and Mrs. Doggett accompanied the body to Virginia, where it was placed in a vault. They remained in Virginia visiting relatives of Mrs. Doggett about two weeks and then sailed for England.

WHAT $10 DID FOR THIS WOMAN

The Price She Paid for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Which Brought Good Health.

Danville, Va.—"I have only spent ten dollars on your medicine and I feel so much better than I did when the doctor was treating me. I don't suffer any bearing down pains at all now and I sleep well. I cannot say enough for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills as they have done so much for me. I am enjoying good health now and owe it all to your remedies. I take pleasure in telling my friends and neighbors about them."—Mrs. MATTIE HALEY, 501 Colquhone Street, Danville, Va.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

OUCH! LAME BACK RUB LUMBAGO OR BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys causes blackache? No! They have no nerves, therefore cannot cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Temperatures Drop and High Winds do Damage in Three Central States.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—Government forecasters predict Chicago's temperature will drop tonight to about 25 deg., but it had only fallen to 50 deg. at 9 o'clock, a slump of 18 deg. from the maximum. All the Middle West is colder tonight, but the East and Northwest show little change. Canadian and Wyoming points show 4 and 8 deg. above zero. High winds are doing much damage in Iowa, Southern Illinois and Indiana. Other temperatures:

Health Insurance

Some people are naturally thin. There is also a natural pallor but most people who are both thin and pale are far from well and they need a tonic.

Many people neglect to take a tonic until they get so sick that a tonic is not sufficient just because the demand of the debilitated body is not insistent enough. The pale face, weak nerves, enfeebled digestion are neglected until the point where pain or actual breakdown requires medical treatment. A tonic taken in time is the best health insurance. It supports the overtaxed system, the worried nerves until nature can make repairs.

Build up the blood and you are sending renewed health and strength to every part of the body. The appetite is improved, the digestion is toned up, there is new color in the cheeks and lips, you worry less, become good natured where before you were irritable and you find new joys in living.

Tonic treatment is useful in dyspepsia, rheumatism, anemia and nervous disorders. In many cases it is all the medical treatment that is required.

Free booklets on the blood, nerves and diet will be sent on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach or bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Stimulus.

RECRUITING IN IRELAND.

Work has been Entrusted to Voluntary Committees.

Large Number has Enlisted, Rejections are High.

Effective Appeals Based on Invasion of Belgium.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

DUBLIN (Ireland) Nov. 5.—Recruiting in Ireland has been placed upon a new basis. Hitherto the work has been intrusted to voluntary committees formed in each county, with a central recruiting council for Ireland. The result has been, as announced by Maj.-Gen. Lovick Friend, the commander of the forces in Ireland, the enlistment of 81,000 men for the infantry. As the percentage of rejections for unfitness has been as high as 50 per cent., the total number from Ireland who offered themselves for service in the army was about 160,000. Ireland, at the outbreak of the war, had more than her proportion of men in the army and reserves, and this total has been described by the highest military authority in a public letter as "magnificent." There must be added to it also Ireland's recruitment for the navy, to which a substantial number of men have gone.

FRESH APPEAL IS MADE.

A fresh appeal has been made for men to fill up the wastage in the Irish divisions at the front. For this purpose, a recruitment of about 1100 men a week is officially stated to be necessary.

No difficulty whatever is expected to arise over the matter. The rate of recruitment asked for now is less than that reached in the months of April and May last. The existing organizations are now at an end and a new department for Irish recruiting has been established, under the leadership of Lord Wimborn, lord lieutenant. He has appointed as chief director Capt. R. C. Kelly, an Irish soldier of distinction, and, what is more to the purpose, an extremely keen business man, full of energy and tact.

EFFECTIVE APPEALS.

The most effective appeals addressed to Irishmen have been based on the invasion of Belgium. The torpedoing of the Lusitania was a powerful stimulus to recruiting, which was still further added to by the sinking of the Arabic.

Ireland was chilled by action on the part of the military authorities such as that refusing to allow the Irish division to provide its own colors.

There also is a feeling that the exploits of Irish regiments at the front have not had all the publicity they deserved.

DUPONT "PLOT" TURNS OUT FAKE.

SCRANTON (Pa.) Nov. 11.—Belief that a plot to blow up the mill of the Dupont Powder Company at Jermyn had been unearthed through the finding today of a trunk filled with dynamite, at the home of Eugene English, was exploded tonight, according to the police, by the confession of Thomas Moss, an alleged accomplice of English, that the dynamite had been stolen.

Moss, the authorities say, told them the explosive was to be disposed of to the mine workers at a reduced price so that he and English could obtain funds to go south in case of a strike in the anthracite coal fields next spring.

Two men who were arrested during the day on suspicion of having impersonated government agents, were later released. English up to a late hour tonight had not been apprehended.

MASS MEETING FOR DEFENSE.

CONCORD (N. H.) Nov. 11.—A mass meeting held tonight under the auspices of the New Hampshire League for National Defense, with Gov. Roland H. Spaulding presiding, adopted resolutions calling upon President Wilson and the next Congress "to take steps necessary to make the country impregnable against foreign assault by land or sea." Gov. Spaulding urged that as one move toward preparedness, the Portsmouth Navy Yard must be developed as a defensive station.

"President Wilson himself will be to blame if his programme for the army and navy is opposed," said Congressman A. P. Gardner of Massachusetts, adding that the President had lined his whole outfit against preparedness last year. Mr. Gardner characterized the position of Former Secretary of State Bryan as "the fatty degeneration of idealism." He said the plans of Secretary Daniels and Secretary Garrison for the extension of the navy and army were all right as far as they went.

association, was not a delegate to the convention.

WHY COMMITTEE ACTED.

In recommending that the Hamilton resolution "be laid on the table," the Legislative Committee reported the committee was of the opinion that the resolution presented was fully considered by the committee in its report and that "there is no necessity for taking further action."

This ended the discussion and after electing officers the association adjourned. It was understood that the National Guard Association was opposed to the continental plan of President Wilson and the War Department heads because it was believed it would conflict with the organization. Some of the officers contended that if a larger reserve force was to be provided in the United States, it should be done under the guidance of the National Guard.

SENTIMENT OF DELEGATES.

The plan indorsed were contained in resolutions presented by the Legislative Committee and adopted by the convention.

The resolutions stated there was "necessity for the formulation and acceptance of a definite military policy for the United States.

"The association pledges its support to any reasonable increase in the regular army that may be recommended by the President of the United States, as in his judgment is necessary for national defense."

The resolution expressed the opinion "that the training and development of a larger force for national defense is imperatively necessary."

Congress was urged to enact such legislation as would make the National Guard "immediately available as the first line of the proposed citizen army."

Constitutional amendments by Congress, to be ratified by the States, to make the militia available for Federal service within or without the continental limits of the United States to the same extent as the regular army is available according to law, were approved.

STEWART RE-ELECTED.

Gen. Thomas J. Stewart of Harrisburg, Pa., was re-elected president of the association for the seventh term. Other officers elected follow:

Gen. Guy E. Logan, Des Moines, Iowa, secretary; Gen. Joseph A. Storch, Fullerton, Neb., treasurer. Vice-presidents, Gen. Fred B. Wood, St. Paul; Gen. C. C. Vaughn, Richmond, Va.; Gen. E. Leroy Sweetser, Boston; Gen. George A. White, Portland, Or.; Gen. John P. Kirk, Lansing, Mich.; Gen. Maurice Thompson, Seattle, Wash.; Gen. John Chase, Denver; Gen. William E. Harvey, Washington, D. CALLS CHURCHES TOO PARSIMONIOUS.

MINISTER DECLARES HIGHER SALARIES SHOULD BE PAID FOR SERVICES.

BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—Arraigning the churches as parsimonious in their dealing with their pastors, the Rev. T. B. Holmes of Oakland, in an address here today before the Northern California Baptist convention, declared that the churches could well profit in the matter of salaries paid, by the example of the big corporations.

"Although business corporations are avowedly out for profit," he said, "and in spite of the fact that a corporation is supposed to have no soul, the corporations pay the employees upon whom success depends on a scale that should make the churches ashamed of themselves.

"It is not the pastors' fault that so many of them are often destitute. It is not because they are extravagant," he added. "It is because they are not properly compensated for their services and this is why I favor pensions for pastors rather than leaving them to depend on their own resources which, too often, have no existence."

GERMANS DENY ITALY'S CLAIMS.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Nov. 11, (via Tuckerton, N. J.)—Among the items given out for publication today by the Overseas News Agency was the following:

"The Italian statements that the Austrians have not succeeded in reconquering Col di Lana and that the Italians have captured the town of Monte Self are untrue. As was communicated in the Austro-Hungarian headquarters' report, the Italians on November 7, captured Col di Lana, which was re-captured by the Austro-Hungarians the next day.

"Monte Self has never been captured by the Italians."

STANLEY WINS IN KENTUCKY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Nov. 11.—The election of former Congressman Augustus O. Stanley, of Henderson, Democrat, as Governor of Kentucky, was conceded in a statement issued tonight by Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset, Republican gubernatorial candidate in the election of November 2.

Until tonight Republican campaign managers had claimed a victory for Mr. Morrow. Returns from the 120 counties in the State showed a plurality for Mr. Stanley of slightly more than 300 votes.

LORD DERBY AGAIN HINTS AT EARLY CONSCRIPTION.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A strong intimation of compulsion at an early date is contained in a statement tonight by the Earl of Derby, director of recruiting. This statement was made, Lord Derby declared, with the authority of the Prime Minister. It says:

"If young men medically fit and not indispensable in any business of national importance, or any business conducted for the general good of the community, do not come forward voluntarily before November 30, the government will after that date take the necessary steps to redeem the pledge made on November 2."

On the date referred to Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons that if young men did not come forward voluntarily and enlist, "other and compulsory means would be taken before married men were called upon to fill their engagement to serve."

Lord Derby adds. "Whether a man is indispensable or not to his business will be decided, not by the man or his employer, but by competent authorities and tribunals which are being set up to consider such cases."

PROTEST MISUSE OF STATE FUNDS.

Northern Counties Threaten Highway Commission.

Governor's Henchmen Accused of Broken Promises.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 10.—"When members of the Highway Commission visited our counties three years ago we entertained them with barbecues and announced ourselves as perfectly willing to march on Armageddon, provided the route be over a State highway; but if they come into our district next year with new promises a vigilance committee, and a coat of tar and feathers might be the order of the day."

This is the spirit in which a delegation of fifteen representatives of five northern counties returned home today from a superheated conference with the State Highway Commission over the subject of State roads. Siskiyou, Trinity, Lassan, Modoc and Shasta counties were represented. They made a joint protest against what they termed a misuse of State funds by the Highway Commission.

Four of these counties subscribed for a portion of the State highway bonds with the express understanding that the money which they subscribed should be spent in their respective counties. Their complaint is that the money has been expended by the commission in more populous counties—where the voting strength was greater—and that no funds remain to complete the roads which were promised at the time the bonds were voted, and again when certain counties took part of the bonds, reselling them at a loss, to assure State highway construction in their respective communities they say they got nothing.

SLOGAN OF COUNTIES.

"Less politics and more progress" seems to be the slogan in which the mountain counties joined. Supervisors from the different counties asserted that the roads had been promised and repromised them; they were first promised when the bond election was held, the Governor promised them when he was campaigning last year; the highway commissioners promised them when the counties took bonds to be resold at a loss; Highway Commissioner Stern promised them when he was campaigning for the no-party issue in September; and the only satisfaction they secured yesterday was a promise that if they would support the $15,000,000 bond issue the commission would build the roads with money received from the sale of those bonds.

"There is no use for us to wait for that issue," is the reply of the protestants, "they ought to be aware by this time that the people of the State will never vote another dollar of bonds for work to be done by the present administration."

CHARGES OF EXTRAVAGANCE.

Charges of extravagance, incompetence and waste were freely bandied about. One instance was cited in which the board had rejected a bid of $29,500 for a piece of highway in Eldorado county, and proceeded with the work under highway inspectors. The assertion was made that it cost the State $125,000 for that one stretch of highway.

This protest is similar to that made by the Supervisors of Humboldt county three weeks ago. The counties feel especially grieved by reason of the fact that they subscribed for bonds trusting to the good faith of the commission to keep its promise of expending the money raised in the counties by which it was subscribed. The State highway bonds bear 4 per cent. interest and the law prescribes that they cannot be sold by the State for less than par. During the last two years there has been no demand for California 4's; capitalists have demanded from 4.25 to 4.40 per cent. for their money. In order to get roads constructed the counties would buy the bonds at par and resell them at a loss. The complaint no wraised is that the commission has mingled road building and machine building until the bond money is about all gone and the roads promised the smaller counties have not been even commenced.

During the afternoon a number of the protestants called upon Secretary of State Jordan. They seemed to think that there was more chance of getting justice there than in the department controlled by the "progressives."

JORDAN'S ADVICE.

"I told them there was nothing that I could do," said the Secretary of State after the conference; "their complaint is that the commission did politics by spending the money in the counties with a big voting population and cutting the little fellows out. But there is nothing that comes under this office. They asserted that the Governor had given them his personal assurance last year that the roads would be constructed, and they could not understand why he could not force his own appointees on the Highway Commission to make his word good. But it now seems that there was only $18,000,000 to cover about $30,000,000 in promises."

Members of the State Highway Commission declined to discuss the meeting with the press. Commissioners Blaney and Stern were inclined to deprecate the whole affair, saying that the real cause of the trouble was that when the bonds were voted five years ago the people were promised work that would cost about $40,000,000 in return for a bond issue of but $18,000,000.

Roscoe J. Anderson, chairman of the committee from the northern counties, declared tonight that his committee was disgusted with the evasions and broken promises of the State board.

REPLY UNSATISFACTORY.

"The reply of the Highway Commission today to our demands that they live up to their promises was wholly unsatisfactory," he said, "in short it was the same old line of promises designed to send us back to our holes contended for the time being.

"However, we are not discouraged. I know from the statements of my colleagues that the northern counties are more determined than ever to keep up the fight for our rights, that to which the law entitles us. In spite of promises broken again and again we will keep scrapping until we get that which the commission is morally, legally and personally [illegible] give us."

Dudley V. Saeltzer of [illegible] president of the Executive [illegible] asserted that:

"The State officials seem to [illegible] us as a lot of savages who [illegible] turbing the peace with our [illegible] Everybody down here seems to [illegible] us of the north as kin to the [illegible] and the owls and would like to [illegible] this committee go back to the [illegible] ness and quit their howling [illegible] hootings, which are so disturbing [illegible] the peace of some sections. [illegible] howling in the north will [illegible] until we get our rights."

When the committees [illegible] come from the northern [illegible] three years ago their last [illegible] was cooled by soothing promises [illegible] time they came with that cry [illegible] that lasts long.

New China Mail Steamship Company Prepares to Enter Trade on Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The China Mail Steamship Company, recently organized here to engage in trans-Pacific trade, and purchased the steamer China of the new registered Pacific Mail fleet, announced today that its capital stock would be increased immediately from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000.

Preparations for entering the trade soon were indicated also by the appointment of A. M. Garland, formerly freight traffic manager of the Pacific Mail, as general manager, and H. N. Thomas, as general passenger agent, a position he formerly held with the Pacific Mail.

The China Mail Steamship Company was organized by a group of Chinese capitalists headed by Tin Eli, president of the Canton Bank of San Francisco. It was announced that only Chinese were to be stockholders.

A fleet of five vessels was mentioned, the company but the dearth of bottoms has caused delay in getting ships.

Deficit of Over Four Million in United Railroad Accounts Shown by Annual Statement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—[illegible] ficit of $4,170,000 was shown [illegible] the annual statement of the United Railroads filed with the Railroad Commission. Simultaneously was announced that representatives of eastern owners of the property had arrived here yesterday, would arrive today or tomorrow as to the control of the company. Ultimate sale of the street railways to the city was predicted by Jesse W. Lilienthal. It was said in financial circles that the conference to be held here would result in a complete change of management.

The big deficit replaced a [illegible] surplus of $1,018,000 on the books of the company. The change, however, was largely one of accounting, the Railroad Commission ordering a revision of the company's accounting system which resulted in the deficit. It was also stated that the withdrawal of $1,400,000 by the company's treasury in 1914, Patrick Calhoun, former president of the company, and to large expenditures for the defense of company officials during the San Francisco graft prosecutions prior to the assumption of management by Mr. Lilienthal who took the rehabilitation of the company. Legal expenses, it is said, amounted to nearly $3,000,000.

BANDIT LAUGHS AT COURT BOND.

HAS BEEN IN EVERY JAIL ON COAST—LIKES LOS ANGELES BEST.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 11.—William Martin, self-confessed highwayman who, wearing a mask and armed with a revolver, held up the night dispatcher and night baggageman at the Southern Pacific station Sunday night, laughed outright in court today when his bond was placed at $2000 in holding him for his preliminary examination, set for tomorrow.

"Put it at 20 cents, Your Honor, and it will hold me just as well, for I couldn't give even that amount. I'm broke good and flat. That's why I wanted the railroad's coin. I'm going to plead guilty in the end and waive all preliminaries."

Martin is known by the police from San Diego to Seattle. He said today that for the past ten years he has tramped back and forth from south to north, living the carefree life of a hobo and only working when he had to.

"I'm the most jailed man in the State. There's not a jail on the Coast I don't know about, and I like the jail at Los Angeles best, because they give a fellow canned music as an entertainment and good square meals."

The officers have been busy since Martin's arrest sending out inquiries to the peace officers of the State in an effort to secure as complete a history of the prisoner as possible.

GIRL IDENTIFIES MAN AS SLAYER.

WICHITA (Kan.) Nov. 11.—Arthur Houser, brought here today from Indianapolis, was identified tonight by Miss Grace Slater, as being the slayer of William H. Smith, national secretary of the Woodmen of the World, who was murdered in Omaha, October 16. Miss Slater, the only eye witness to the killing, picked Houser from among thirty-seven prisoners in the County Jail. A delegation of seven came from Omaha to see the prisoner. They were members of a party held up and robbed on the night of the Smith murder and identified Houser as their assailant as positively as did Miss Slater.

Wichita officers arrived home late today after dodging Missouri officers by detouring from Indianapolis, where Houser was arrested Saturday, through Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and Oklahoma. Officers from Colorado and Nebraska are in the city tonight seeking to get possession of Houser on warrants charging serious crimes.

The train on which the local officers rode was stopped near the city limits and the prisoner was taken to jail by a circuitous route to avoid a threatened demonstration. Houser is charged in Wichita with highway robbery and with assaulting women.

CAUSE OF PELLAGRA AND CURE DISCOVERED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Discovery of the cause of and cure for pellagra was announced formally tonight by the public health service. The announcement follows the recent publication of a report by Surgeon Joseph Goldberger, on a year of experiments in co-operation with southern State health officials, demonstrating the correctness of the theory that a one-sided diet lacking in proteids would cause the disease and that a well-balanced diet would cure it.

The final dietary tests were made by Surgeon Goldberger and Assistant Surgeon G. A. Wheeler at the farm of the Mississippi penitentiary, where half a dozen convicts were given pellagra by feeding them for five months on bountiful meals consisting chiefly of cereals and sweets and lacking in meats, milk, eggs, etc.

CAR SHORTAGE IS SERIOUS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 11. — American railroads are confronted with one of the most serious car shortages of recent years, owing to the huge grain crop of this country and Canada and the heavy tonnage from steel and munitions plants, coupled with the inability of the railroads to get new cars fast enough, according to W. Try This Popular Recipe for Making Buckwheat Cakes

An Old Fashioned Recipe That Never Grows Old.

From a little cook book compiled by one of the leading women writers of this country, on culinary subjects, we have selected the following old-fashioned recipe for making the kind of buckwheat cakes "that mother used to make." Try this recipe once, and we are sure "the folks" will demand its preservation for many future uses.

One quart buckwheat, ½ cup warm water, ½ cup Kingsford's cornstarch, 1 tablespoon Karo Syrup, 1 heaping teaspoon salt, 1 quart warm water, ½ yeast cake. Sift the dry ingredients together, soften the yeast in the warm water and add it and the Karo Syrup to the rest of the water. Mix with the buckwheat, beat 8 minutes and rise over night. In the morning add warm water to make thin enough to pour onto the griddle. Serve with Karo Syrup.

Karo Syrup is recommended particularly in this recipe because experience has shown that as good results cannot be obtained with inferior syrups. Good dishes are often ruined by experimenting with ingredients of whose quality you are not sure. Karo can be obtained at all modern grocers. Insist upon it, and ask for the Karo cook book containing the above and hundreds of other valuable recipes.

by what may be called the "natural" treatment. This is based on plenty of fresh air, a sufficiency of well-cooked, pure food and as large a measure of rest as can be had.

While it should never be neglected, this treatment does not always secure the desired results. Sometimes there is need for medication in order to bring about the requisite body resistance.

In such cases Eckman's Alterative has been used with a large measure of success. Indeed, in many instances, tuberculosis apparently has yielded to this preparation. In any case, it is worth a trial; and, since it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, its use is safe.

MT. HERMON ALUMNI.

Former students of Mt. Hermon School, which was founded by the late Dwight L. Moody, at Northfield, Mass., gathered at the Y.M.C.A. banquet-rooms last night in honor to Prof. L. L. Norton, vice-president of Mt. Hermon, and Herbert L. Wimans, formerly a member of the faculty of that school, but now a professor at the Harvard Military Academy of this city.

COURTS INVESTIGATION.

City Auditor Says That the Reserve Fund Has not Been Purposely Depleted, as Charged.

City Auditor Myers issued a statement relative to the charges that the reserve fund has been purposely parceled out to prevent appropriation for the fire department and, respecting purported or proposed investigations of his department, he said that any full and fair examination is courted by his office.

Attorneys for the firemen, who are seeking to compel the Council to appropriate money from the reserve fund to open more fire-houses, have charged that the reserve fund has purposely been depleted. In refutation of this statement, Mr. Myers said yesterday that the reserve fund of only a few hundred dollars at the present time is in its normal state at this time of the year, and loans to date from this fund to the other funds of the city to provide cash before taxes come in are practically the same for each of the last three years.

The total net loans from the reserve fund to October 15, 1912, were $1,208,265, Auditor Myers says. The loans to October 21, 1914, were $1,192,350, and to October 28, 1915, the net loans from the reserve fund was $1,194,547.

FOR SALE—ON YOUR PRICE AND TERMS.
Pressed for money, I will sacrifice this week two new modern bungalow homes, (never occupied,) on your own price and terms. Located in the best part of the southwest district and near the Grand ave. car line. The 5-room an elegant $2900 bungalow, modern in every way, and built of the very best material, will be sold this week, even though it must be sold for the price of an ordinary cheap bungalow. Even a good couple will accept $150 cash and $25 per month; this will include taxes and interest.
The 6-room, story-and-half, new (never occupied,) should bring $4300, but will sell, even though I must accept $1000 less to good people, on terms. This storied-half bungalow home is located in the heart of a very pretty, well kept up section, and to describe it in few words it is one of the pretty modern two homes of the southwest, but it is the price that is going to sell these homes, a great many houses for sale, but here are two to be sold at a real sacrifice. You can be the judge of values. Here is your chance to save $1000 over regular valued homes and at practically your own price and terms. Call Main 5647 or 60127. J. L. BROWN. Will have machine call for you.

CHAIRMAN OF EDUCATION.

Through error, it was stated in The Times yesterday, in an article concerning the indorsement of "Damaged Goods" that Mrs. H. C. Terrell is secretary of the Board of Education. She is, in reality, chairman of the Educational Committee of the Parent-Teacher Association, and not secretary of the board.

Investigation.

HARBOR CHARGES BY DISCHARGED EMPLOYEE.

IT DEVELOPED yesterday that the charges against the Harbor Commission citing alleged instances of waste of public funds and faulty construction work at the Municipal Harbor came from E. H. Sleeper, an engineer recently discharged by the commission. The charges, in writing, were transmitted to the Council by the Mayor with a letter urging the appointment of a committee to co-operate in an investigation.

A committee consisting of Councilmen Roberts and Wright and Councilwoman Lindsey was named, and after conferring with the Mayor, announced that it will recommend to the Council that the charges be investigated thoroughly. The committee will also recommend that the Council name three outside experts to assist.

Mr. Sleeper, in a letter addressed to the Mayor and City Council, says that "Having been discharged as superintendent of construction at the outer harbor, without just cause, I feel constrained to present my cause to you."

Mr. Sleeper relates his version of affairs relative to his discharge and continues with statements substantially alleging:

That large sums have been wasted in public work at the harbor.

That the outer dock and transit sheds are faulty in design.

That the buildings and docks will not answer the purpose to which they were designed.

That certain construction is a menace to life and property and warnings have been disregarded.

That on a certain deal for waterproof piling the loss to the city was about $25,000.

DIRECTORS OFF FOR EXHIBITS.

BRIGHT PROSPECT FOR FAIR IS DESCRIBED.

Even Half the Attendance There was at San Diego Exposition the Last Year Would Liquidate All Expenses and not Necessitate Drawing on Guarantee Fund.

With the assurance of the San Diego Exposition Committee that the $22,066.50 necessary to complete the fair fund will be speedily raised, Henry J. Penfold of the directorate of the 1916 show left last night for San Francisco to sign the contracts that will bring the foreign exhibits of the big northern exposition to Southern California for the new year.

Before leaving, Mr. Penfold issued the following statement:

"On January 1, 1915, the Panama-California Exposition had current liabilities amounting to $350,000, which amount was underwritten and guaranteed by the banks and business men of the city of San Diego.

"The profits of the exposition have up to this time practically liquidated this amount.

"The actual paid daily attendance for each day since January 1, has been 4300 and with the concessions' percentages has enabled the officials to pay this large indebtedness and the actual daily running expenses.

"As the exposition for 1916 expects to commence operations without any indebtedness incurred, it is safe to assume that even if the attendance per day average is only 50 per cent. of the attendance during 1915, this, with the percentages from concessions and exhibit sales, will surely take care of the current daily expenses and will yield a profit which will go first towards liquidating the cash subscribed and will not necessitate calling on the guarantee of the guarantee fund.

"From information which we have received from both the passenger departments of the transcontinental lines, the tourist agencies and individual travelers, there will be a great influx of visitors to the Pacific Coast, providing there is something to attract the traveling public to this section of the country.

"With regard to the European situation: Were the war to end by the first of the year, the situation would be so confused on the continent and the restrictions to travel so great that there would be little, if any, competition from that source. As a matter of fact, were the war to end in any such short space of time, the ending would be merely in the nature of an armistice and it would not be safe to travel abroad, even though permitted."

Up to last night, $75,368.50 had been subscribed to the cash and $52,625 to the guarantee fund, a total of $127,933.50. The committee has pledged itself to continue the campaign until the full $150,000 is secured.

FRATERNITY BALL.

Los Angeles Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Order to Have Brilliant Affair Tomorrow Night.

The Los Angeles Association of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon College Fraternity will hold a ball tomorrow evening in the Bryson apartments. Many college men of Los Angeles, with their wives or sweethearts, will be present at the festivities, and elaborate preparations are being made to give them a most enjoyable evening.

The ballroom is being handsomely decorated and a buffet supper will be served. Many features are promised by the committee in charge.

This fraternity is one of the best-known college organizations of America, and numbers among its members such men as Philander C. Knox, former Secretary of State, and Jacob M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War. The late President McKinley and the late L. Q. C. Lamar of the United States Supreme Court, were members.

INVITE SCHOOL PUPILS.

New Industries Show at the Chamber of Commerce will be Kept Open for Two Nights.

Owing to the great attendance and widespread interest the astonishing exhibits at the Chamber of Commerce of the 133 new industries started in Los Angeles during the past year will be open to the public tonight and tomorrow evening. This is the second week of the exhibit and tomorrow night will be the last.

School children are specially invited this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon to learn the civic value of the new industries, the exhibits being of deep educational value.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC TO CUT SERVICE.

FEWER CARS ON SANTA MONICA AIR LINE, AND OTHER CHANGES ALSO.

Service changes on the Santa Monica Air Line (freight) of the Pacific Electric Railway were permitted by the Public Utilities Board yesterday whereby after today the company will maintain only hourly passenger service between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. This is the minimum service provided in the company's franchise. The hourly cars go through to Culver City and the alternate cars that will be taken out of service will be the ones that simply go to the city limits. The company has carried a forty-five-minute passenger service on the line.

President Lane of the Utilities Board said yesterday that the permission for reduction of service on this line is revocable at any time and when conditions warrant the half-hourly or more frequent service may be ordered.

It was reported yesterday that at the same time, the Pacific Electric will institute new schedules throughout its system, reducing the number of trains on practically all lines during certain hours of the day.

President Shoup issued a statement last night in which he says:

In view of the rumors as to the nature of the changes in Pacific Electric service, effective on the 14th inst., it is desirable to state that there is nothing in these changes radical enough adversely to affect the interests of the territories served.

The Pacific Electric, like any other business institution, finds it necessary at times to trim its sails to meet weather conditions. This is an ordinary measure of business prudence. Such retrenchments as are to be made are based upon the principle that the public and the Pacific Electric can both get along best without that service which is least used.

Paradoxical.

HUMANE OFFICER RAWHIDES HORSE.

ARRESTED BUT JUDGE DECIDES IT ISN'T CRUELTY.

The Animal When Saddled Proves Balky, Merely Sniffs and Holds Fast, and it so Exasperates the Owner and Law Enforcer that They Swish Whip.

Rawhiding a balky horse is not cruelty to animals, Police Judge Chesebro decided so yesterday when Humane Officer T. A. Wilson and C. Strock were arraigned on charge of having treated a balky horse cruelly.

C. Strock is the owner of the horse. He went to a salestable to purchase a mount. He asked for a horse that would canter, gallop and trot under the saddle. The salesman assured him Marty was the horse he needed.

Marty was an inviting looking specimen of horseflesh, smoothcoated, smart looking, with lots of knee action and much spirit. Mr. Strock was so impressed he bought the animal.

Then he took him to his home, No. 2182 East Seventh street, and got a saddle. The horse was reluctant about being saddled. He protested so sternly that Mr. Strock started to use force.

Along came Humane Officer Wilson. He saw Mr. Strock's trouble, and offered aid. While he was holding Marty's head, Mr. Strock saddled the horse, and then mounted.

"Get up," he chirped. Marty didn't budge. Entreaties and commands were in vain. The horse turned his head, sniffed, and held fast.

The rawhide whip began playing over his rear section, agitating his tail, and causing the exposed portion to quiver, but no action was transmitted to his feet.

Humane Officer Wilson became aroused.

"Let me get behind with that whip. I'll make him go!" he cried. So he took the whip, went to the rear and lashed. But Marty stood pat.

Mr. Wilson thought Marty's immobility was some reflection on his capacity to administer a whipping. So he determined to justify his good opinion of himself in that regard.

"Swish," would go the whip. "Thump," would come the blow.

A grunt from Marty, a false motion by Rider Strock, and an angered look in Mr. Wilson's eyes were the result.

Then came Motorcycle Policemen Finn and Owens. They saw the whipping and they arrested the Humane Officer and Rider Strock. In police court yesterday the two pleaded extenuating conditions, and Police Judge Chesebro dismissed the case. He said he had dealt with other Martys, and had sympathy.

CARS ACT QUEERLY.

Police Investigate and Find the Court Flight Railroad Engineer had Imbibed Too Much.

S. G. Vandergrift, engineer of the Court Flight Railroad, was arrested yesterday in his pilot cabin for drunkenness. His queer pilotage of the cars running up and down the steep incline caused the passengers to complain to the police.

He will be arraigned on a charge of drunkenness, but the police intend reporting his case to the State Railway Commission, with view to having his license to run the railroad revoked.

Policeman Yarnell reported he had arrested Mr. Vandergrift November 22, 1913, on the same charge, and a that time, he was given a thirty-days suspended sentence in police court.

POULTRY MEN TO HOLD SHOW.

GREATEST EXHIBITION OF AGE AT THE EXPOSITION.

More than Five Hundred Breeds of Chickens and Pigeons are to be Judged—Entries Come from All Over the World—Large Cash Prizes Offered the Winners.

BY JEANNE REDMAN.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

EXPOSITION GROUNDS, SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The greatest show of poultry and pigeons ever held in this country will be given at the Panama-Pacific Exposition from the 18th to the 25th of November. There will be 250 different varieties of pigeons and more than 150 varieties of poultry, besides pheasants and waterfowl. The birds will come from thirty-five States of the Union and from Canada, and several breeders have imported poultry from Australia, England, Germany and Japan for the express purpose of exhibiting at San Francisco. Many breeders from the Eastern States, most of the large ones from the Middle West, and practically all from the Pacific Slope, will have exhibits at the exposition. Several new varieties will be shown here for the first time.

RICH PRIZES.

In addition to cash prizes offered by the exposition, which has set aside $12,500 for the purpose, many special premiums and trophies have been provided by breed record associations and by various State commissions to the exposition. Among the trophies offered are those by the Black Orpington Club of a grand prize cup and vase valued at $100 for the best display of Black Orpingtons, both single and rose comb varieties, and a $25 cup for the best display of cocks, cockerels, hens and pullets, both varieties; by the American Buckeye Club, a $20 cup for the best pen; by the American Single Comb White Orpington Club, a $25 cup; by the Crested Fowl Breeders' Association, a cup to the member winning the largest number of points in all varieties of crested fowl; by the International Rose Comb White Minorca Club, a $50 cup; by the Rhode Island Red Club of America, a $50 cup for the best rose comb Rhode Island Red, and a $50 cup for the best single comb Rhode Island Red. The Plymouth Rock Club of Southern California offers a $25 cup for the best pen of Buff Plymouth Rocks, $25 cup for the best pen of white Plymouth Rocks, and a cup for the best pen of barred Plymouth Rocks. Many of the breed record associations offer cash prizes for varying amounts and special ribbons for winning exhibits.

ENTRIES GALORE.

The entries for the show are so numerous that the normal accommodations of the exposition live stock department were found wholly inadequate. To provide comfortably for all a large structure on the exposition grounds close to the Palace of Machinery was turned over to the department of live stock for the poultry and pigeon show. The interior of this building has been arranged especially for the display. There will be breeding pens and cages of such design as the special needs of the fowls they are to contain will demand. In the center of the building there will be a pool with a fountain, and in this will be placed fancy and wild ducks. On one side of the pool are two large pens, which will contain pheasants, and on the other side corresponding will be a pen for quail and one for wild and fancy doves. Peafowl and guinea will have their own pens, while the poultry and pigeon pens will be arranged along the side of long aisles extending the length of the building.

BRINGS GOOD NEWS.

Returned Missionary Tells of Work in Land of Pharoahs—Native Education Advancing Rapidly.

How a magnificent Christian university for converted Mohammedan youths in Egypt is being constructed by Christian missionaries, almost within the shadow of the Pyramids, was told last night at the Bible Institute by Miss Roe Oliver Williams, a missionary recently returned from the scene. The institution, which is just outside the city limits of Cairo, is said to be most picturesque. "Facing on the one hand the gigantic mementos of the early Egyptian dynasty and the Sphinx, college students cannot fail to be impressed by the silent lesson of man's insignificance and the boundlessness of eternity," said Miss Williams. "On the other hand is Cairo, bustling with life and symbolical of man's opportunity. We expect great things from that school.

"In Cairo there is a Mohammedan college with an attendance of 1200 young men. Some day we want to see that school a great Christian institution also." Miss Williams told briefly of her work among the native girls in Egypt during the three years she was in charge of a girls' training school. She said the missionaries are making great efforts among the young people and are regarded as friends.

In speaking of Lord Kitchener and his work in Egypt she said he had accomplished great things. Known to the Egyptians as "The Iron Man of Europe," she said he had brought order from chaos in the military and political life of the country, and was the most feared and respected man in Egypt.

INDUSTRIAL FARM FOR CITY URGED.

WASHINGTON INSTITUTION TO BE CRITERION, IS PLAN.

In Open Letter to the Public Chaplain Nave Tells Why Such a Place for Convicts Would be Practical as Well as Humane—Officials Indorse Letter.

Appealing to the judgment of progressive Los Angeles, Chaplain Orville J. Nave yesterday issued an open letter to citizens urging them to co-operate in bringing about the establishment here of an industrial farm as the best means of correction for those persons incarcerated in the city and county jails. Chaplain Nave believes that with the institution of this industrial farm, especially with regard to first offenders and those held on minor charges, the problems growing out of the increasing number of persons who need discipline, will be greatly lessened.

In his letter Chaplain Nave recounts the story of his recent visit to the industrial farm at Washington, D. C., which he had an opportunity of inspecting during the Grand Army reunion there. This farm, he stated, consists of nearly 3000 acres situated about twenty miles from Washington, in Virginia. It is a home for the convicts of the District of Columbia.

There is not a wall, fence, lock or guard on the farm, either day or night, he states, and yet the percentages of escapes is less than 1 per cent., and the percentage of "repeaters" is no more than in local jails.

The men and women on the farm are put to work at the thing they can do best. There is a sawmill, operated by prisoners, that finishes lumber for the prison carpenters. A house may be built complete, with only hardware, doors and windows coming from Washington. Those who prefer farming are put to work raising vegetables or working in the dairy. All kinds of live stock are raised on the farm, and a brick plant with a capacity of 4000 common brick a day, is operated. Almost every other kind of industry is represented there, and the prisoners appear contented learning how to care for themselves when the time comes for their freedom.

Contrasting this Utopian picture with the present condition of the city and county jails in this city, Chaplain Nave finds much lacking in the latter. In fact, he states that our jails are moral pesthouses. The conditions are at the worst, he states, and could not be worse. He points out that the police department has established an inebriate farm, but adds that this farm is far too small to fulfill its purpose. According to Chaplain Nave, the entire system is at fault, and should be remedied at once.

The young men—and the percentage is great—that are held in the local jail are really in a schol of anarchy, the chaplain asserts. One or two moral derelicts in a group of prisoners have no difficulty in fin

Accompanied by a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the 105 members of the Santa Fe's second "farmers' special" party, who are due here at 1 oclock this afternoon from San Diego, will leave an hour later in special Pacific Electric cars for Long Beach, where they will be given an automobile ride about the city, under the auspices of the Long Beach chamber, and also shown the sights along the "Pike."

Octogenarian Passes.

Mrs. Cordelia Dolliver, a resident of California since 1887, and of Los Angeles for seventeen years, died yesterday morning at her home, No. 1200 Westlake avenue. She was born in Charlestown, Me., in 1824, and for many years after her marriage lived in East Saginaw, Mich. She was an aunt of Walter and Arthur Eddy, prominent lumbermen of Michigan. Funeral services will be at the Brown undertaking parlors, Eleventh and Figueroa streets, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Criminology for Law Students.

Prof. H. J. Atkins gave a talk on criminology before the students of the college of law, U.S.C., yesterday morning, using skulls, life studies of celebrated criminals and blackboard drawings, and personal demonstrations were made relative to the qualities for success in the general and special departments of the practice of law. Prof. Atkins has been connected with some of the largest colleges and commercial institutions in Chicago. Applied psychology and criminology and other "ologies" are his specialties.

FIGHT DRAIN TAX.

Assessments aggregating $23,000 are involved in the suit filed yesterday by Griffith J. Griffith, Mary R. Sinsabaugh, Frank R. Strong and the Pen Bryn Company against the city of Los Angeles, Board of Public Works, City Treasurer, Contractor J. T. Shea and the Tibbits-Pacific Company, covering the Madison-Virgil storm sewer district. The legality of the proceedings is attacked, and the court is asked to restrain the city from proceeding with the collecting of assessments.

The complaint, filed through Attorneys Carpenter, Weber and Lightfoot, states that 90 per cent. of the property assessed in the storm sewer district is above the floor of the canyon and is not affected by the floods. It is claimed that notices were not posted on streets near the holdings of the plaintiffs, covering the passage of the resolution. The assessments are styled unjust and unfair. The contract price for the sewer was $237,000.

The drawing will take place under the direction of the following committee, appointed by the executive vice-president of the club: Charles E. Bent, James S. Slauson, Henry P. Flint, Charles S. Walton and J. V. Sweetser. The committee will select the seats for those who are not present, which in their judgment are the best available. The seats as selected will be assigned for the entire season of four concerts, the first of which is to be given the 23rd inst.

READS TO STUDENTS.

Students in the Cumnock School of Expression yesterday heard Kate Douglas Wiggin, one of America's best-loved authors, give a reading of her own works. Miss Wiggin, who is Mrs. George C. Riggs in private life, has declined practically all invitations to appear in public during her visit to Southern California. She broke her rule yesterday only after she discovered that she is a cousin of one of the faculty members, Mrs. Eliza Tupper Wilkes, and consented to meet the student body and read some of her own work.

Proof of Hard Times.

[Boston Transcript:] Times are so hard in this country now that 40,000 unemployed have nothing to do but to go to a baseball game, and all they have to spend for two whole hours is $80,000.

THE WEATHER.
[Official Report.]

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Nov. 11.—[Reported by Ford A. Carpenter, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.19; at 5 p.m., 30.15. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 49 deg. and 61 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 69 per cent.; 5 p.m., 47 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 5 miles; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 7 miles. Highest temperature, 69 deg.; lowest, 44 deg. Rainfall for season, 1.35 inches; last season, .52 of an inch. Barometer reduced to sea level.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.—The area of low pressure moved rapidly from Colorado to Northern Minnesota, and has developed into the first severe storm of the season. This depression controls the weather over all of the central portion of the United States and gave precipitation southerly into Oklahoma, easterly to Illinois, and caused scattering showers and flurries of snow from the Oregon coast. The heaviest precipitation, 1.32 inches, fell at St. Paul. The western area of high pressure moved inland from the California coast, resulting in sharp falls in temperature to freezing, and in a few localities to a degree below freezing temperature. Frost occurred in a majority of places in California Thursday morning. The progress of this area of high pressure will be accompanied by continued fair and cool weather in Los Angeles and vicinity Friday. Heavy frost in the morning.

LOCAL FORECAST.

For Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair Friday; continued cool; heavy frost in the morning; northeasterly winds.

For Southern California: Fair Friday; continued cool; heavy frost in the morning.

STATE FORECAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Weather forecast: San Francisco and vicinity, Sacramento, Santa Clara and San Joaquin valleys and Southern California: Fair Friday; light northwest wind.

Northern California: Fair Friday, except for unsettled weather in the extreme north portion and probably showers on the extreme north coast; light northwest wind.

ARIZONA FORECAST.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11. — Forecast for Arizona: Fair Friday and Saturday; not much change in temperature.

CRITICISES BISHOPS.

Former Lieut.-Gov. Wallace Tells Fellow-delegates Methodists Have Fallen into a Rut.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

OAKLAND, Nov. 11. — Former Lieut.-Gov. A. J. Wallace of California, who is a conference district representative to the sessions of the general committee of the board of home missions and church extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, meeting in this city, criticised his fellow-delegates, including twenty-two of the church's bishops, at the first session today, declaring that the organization had fallen into a rut which was retarding the progress of the church.

His address was made in support of his motion that a special fund be set aside annually to provide for increases in appropriations to missions in various parts of the world.

"We are crippling ourselves as a great organization because we are doing today what we did yesterday," he said. "Thousands of charges, which we have helped for years, getting the same appropriations year in and year out, are now but one-fourth as efficient as they were when we first helped them. They've lost all self-reliance and independence. We need the money we're wasting on them to spend on the bigger fields of the cities. We're in a rut. We've been acting for years as though we were but a lot of schoolboys."

The matter was referred to a special committee, of which Bishop Francis J. McConnell of Denver was made chairman. Bishop J. W. Hamilton of Boston was appointed chairman of another special committee, which will bring in a recommendation as to whether the missions board or the board of education of the church shall hereafter have charge of making appropriations for the furtherance of Methodist Episcopal work in universities.

Requests that $10,000 each be given for this work at Johns Hopkins University, the University of Wisconsin and the University of Texas were referred to this committee.

ANCONA SAVED GROWING LESS.

ROME, Nov. 11 (via Paris, 11:45 p.m.)—Only 225 passengers and crew of the steamer Ancona were saved out of a total of 428 on board, says a dispatch from Tunis to the Corriere Della Serra.

Previous dispatches placed the number of passengers on the Ancona at 452, and the crew has been estimated at from 600 to 610.

RED PATCH ON INSTEP OF FOOT
Scaly Surface. Commenced to Spread. Very Itchy. Scratched Making Spots Very Sore.
HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"There appeared above the instep of my right foot a small red patch with a scaly surface. It commenced to spread causing me considerable inconvenience and was very itchy. I would often forget myself and indulge in considerable scratching making the spots affected very sore.

"I then began trying many different remedies but the spots continued spreading. A Cuticura-Soap-and-Ointment advertisement came to my notice. I sent for a free sample and I bought some more. I applied them for less than thirty days. The eruption disappeared and I was entirely healed." (Signed) Paris J. Cacciari, 182 Leppard Ave., San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 1, 1915.

"UNIONIZE LOS ANGELES OR WIPE IT OFF MAP."

Diabolical Plot of the Dynamiters to Destroy the City by Fire.

Special Counsel Noel, Continuing Opening Statement in Schmidt Case, Bares Ghastly McNamara Scheme to Blow up Water Mains and Apply Torch Wholesale. Date's First Witnesses are Heard.

GROUNDING in the diabolical hatred exhibited and in its complete disregard for human life the plan for the destruction of the city of Los Angeles as outlined by J. J. McNamara in talks with Ortie McManigal, according to statements made in court yesterday by Earl W. Noel, special counsel for the defense in the trial of M. A. Schmidt, charged with the murder of Charles Haggerty. Mr. Noel told the jury he expects to prove that McNamara and others discussed these plans for the destruction of this city, as a lesson to those who would resist the application of the policy of the closed shop. The plan, stated Mr. Noel, was outlined by Ortie McManigal by J. J. McNamara at Indianapolis. It included the use of M. A. Schmidt's alleged diabolical contrivance by which bottles of chemicals would be exploded and release gases that would start fires, and there were to be forty different fires started in different places in the city simultaneously. At the same time the water system was to be tied up with dynamite, so that there would be no way to fight the fires.

Mr. Noel stated that McNamara had stated that in addition to this there were to be pulled off a series of explosions all over the country, such as would teach the people of the United States a lesson that they could not ignore the demands for the adoption of the closed shop policy."

In the same statement, Mr. Noel stated that thirty or forty men had been convicted on charges of conspiracy at Indianapolis, when they should have been convicted of murder—and that "old man" McNamara should have been one of those convicted.

FIRST WITNESSES HEARD.

Today brought about a notable change in the trial, in that the state—that is, the prosecution was completed and the beginning of taking testimony was started. The testimony of importance was taken—these establishing the death of Charles A. Haggerty and telling of the details of the explosion that destroyed the original Times Building, causing the death of twenty men.

Immediately after court opened, Mr. Noel resumed his statement on behalf of the prosecution. He stated that evidence will show that none of the explosions occurring in at least twenty States were on closed shop work; that the conspirators purchased or stole more than one ton of dynamite, 500 quarts of nitroglycerine and 500 sticks of nitrogelatine.

He then continued to enumerate the various explosions that have occurred and the places where these explosives were stored, and stated that at one time as much as eighty-one sticks of dynamite had been stored in a vault in the basement of the American Central Life Building, in the heart of Indianapolis, and that these high explosives were recklessly carried about the country.

He stated that it will be shown that Schmidt purchased from the Giant Powder Company the nitroglycerine of 80 per cent. strength that was used to prepare the plant at the residences of F. J. Zeehandelaar and Gen. Otis, and followed through the details of this purchase, which have become familiar to the general public because of previous publication.

At one time, said Mr. Noel, plans were made to destroy Mary C. Dye, a stenographer of J. J. McNamara, because she knew of the details of the gigantic conspiracy, and that this plan was to place a suit case containing one of McManigal's infernal machines and high explosives in a seat in the train beside her; that in the course of the general conspiracy attempts were made in such reckless disregard of human life that it amounted to attempts to murder, and that in some of the cases, it would be proved, sixty or more lives were endangered by explosions.

WHAT THE "TIMES" DID.

"The State will prove," said Mr. Noel, "that the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron-workers, at the instance of this conspiracy, at their own convention passed a resolution in which they stated that the Los Angeles Times, having secured the unlimited financial backing of the American Manufacturers' Association and other kindred organizations of capital, is today not only the leading exponent of the so-

Death Divides a Devoted Couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Martin,

The latter the daughter of Secretary of Treasury, McAdoo. Mr. Martin died in Washington Wednesday evening and Mrs. Martin left the sick bed of her baby to rush East for the funeral. This picture was made on the occasion of the recent visit of the Secretary of the Treasury to Los Angeles.

Twice Stricken.

LEAVES BABY'S SICK ROOM FOR HER HUSBAND'S BIER.

OVERCOME with grief, Mrs. Charles T. Martin, formerly Miss Harriet McAdoo, daughter of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, left her sick two-year-old daughter yesterday afternoon in her beautiful Alhambra residence and started for Washington to attend the funeral of her husband, who died there suddenly Wednesday night. Her father will probably meet Mrs. Martin en route, as dispatches from Washington last night stated he intended to start westward for this purpose.

The blow fell without warning yesterday morning. Mr. Martin left his home at No. 31 South Hidalgo avenue, Alhambra, several weeks ago to make a business trip to Washington. He was connected with the Mexican Petroleum Company here. During his absence his baby daughter, Nona McAdoo Martin, was stricken with diphtheria and the house was quarantined.

When Mr. Martin heard of the illness he planned to return and was to have started Sunday. But Saturday night he became sick himself, and within twenty-four hours was suffering with a severe attack of pneumonia.

Secretary McAdoo telegraphed his daughter to come, but the strict quarantine laws prohibited her immediate departure. Then yesterday morning came news of Mr. Martin's death. Physicians were hurriedly called to the Alhambra residence and Mrs. Martin was disinfected. Leaving her baby in charge of the family physician, a nurse and a housemaid, she boarded the California Limited yesterday afternoon and started East to attend the last rites for her late husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin are well known in Southern California. The former was a prominent business man and the latter a leader in social circles. Mr. Martin was a member of several clubs and was secretary of the Southwest Museum, having succeeded Charles F. Lummis to that position.

FOUR TO SPEAK.

MAY SPIN IMPERIAL COTTON AT SAN DIEGO.

THE old-fashioned wheel that spun Imperial Valley cotton for the edification of 250,000 interested people at the San Francisco exposition this year will be moved to San Diego with other cotton exhibits if the necessary arrangements can be made. Mrs. Ella Swickard, who has been in charge of the booth at San Francisco, left this city last night for Imperial Valley to consult with leading cotton growers and shippers.

The cotton booth at San Francisco received the highest awards and has been a center of attraction since the big fair opened. In it are cotton bolls in all stages, cotton lint, cottonseed oil and meal in addition to the spinning wheel which has been operated alternately by Mrs. Swickard and Mrs. K. Pafford. Mrs. Swickard and Mrs. Pafford are from Texas. They know cotton and how to spin it. They have given away many samples of the spun product, some to interested dealers from foreign countries.

In the past two months Mrs. Swickard has been sending the spun cotton to Miss Hannah M. Ball, teacher of domestic economy in the Los Angeles schools, and she has taught the children of Los Angeles to weave it into guest towels. Some of the towels have been sent to the cotton booth in San Francisco and others have been disposed of in this city.

As an educational exhibit of unusual interest the booth at the Panama-Pacific Exposition has been a big success. It has spread widely the fact that Imperial Valley grows more cotton to the acre and better cotton than almost any other region in the world. It has emphasized in the minds of hundreds of thousands of people that Imperial Valley produces a superior quality of long staple cotton and that the grower can be assured of practically a bale to the acre of those high-priced varieties. Mrs. Swickard has been weaving Durango cotton exclusively for the past few months. That is the variety of long staple cotton which many growers have concentrated upon and which not only yields well, but brings a high price in the market.

If her mission in the valley is successful Mrs. Swickard intends to make the San Diego exhibit even more extensive and valuable than that in San Francisco. In addition to the spinning wheel in operation and the various by-products of cotton, she will endeavor to show samples of Imperial Valley soil with explanations to show why this rich silt is especially adapted to the production of high quality cotton with a yield of one to two bales to the acre.

The exhibit at San Francisco, with others, will probably be installed there permanently as a still exhibit, but the wheel, it is hoped, will continue to turn and to spin through 1916 at San Diego.

Mrs. Ella Swickard,

Who hopes to make a great showing of Imperial Valley cotton at the Panama-California International Exposition, San Diego. Mrs. Swickard has been in charge of the cotton booth at the exposition in San Francisco.

San Bernardino County Honors Biggest Industry.

Operations of Colton Cement Company Amaze.

Thousands Attend Neighbors' Day Gathering.

San Bernardino county got acquainted with its biggest industry, yesterday—the California Portland Cement Company's $3,000,000 plant for turning out "construction flour" in terms of office buildings and miles of paved highway.

Up to Slover Mountain from the valley that it dominates went 4000 persons to inspect the Cyclopean operations on the south flank of the limestone cairn and to partake of the cement company's barbecue lunch. As a corollary of the last there was oratory of the kind best calculated to impart a "Portland" adhesiveness to the previous cordial relations between the company and the valley folk.

It was Neighbors' Day, a get-acquainted affair that left First street in Colton as destitute of denizens as a church on a week-day and gave San Bernardino's assessor a chance to check up on the number of automobiles in the county.

San Bernardino county has had numerous other get-acquainted affairs in the past. But this one was the most unique. It was a salute to industry, punctuated by blasts that tore the bed-covers from the bonanza-drift of limestone and lifted the powder-stained plumes of dust a mile high.

Everything about the California Portland Cement Company is in the superlative. In Slover Mountain it has sufficient limestone to keep the plant running, at the present capacity of 6000 barrels of cement a day, for the next 700 years. Incidentally, 6000 barrels of cement is enough to build a twelve-story office building and still have enough left to pave part way around the block.

INVESTMENT.

Since 1905 the concern has paid out $10,000,000 in wages, and at present employs 700 men, day and night, in a plant that represents an investment of $3,000,000, of which $1,000,000 has been spent in the last two years.

As it stands, the plant is perhaps second to none in capacity in the world, with clay deposits as an accessory at Fleming, seven miles from Corona, that produce a mingled silic iron and aluminum, that, fused with Slover limestone, makes a cement of the highest quality.

All these facts had been recognized in San Bernardino county and beyond—by the few. They are now the common property of the generality, for the inspection, yesterday, was a initiation into the realm of Brobdignagian things, followed by a bath of facts expressed in figures.

Engineered by the combined commercial organizations of Colton and San Bernardino, everything on the programme, from train service on the "mill" switch to the serving of the barbecue-beef, went off as smoothly as the proverbial transit of a cake of soap down a planed board.

By automobile and train and on foot, the guests arrived and were immediately inducted into rope walks that made inspection of the plant synonymous with the progress of the limestone from the quarry to the barreled and sacked product in about the same length of time—forty-five minutes from the blast to the billing clerk.

As the inspection was completed and the last guest wiped his perspiring brow, after running the gauntlet of kilns heated to 3000 degs. Fahrenheit, the call to lunch megaphoned its way upward from the barbecue enclosure in the dulcet tones of B. F. Hopkins, president of the Colton Merchants' Association.

NEW ROLES.

In fact, the whole affair found sterling citizens in unaccustomed roles. Official welcomer for the cement company and orator of the occasion was E. M. Boyd, who came down from his Yucaipa ranch for the affair; master of the feast was William Starke, superintendent of San Bernardino's water department, while his assistants included bankers and lawyers, clubwomen and society buds.

Expressed commercially, the cement company tendered its guests a $5000 repast. Dietetically, it had a its ingredients three tons of beef, 500 pounds of beans, 8000 cups of coffee, 5000 loaves of bread, 200 pounds of butter, 300 pounds of sugar, forty boxes of apples, and other eatables in the same Gargantuan proportions. Don Juan Allesandro de Garcia was in complete charge of the culinary brigade.

Forty thousand feet of lumber was required for the tables, which were placed in a wired inclosure in the center of an alfalfa field to the south of the plant. The tables placed end to end would run 2688 feet, or a little over half a mile. Altogether, the seating capacity of the benches was 5376 feet, or eighteen inches of space to each of 3500 persons.

"We have this morning seen the making of the wonder dust that, at the touch of moisture, becomes the building material imperishable," said E. M. Boyd in his neighborly welcome for the company. "This is a get-acquainted gathering of much

HERE'S ANOTHER INDUSTRY COMING.

MASSACHUSETTS PAPER MAKING CONCERN PURCHASES SITE FOR FACTORY.

Announcement was made yesterday of the purchase by the Union Wax & Parchment Company of Boston from the Pioneer Paper Company of this city of a two and one-half-acre industrial site adjoining the plant of the latter concern on Alameda street near Fiftieth. The Massachusetts concern, it is stated by representatives of the local paper company, will erect on the ground purchased a one-story factory building 261x396 feet in size.

The transplanted eastern company, it is declared on the same authority, will employ more than 100 persons at the start, having an annual pay roll of approximately $125,000. Its investment, including the cost of the site, it will, it is said, be about $250,000. The new concern will manufacture wax and parchment paper.

The Pioneer Paper Company will use practically the entire output of the new plant, thus keeping in Los Angeles money that has formerly gone East. The Massachusetts concern has heretofore supplied the local company with much of its wax and parchment paper and one of its inducements for removing to the Pacific Coast was the existing business it had here.

CANADIAN PASTOR TO COME HERE.

PROMINENT OTTAWA CLERGYMAN ACCEPTS CALL OF LOCAL CONGREGATION.

A telegram was received yesterday afternoon by the clerk of the Central Baptist Church from Rev. Benjamin Goodfield of Ottawa, Canada, accepting the call extended to him October 24 by the unanimous vote of the congregation. The Rev. Mr. Goodfield is expected to take up the duties of his new post within the next two or three weeks.

When Rev. J. W. Kramer resigned as pastor of the Central Baptist Church two months ago to answer a call in San Jose the deacons of the church were undecided where to obtain a successor. Favorable reports of a prominent Canadian minister caused them to inquire in Ottawa. The recommendations of the Rev. Mr. Goodfield were so excellent that with unanimous approval of the entire congregation, a call was extended to him last month.

Rev. Mr. Goodfield has been pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ottawa four years. He is married and has five children.

Prominent members of the Central Baptist Church stated last night they believe the acquisition of Rev. Mr. Goodfield is an excellent thing, not only for the church, but also for the city. He is reputed to be a pastor, preacher and pulpit orator of unusual ability.

SCIENCE MEETS BUSINESS NEED.

Multiplex Telegraphy Placed in Operation Here.

High Officials of Western Union Witness Marvel.

Herald of Good Times, Says General Manager.

This city is the telegraphic center of the Coast.

The people here telegraph more often than those of any other city.

Prosperity has come west this year via Los Angeles. Always before it has come via the Northwest.

During October the business in the local office increased 25 per cent. over the same period last year. This is an example of how business is jumping.

The telegraph wire is the nerve of business, and the nerves are pulsing with prosperity and optimism. No person should mistake the fact that business is on the bound.

You have the three great F's here, fruit, flowers and future.

(Comments of C. H. Gaunt, general manager of the Pacific division of the Western Union.)

Eight messages fleeing in both directions along the same telegraph wire at the same moment with the aid of a magical instrument in the Western Union telegraph office inaugurated a new era in the telegraph business in Los Angeles yesterday. Simultaneously four messages are leaving and four are arriving, and those coming here are automatically typed by the wizardry of the wire, while a patient girl sits back and coolly picks them off as they flutter from the machine.

To inspect this amazing machine, which cost $250,000 and three years of work by a score of foremost engineers, came C. H. Gaunt, general manager of the Pacific Coast division of the Western Union Telegraph Company, with a group of officials from the Northwest. He is the man who took charge of the Pacific Coast division five years ago, and directed the Five Short.

ONLY TWO ON BOARD NOW.

Three More Picture Censors Tender Resignations.

News Comes as Climax of Lively Sessions.

War Over "Damaged Goods" Still Continues.

Three of the remaining five members of the local board of motion picture censors yesterday sent in to Mayor Sebastian their resignations. They are J. W. Brooks, Mrs. R. B. Hutchins and Mrs. E. M. Hallett. This reduces the membership to two, Mrs. Earl Rogers and Elbert Deffenbach, as E. T. Jorgensen and A. P. Tugwell severed their connection with the board as a result of a shakeup several days ago.

The announcement that the three members had signed their resignation came as the sensational climax of a somewhat heated session yesterday at Normal Hill Center, when a second effort was made to have the board reverse its decision on "Damaged Goods" by the producers of the film play. The resignation of the three members was directly the outcome of the agitation over this picture, as was evidenced by the letter of resignation's contents, as follows: "We hereby tender our resignation, and feel that a Board of Censors is absolutely useless when their desisions are disregarded by the other city officials. We have done our duty faithfully, as far as we know how, and we do not propose to stultify ourselves by changing our opinion regarding "Damaged Goods."

Owing to the fact that the board had of more than an hour listened to arguments to favor of the film play before Mr. Brooke made known the fact that the resignation had been signed previous to the meeting, the announcement fell upon the assembly like a bomb shell explosion. It took the supporters of the film play nearly a minute to realize that they had been to a large extent wasting their breath on hearers who had their minds already definitely made up. For a few moments it looked as if affairs would wax rather warm.

Although the meeting closed with the whole matter of the presentation of "Damaged Goods" seemingly up in the air again, it became apparent in the informal discussion which followed that the decision as to whether or not the picture shall be shown may rest with the remaining two members of the board. Mr. Deffenbach, who is in San Francisco, is said to favor its presentation, while Mrs. Rogers is also in favor of its being shown, provided certain scenes are eliminated or shortened.

Manager J. A. Quinn stated that he will show the picture Monday night in any event, because he believes the general public is in favor of its presentation, and that if necessary he will make a test case of it. The film is to have a private showing this morning at which Mrs. Rogers will be present to make suggestions with regard to the changes in the picture. T. W. Johns, manager of the Mutual Film Corporation, which holds the release rights for the picture, stated his willingness to have made certain changes which were informally suggested by Mrs. Rogers yesterday.

At the opening of the meeting, Sam Atkinson, a lecturer who is connected with the executive staff of Quinn's Superba, presented indorsements of the picture from the National Board of Censorship and the San Francisco and Portland boards, as well as from a number of prominent local citizens. Among those who spoke at the meeting and indorsed the film were Councilwoman Estelle Lawton Lindsey, Charles Farwell Edson, Dr. Harry G. Marxmiller, Police Commissioner F. D. Owen, Dr. Percival Gerson and Andrew N. Strong.

After the hearing members of the board conferred together, and subsequently Mrs. Rogers made a motion to allow the showing of the picture with certain features eliminated, but none of the other members would second this. Directly afterward, Mr. Brooks told of the resignation of himself and the other two members.

It is expected that five new members for the board will be appointed within the next few days by the Mayor. It will probably be stipulated that none of these new appointees shall have any connection with the motion picture business.

HISTORICAL EXHIBIT.

Public Library to Devote Three Weeks to Pictorial Exposition of the Story of the Southwest.

The Los Angeles public library will give the first of a series of public exhibits, interesting and valuable portions of the Luther A. Ingersoll historical collection, next week, beginning Monday.

This extensive and unique accumulation of historical data covers the history, of California in general, and of Los Angeles and Southern California in particular. Not the least instructive and entertaining features of it are several hundred steel, copper and wood engravings and upwards of 1000 daguerreotypes and photographs. It came into possession of the public library as a Christmas gift to the city of Los Angeles last December from Mr. Ingersoll, who has devoted the larger share of his time during a twenty-seven years' residence in Los Angeles and Santa Monica to its accumulation, meantime doing much historical work for eastern publishers and producing two acceptable books on California and local history in his own name.

Mr. Ingersoll's work has brought him into intimate touch with the Spanish-Mexican pioneer families of the State and his collection is rich in data and pictures, illustrative of the most fascinating period of our history. The Arguellos, De la Guerros, Del Valles, Eepulvedas, Bandinis, Carrillos, Picos, Yorbas, Dominguez, Castros, Pachecos, Verdugos, Machados and many others of prominence are represented.

The exhibit is installed in glass cases constructed for the purpose and so arranged as to give the public ready access to it. To each exhibit is attached descriptive data.

This exhibit, the first, will be confined to the story of the Spanish-Mexican, or pastoral days. The second will relate to the early American epoch and the third to the later and contemporaneous history, embracing much in data and illustrations on the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West.

Neighbors' Day at Big Cement Plant.

OUR BIGGEST.

"This is the first, as well as the biggest of our industries," said R. M. McHargue for the people of Colton. "Slover Mountain has plastered our city with wealth ever since the early seventies, when the making of plaster was first begun on its northern side."

The appreciations of the people of San Bernardino were expressed by Ralph E. Swing, president of the Chamber of Commerce of that city.

Punctuating the programme, a blast was set off on the mountain that hurled thousands of tons of rock into the barrow pit below and sent up a plume of yellow dust that rose a mile in the air.

As the programme concluded the augmented Colton band played "America," while the assembled 4000 persons sang. Then came impromptu cheers for the company for T. J. Fleming, the modest secretary and general manager.

Slover Mountain has been a landmark since the early days. It is almost a solid mass of high-grade limestone, with a slight earth cover, that rises isolated in the midst of the upper San Bernardino Valley. In connection with its present function as the fabulously valuable asset of the cement company, it is related that Mrs. Barbarita Slover, whose husband was killed on the mountain by a bear, sold the deposit and considerable land around it for $50, a half-century ago.

In the early days limestone was taken out by tunneling on the north side for the making of plaster, and later for cement. But it was not until 1891, with the organization and incorporation of the California Portland Cement Company, that the systematic working of the deposit was started, and only ten years ago that open-faced quarrying was started.

The starting of open-faced quarrying was coincident with the reorganization of the company and the installing of T. J. Fleming as general manager. Dan. Murphy is president of the concern and Marco H. Hellman the vice-president. Both are Los Angeles men.

IMMENSE.

An inspection of the plant is the only way to get an idea of its immensity, with its $200,000 annual power bill and other evidences of its commanding place in the industrial life of the San Bernardino Valley.

Up in the quarry a 128-ton shovel is now engaged in clearing away the last of the 400,000 tons of material recently dislodged by a charge of eighteen tons of dynamite. Back and forth between the quarry and the great jaw-crusher runs electric motors.

This jaw-crusher is the largest in the world and will reduce six tons of rock to a maximum size of ten inches each minute. It will lip in a rock weighing thirty-five tons, of a size six and one-half feet by seven feet by ten, and with the upward thrust of its 87,000-pound lower jaw reduce it to field-boulder size. From this great crusher the rock goes to other crushers, which, through successive processes, reduce the product to the consistency of flour.

Later this limestone-flour is mixed by weight with clay and then the whole fused together in great rotary furnaces, heated to 3000 deg. Fahrenheit. Coming from these furnaces as a clinker, the cement is now ready for grinding and sacking, or for storage if the cement is not immediately needed for the trade.

BRANCHING OUT.

Express Company Arranges to Conduct Regular Tourist Business to all Parts of the World.

Arrangements for the operation of a general tourist business have been completed by the management of the American Express Company. Because this company is practically the only neutral international agency in a position to carry on such a business, the management believes their efforts will prove successful. According to their plans, it will be a simple expanding of the company's affairs, and the international business of the corporation is already large.

The first personally conducted tour will be to South America. Six of these tours are already planned. Later will come tours to China, Japan, New Zealand and other points in the Far East. At the close of the war, European tours will be arranged.

FOR NEW CITY WHARF.

Application for permission to construct a wharf 20-foot wide, in front of Smith's Island, extending 500 feet, has been made by the Harbor Commission of the United States States engineer's office, and the map of location will be on exhibit at the engineer's office, No. 723 Central Building, until the 18th inst., up to which time any objections may be filed.

ROWANSBURG LID OFF TOMORROW.

THERE'LL BE A HOT TIME FOR IT'S ANNUAL NOMINATION DINNER AND REVEL.

Fun, wit and eloquence will flow at the Los Angeles Athletic Club tomorrow night when candidates for the office of mayor of Rowansburg, the club's mythical city, are named at the annual nomination dinner and revel. It will be the one night of the year when the club's masculine portion turns out in full force and "lifts the lid." Rowansburg is named in honor of the president of the club, Robert A. Rowan, and each year a mayor and cabinet are chosen. They act as entertainers for the ensuing year.

This year's dinner promises to be notable in the number of candidates in the race and the flood of oratory that will be turned loose. There will also be an entertainment of vaudeville, songs and music while the diners are gathered in the club's main dining-room. Six well-known clubmen are already in the field as candidates and two or three others will be "sprung" as surprises. The six are William E. Bush, William Clune, Leo P. Bergin, Dr. John Griffith, C. C. C. Tatum and Johnny Powers. The "dark horses" are Albert Bayer, Councilman "Bob" Brain and Jack H. Rambos. Cohorts of the incumbent mayor, Franklin M. Hauser, threaten to rally and offer his name for a second term.

Such orators as Judge Bledsoe and Oscar Lawler will be present to sound the praises of the candidates. The nomination dinner will be followed by three weeks of electioneering, and on December 4, the name of the successful candidate will be announced at the annual election dinner.

DON'T LIKE KISSES.

Fond of Gold Medals, Blue Ribbons and Suchlike, but Ruby Lips of Girl—He Bits 'Em.

Major II is fond of blue ribbons, gold medals and most any other thing signifying appreciation of his beauty and pedigree for he has won many prizes for being the best Newfoundland dog on exhibition, but he has an aversion to osculatory affection and he showed it last night at the dog show when he bit Miss A. M. Ester on the lip and chin. She was admiring the big fellow and bent over as if to kiss him, when he snarled and snapped at her.

Bleeding from severe lacerations, Miss Ester, who is a book-keeper, living at No. 121 South Hill street, was taken to the Receiving Hospital. The wounds were dressed and the victim went her way, but without a word of reproach for the dog. She said it was her fault.

The animal is owned by W. L. H. Geldert of Venice. He says his dog has captured prizes in every show in which he has been entered and is considered one of the best in the country.

WINS OVER RAILROAD.

Register Roche and Receiver Mitchell of the local Land Office have decided the contest brought by Leo Kroonen against the Southern Pacific in favor of the contestant on the ground that the eighty acres involved, located south of Corona, is mineral and not agricultural land. The Big Four, White Clay, Black Chief and Kroonen placer mining claims, with rich deposits of clay, are on the property.

MODERN MIRACLE OF TELEGRAPHY.

EXPERT'S DESCRIPTION OF THE NEW MULTIPLEX.

by means of which simultaneous transmission in both directions is obtained. The speed of transmission over the outside line ranges from 160 to 450 words per minute in each direction. At each end of the line (each terminal station) there is a synchronously rotated distributer for the purpose of providing several transmissions and receptions during each revolution of their brush arms. Each distributor head is divided into four sections and each section consists of five different segments.

The signaling code consists of five units, that is to say, each letter or character is formed by the transmission of five unit current impulses. These five units may be any of thirty-one combinations of positive and negative impulses.

The four sections on the distributor head are designated as A. B. C. and D. The brush arms of these distributors while passing over each section pick up the current impulses which are set up by the tape-controlled transmitters. At the receiving station these different combinations of positive and negative impulses are received on the same section of the distributor and on the identical one or number of the five segments of each section as that on which the distributor brush arms are traversing at the time the transmitting impulses are sent to the line.

For example suppose the transmitting station on section "A" desires to transmit the letter "r," negative polarity will be selected by the sending transmitter on "A" section, which will cause segments 2 and 4 to send out to the line negative current impulses; the remaining three segments are connected to positive current. At the receiving station the brush arms pick up the negative current impulses off of the segments 2 and 4, which combination when repeated into the local selecting relays for that section cause the letter "r" to be printed.

While this mechanical operation on the part of the receiving apparatus is taking place, the brush arms are traveling over the other sections of the distributor head, selecting and transmitting different combinations for the remaining three channels.

SCHEME COMES TO GRIEF.

Shoe Dealer Starts One-Man Employment Agency and May Lose Privileges of United States Mails.

Postoffice Inspector Webster yesterday unearthed a money-making scheme engineered by F. R. Scouten, a former shoe dealer, who gave his address as No. 306 and No. 721 South Los Angeles street, that may result in a fraud order being issued by the Postoffice Department against Scouten receiving any more mail.

Recently there appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer, Minneapolis Journal, the Chicago American, New York American and the New York Journal the following want advertisement:

"Wanted—Man for office work in a department store; reference required. Reliable information furnished. Address F. R. Scouten, No. 721 South Los Angeles street. Los Angeles, Cal."

One of the parties answering the advertisement appearing in the Philadelphia paper was Henry Klein, No. 816 Tasker street, Philadelphia. He wrote Scouten and sent Scouten $2 for the "reliable information." Scouten enclosed in his reply an advertisement from a Los Angeles paper for a man wanted in one of the department stores of this city. It was taken from the Sunday edition of a Los Angeles paper.

Klein answered the advertisement, only to find that the want had been filled weeks before. He sent Scouten's letters to the postoffice inspectors here and an inquiry was instituted.

Scouten yesterday was summoned to the Federal Building to tell what he knew about the matter. He confessed that he had inserted the advertisement in the eastern papers and explained to have spent $25 doing it. He brought with him answers he had received from all over the country, wanting to know about the "reliable information" that would get them a job in Los Angeles. Answers to these letters saying that he had made up his mind that the scheme was a fake, and understanding that he had been assisted by his wife in reaching.

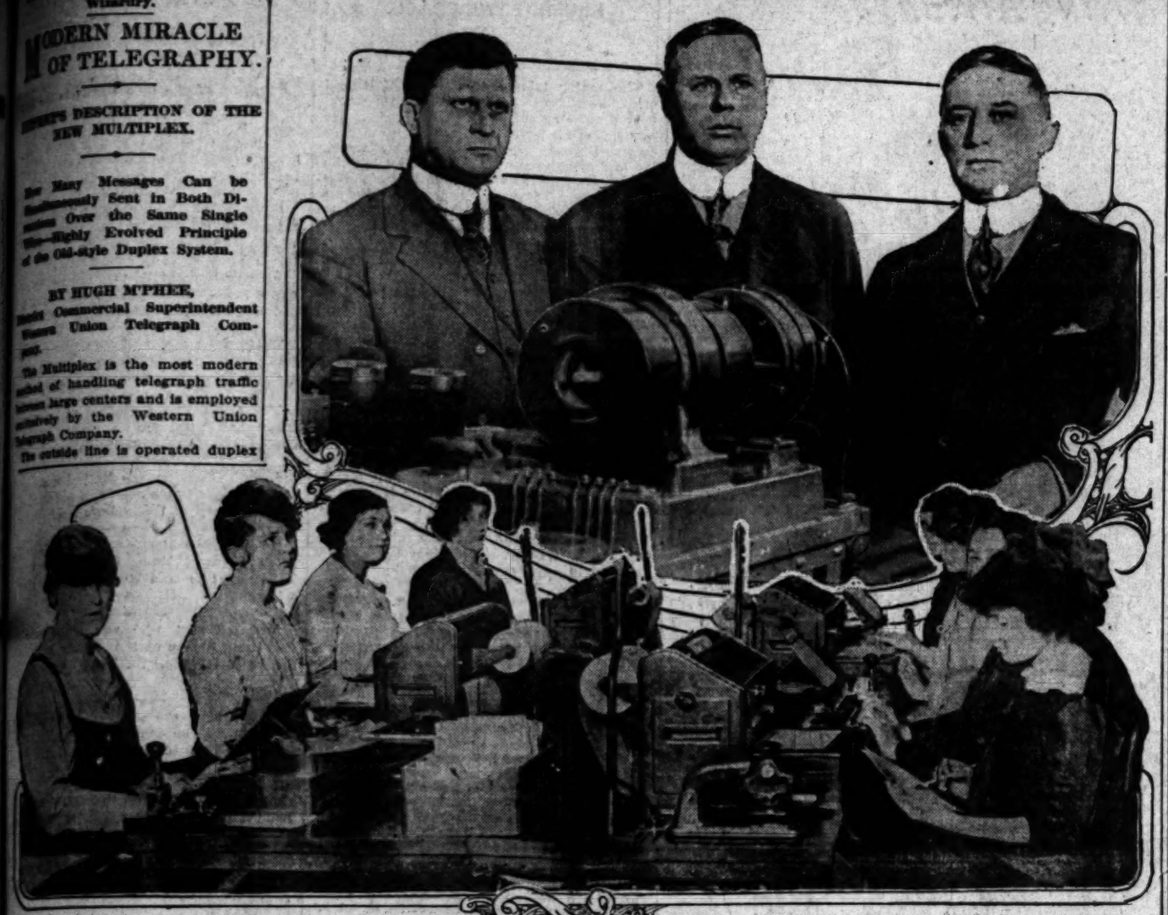
The outside line is operated duplex



When eight messages go in both directions over a single telegraph wire.

Tests made yesterday in the local office of the Western Union Telegraph Company of the operation of the new multiplex system. At the top are some of the officials gathered to witness the working of the newest electrical miracle. From right to left they are: C. H. Gaunt, general manager of the Pacific division; H. C. Chace, division traffic superintendent, and Hugh McPhee, district commercial superintendent. They are grouped about the multiplex distributor head. Below are the receiving and sending ends of the instrument—two of each on each side. The messages are received and automatically typewritten in the box-like instruments, appearing ready for distribution at the top. The sending instrument works exactly like a typewriter.

s means of which simultaneous transmission in both directions is obtained. The speed of transmission on the outside line ranges from 160 to 200 words per minute in each direction. At each end of the line (each terminal station) there is a synchronously rotated distributor for the purpose of providing several transmissions and receptions during each revolution of their brush arms. Each distributor head is divided into four segments and each section consists of five different segments.

Meets Business Need.

wonderful increase of 65 per cent. in its business during his administration.

He is as crisp and electric as the messages that speed over the wires, and has just finished a 5000-mile tour to determine finally what is the business condition of the West. His verdict is that prosperity is present, with a flow that is prophetic of the greatest development era ever known in the West. It is money-making time, he said, and no one should mistake the possibilities of the present.

"It is a great thing for this city," he said, "that prosperity came West this year through Los Angeles instead of through the Northwest as has always been the record in the past. First the East becomes prosperous after a depression, then the Middle West, and finally the Coast. It trabels westward with a perceptible momentum. Before it has followed the Hill lines to the Northwest, and then has come down the Coast. This year it came by the southern route.

BUSINESS HUMPING.

"With us, this is a matter of record. When I was here a few weeks ago, Hugh McPhee, the district commercial superintendent in charge here, informed me that his business had increased 25 per cent. over the same period last year. I hurried up the Coast to find if this was true there. I might say I traveled with prosperity, for it went north with a surge, and there is a remarkable change in industrial and commercial affairs there, it having taken place during the past three or four weeks.

"We are ready to take care of this business. Three years ago, our engineers said they were working on an instrument that would handle eight messages at the same time. When it became apparent to me that we were entering an era of trade expansion and trade volume that was going to command our extreme provisions for traffic, I asked when this new instrument would be ready. They said: 'It's ready now.'

"I said, 'The business needs it now.'

"We got them. It cost us $250,000 to perfect the instrument, and they cost $3700 each now. And to meet the growing business of this city, one has been installed here now, connecting with Denver. As quickly as the factory can finish them, two more will be installed here, one connecting with San Francisco, and the other with Chicago.

"These multiplex instruments represent the first great advance in telegraphy since Edison first invented the duplex and the quadruplex instruments thirty years ago. The duplex will send two messages at the same time for a long distance. The quadruplex will carry four messages simultaneously for a short distance. These will carry eight messages at the same time for a long distance.

"This is the best city in the union from a standpoint of the telegraph business. That is because of the climate. The wires leading to this city are always open. We never have to make allowance for storms and floods. For that reason, we are going to install one of the most modern offices in the world here."

WHAT A WOMAN OF OUR NATIVE STATE SAYS.

Oakland, Cal.—"For the past 25 years we have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and Golden Medical Discovery and the Pleasant Pellets. We have always kept them in our house. I have taken all of them; they kept me from having any serious trouble. I have recommended these remedies to all our neighbors and friends. Any family is safe with Dr. Pierce's medicines in the house."—Mrs. Martha Jess, 1410 W. 9th St.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" cures inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Like an open book, our faces tell the tale of health or disease. Hollow cheeks and sunken eyes, listless steps, sleepless nights—tell of wasting debilitating disease some place in the body. It may be one place or another, the cause is generally traceable to a common source.

Get the "Prescription" to-day—either in liquid or tablet form—if you want to better your physical condition speedily.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

STANFORD SPIRIT TO FLOW.

Alumni of Northern University to Hold Great Celebration at Local Club Tonight.

What is scheduled to be the greatest gathering of Stanford alumni ever held in the Southland will take place at the University Club tomorrow evening. It is to be under the auspices of the Stanford Club of Los Angeles and as a fitting recognition of the big game with Santa Clara College will take the form of a general jubilee and annual reunion of all the Stanford cohorts south of the Tehachepi.

With an unbeaten Rugby fifteen, the Pacific Coast tennis championship in Stanford hands and swimming honors won by representatives of the Cardinals, local enthusiasm has never run higher.

No efforts have been spared by the committee in charge to make the coming dinner an adequate appreciation of these triumphs.

"Skin" Wilson, author of popular songs and erstwhile varsity yell leader, will direct the evening's entertainment, the feature of which will be no less than his noted band of Stanford musicians, composed in part of some of the great athletes of bygone days. Wilson himself, together with "Brad" Melvin, will furnish specialty features and solos.

MISSION RESCUE WORK.

A Good Samaritan meeting will be held tomorrow night at the Union Rescue Mission, No. 145 North Main street. B. F. Pearson will have charge. Sunday at 4 p.m. there will be a gospel wagon service at First and Los Angeles streets. Sunday evening J. M. Berkley will speak and there will be special music.

FINED FOR SHORT WEIGHT.

Police Judge Crawford fined four fuel concerns $25 each yesterday for short-weighting customers for coal. All of the cases were of first offenders and the shortages ran from 60 to 160 pounds to the ton. Charles M. Fuller, county sealer of weights and measures, was the complaining witness. During the past week Mr. Fuller has had three other violators of the weights and measures act haled into court and fined from $5 to $25.

JERUSALEM AND TURKEY.

The literary section of the Woman's Alliance of the First Unitarian Church will meet in the church parlors next Thursday at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Nethery will speak informally on her impressions of Jerusalem, and Mrs. W. H. Fox will give a talk on Turkey.

Going to the Fair
With the Times Excursion

A Grand Tour, carefully mapped out to include the most enjoyable features of modern travel. Will be at the Exposition on "Los Angeles Day."

Arch of the Rising Sun. In the Court of the Universe, San Francisco Exposition.

Went With Times Excursion

To The Times Management:—

It is with great pleasure that I assure you of the pronounced success of the last Times Party, to the San Francisco Exposition, of which I was a member.

The comfortable arrangements on the "De Luxe Special" could not have been surpassed, and the cordial welcome extended to the excursionists will always be remembered. Every facility was given to see the grand old trees en route. Time and space fails to tell of the enjoyable time we had at the exposition itself, where every privilege and favor was shown to the Times Party.

[illegible] must be made of the courteous treatment extended by the management at "Inside Inn." The meals were par-excellence. Altogether, one of the treats of a life time was enjoyed, which to have missed would have been a life-long regret.

The weather, too, was on its best behavior and not a single hour was wasted uselessly.

You are to be congratulated on the manner you have managed these trips, giving your patrons the boon of a first-class trip, with the maximum of pleasure at a minimum of cost.

Yours Sincerely,
MRS. JACK KNIGHT
Lake Shore Avenue, Los Angeles.

Next World's Fair Tour

The next Times Excursion to the Panama-Pacific Exposition will leave the Southern Pacific Station on Thursday evening, November 18th and proceed via the Coast route, the scenic Santa Cruz Mountains, stopping en route to visit the giant redwood trees. Sufficient time will be given at the trees to see the most noted of the mammoth trees. The party will arrive at San Francisco in time for lunch on Friday. The afternoon and evening will be devoted to sightseeing. The second day, the members of the party will participate in "Los Angeles Day" events and the remainder of the time will be at their own pleasure and disposal. While at the Fair the excursionists will stop at the Inside Inn, a modern hotel, and be furnished with first-class meals and other hotel conveniences. The party will have a special train with Pullman berths both going and returning; meals will also be provided en route, assuring everyone every possible care for his or her comfort. Price of ticket, which includes all above features, is $42.50.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) The immense profits shown in present high prices for all kinds of industrial investments caused holders, especially those of the "country," to sell in considerable quantity with the resultant decline in values. But still, where realizing occurred in one section, buying was pretty steady in another, and in steel, coppers, oil, etc., prices gradually advanced. A shortage of cars to handle the enormous crop and the equally large output of manufacturing plants is becoming a serious hindrance to business.

(Abroad:) London dealt freely in Americans, most of the business being for Dutch account.

(For details see financial pages.)

PLACING A LADY.

That young woman who broke windows in the Wilshire district when she was refused employment is wasted on America in the time of war in Europe. She belongs entirely to London in the time of peace.

STICKING TOGETHER.

The friendship between Colton and San Bernardino is now forever sealed. They have held a joint celebration of the construction of the largest rock-crusher in the West at the plant of the California-Portland Cement Company.

NATURE'S ALIBI.

The Germans say that the Japanese have inspired the slides of the Panama Canal, and the British say the Germans did it. There is just a chance that nature is a match for any combination of Nipponese or Teutons, and that she was on the job herself.

SORBISTRY UNTHRONED.

Since it is so much easier to give up to something than to give something up, the writing of books on the subject of morality continues to be a profitable business and that playwright is always sure of a laugh who has his characters repeat the lines that yielding to temptation is the spice of life.

TIME'S LIGHT HAND.

Now as to age, that is not such a serious question as it is one of subtlety. You see, people live for many years in a dumb and sleeping fashion, and then there comes the one great moment and with it the awakening. Years don't count with women except for the grace they bring, and with men except for a harvest of forbearance.

THE LUCKY FEW.

A can of paint fell from the flagstaff of a big building on Spring street and only ten people were fortunate enough to be passing at the minute that they might have themselves bespattered and receive new hats at the expense of the house. What trick of fate can it be that will shut out 10,000 people from this luck, or that will pick out only ten for the experience?

DISCARDING NONESSENTIALS.

How weary the world must be of digging graves for the unprepared. Is no one ready to go on with life, in view of logic, chemistry, prodigal sowing and abundant harvest, without regard to that multitude of lesser terms that forever reckon with measures and numbers, revolving in a little circle and having nothing to do with the greatest common multiple or a new dimension?

LOOKING UP.

Being satisfied with a condition that passes for the normal is insufficient, because the chances are that the present norm is lacking. Men do not standardize themselves well or adequately. Their wagons may be hitched to stars, but their bodies are chained to woefully deadened clods. We have had enough of the insensate. It is time we looked for sentiency. Oh, to be quickened! And then to be aware of that quickening!

THE WORLD'S HEALTH.

It has been a long time since we have seen anything of our friend, the fourth dimension. This is to be regretted, not because there is such a thing or because there is any occasion to discuss it, but because there is such a thing as being too sick to speculate about a nostrum. There is also such a thing as being too healthy, and if we believe the world has reached that point we would never regret losing sight of the fourth dimension for a minute. There really is a point where the thing that dreams meets the thing that acts, and where the two inspire and compliment each other to a degree of realization that is amazing in its satisfaction. Inventors often strike this point, and so do some authors before fame or the madhouse has any use for them.

"AS WE FORGIVE."

When you search the lexicon of understanding for a beautiful word it may chance that your eye will fall upon that illumined star of verbiage, "forgiveness." Nothing in the study of first principles confuses a greater number of sincere persons than this term of blessedness. Forgiveness amounts to a great test and is the door through which we shall finally pass, or at which we shall be denied. When you know that you have been guilty of a like offense, or when you realize in all humility that the mistake might have been yours and that a similar experience may yet find you unprepared to resist, then you stand in the white light of forgiveness and the sins of men fall from about them like a dark mantle that has too long concealed the white radiance of the self that is.

AND NOW FOR AUSTRIA!

Notwithstanding that Germany finally receded, at the insistence of the United States, from her first position with respect to the sinking of the Arabic and promised to make reparation and not to repeat the offense, Austria, in the sinking of the Ancona and the destruction of American lives, repeats the Arabic incident, aggravated by the fact that the Ancona was also going to America instead of coming from it, and could not possibly have been carrying contraband of war.

The United States will of course make the same demand of Austria that she made of Germany, and Germany will, if Austria cannot show that the Ancona was trying to escape, necessarily call upon Austria to make the same concessions to the United States that she made herself in the Arabic case.

Should Austria, inspired by the spleen of ex-Ambassador Dumba, or misguided by her aged and well-nigh imbecile Emperor, Franz Josef, refuse to comply with the counsel of her ally, a complicated situation will be apt to ensue.

By adopting such a course Austria would give the United States, if not an actual casus belli against her, at least the right to resort to measures of retorsion which might involve the seizure by us of all Austrian ships interned in our ports or captured on the high seas, the expulsion of unnaturalized Austrians residing in our country, and even the sending of a fleet into the Mediterranean and the reduction of the Austrian port of Trieste.

Against these or other measures Germany could not logically, and probably would not, offer any valid objection, unless in taking them we should co-operate with or accept assistance from Italy or France or Russia or England, as we would not do.

Certainly we cannot, and doubtless will not, accept, without remonstrance or action, from feeble and insolvent Austria an invasion of our rights and an insult to our national honor which we resented when perpetrated by rich and resourceful Germany.

Germany will not be likely to allow her inconsiderate ally to compel her to recede from the concessions made to us in the Arabic case. If Austria insists on a conflict with the United States, it would almost necessarily compel Germany to withdraw from her alliance with her. This might result in Germany making a separate peace with the allied powers and the extinction of Austria as a nation.

AN INDUSTRIAL TRIUMPH.

One of the commonest observations heard from eastern visitors to Los Angeles, especially those who hail from the larger cities, runs something to this effect: "Your climate is heavenly, your homes are lovely, your progress has been wonderful, but what in the devil keeps you going? Where are your big factories? What do your working people do to keep alive? You can't live on climate—you can't—and so on, and so on." Everyone has heard such comments over and over again.

Sometimes these remarks are made in a spirit of friendliness and sometimes they are uttered as thinly-veiled irony and criticism. It is easy to understand how one coming from Detroit or Pittsburgh would instantly note the scarcity of factories here as compared with the wilderness of smoking stacks in his own city. The visitor knows that Pittsburgh and Detroit could not be Pittsburgh and Detroit without those clustered stacks, and he wonders how Los Angeles can be the real, metropolitan city that is spread before his vision without the same solid foundation of industry.

Los Angeles, Mr. Tourist, is real—just as real as Detroit, Pittsburgh, Cleveland or any of them. Give us time and we will have as many smokestacks as any city and no one will be able to say that we have "no visible means of support." It is true, as you often point out, that Los Angeles, a city of over 500,000 population, has the industries of a city of 100,000. It is also true that Los Angeles in the scarcely more than a dozen years that have elapsed since this was in truth a city of only 100,000 has made wonderful strides industrially. A dozen years ago, when the great manufacturing centers of the East occupied much the same place in the industrial world as they hold today, Los Angeles was an industrial nonentity. No city can boast a greater actual advance in industry in the past decade than can Los Angeles.

The paradox, as the tourist from an eastern manufacturing city sees it, of a city that is forging on toward the million mark, thriving without its quota of industries, is easily understandable when all the facts of Los Angeles's growth are taken into consideration. Los Angeles has grown faster than its industries could possibly have been expected to grow. No manufacturer, however shrewd, could a bare decade ago have foreseen the preparations for constant expansion he would have to make to keep up with the hurtling progress around him. No outside manufacturer, however alert for new fields of development, could have known that the rising little city of the Southwest was so soon to outstrip scores of other places of apparently equal promise. The phenomenal growth of Los Angeles has been one of the biggest surprises in the annals of American municipalities.

Nor is it to be wondered at that the people of Los Angeles as a whole are only now beginning to realize the prime need of manufacturing industries. Los Angeles has not until a very recent time developed what might be called an "industrial consciousness," or grasp of the facts in relation to industry. It is only now beginning to dawn upon many persons that factories giving steady employment to large numbers of working men and women are absolutely necessary to the continued progress and prosperity of this city, or any city. The people of Los Angeles have been so engrossed year in and year out in the building of homes that they have almost overlooked the vital need of fostering industries. Thus it is that until recently the really marvelous industrial development in and around Los Angeles has been accomplished without any of that organized public interest and effort that has been so largely responsible for the advance of the leading manufacturing centers of the East. Industry in Los Angeles has "just growed."

Even without the support and impetus of a public fully awakened to the need of encouraging industry Los Angeles and its metropolitan district have recorded an industrial progress that is almost unbelievable. Preliminary estimates put the total manufacturing output of Los Angeles in 1915 at around $125,000,000. Approximately 150 new industries have been established here during the year now drawing to a close, and something like $4,000,000 has been invested in new factory buildings and additions. For over a decade the progress in manufacturing has been steadily upward and it is significant indeed of the real underlying prosperity of Los Angeles that the present year of world wars and general financial uncertainties should have seen the greatest annual industrial advance of all in Los Angeles.

With the backing of the public interest that is gradually but surely being awakened in Los Angeles and Southern California it is no exaggeration to say that there is no limit to the industrial possibilities of this community. Every element necessary in the upbuilding of industry exists here. Our efficiency-breeding climate, our sure and cheap supply of fuel and power, our inexhaustible resources in raw materials, our unrivaled rail and ocean transportation and our illimitable markets invite the attention of the manufacturing world. The Industrial Commission of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has been working overtime ever since its organization two years ago educating the manufacturers of America to the opportunities that exist here. A like display of zeal on the part of the public toward the encouragement of home industry is all that is needed to complete the charm and put Los Angeles in the forefront of American industrial communities.

Industrial Commissioner Kinney had a genuine inspiration when he conceived the plan of having a "Home Products Week" in the Chamber of Commerce building. Already that week has been expanded to two weeks and still the public interest is strong. Mr. Kinney has adopted the most convincing way possible of revealing to people the fact that every manufactured product they may require can be produced here as cheaply and as well as in any outside city. Every article in the big main home products exhibit and in the secondary exhibits of the downtown business houses is a Los Angeles product, and they run the gamut of both necessities and luxuries.

The people of Los Angeles and Southern California are quick to respond to any movement that has for its end the upbuilding of this city and section, and now that the agitation for a united patronage and support of home industries has been really started, there is every reason for believing that they will espouse this important cause with an enthusiasm that will ere another year has passed be crowned with substantial results. One thing is certain—the people of Los Angeles in a large sense hold the industrial destiny of their city in their own hands. The city and section owe Mr. Kinney and his associates a debt of gratitude for so effectively bringing the fact to the public attention.

EAST INDIAN LOYALTY.

The reports which from time to time have appeared in the London journals concerning the alleged enthusiastic support given by India to Great Britain in the great war do not seem to be confirmed by later advices. It has escaped the scrutiny of the censors that the ruler of Hyderabad has, in consequence of his support of Great Britain, been deposed by his people and that there is mutiny and unrest all over India.

The Nizam who was deposed is very wealthy. He contributed $2,000,000 toward the expense of organizing a regiment of native cavalry and sending it to the seat of war in Europe.

The white soldiers of Great Britain do not "tackle kindly" to companionship with the "heathen Hindu" contingent. Especially is this the case with the Irish regiments. They are singing:

"To the devil I'll fling old Runfeet Singh,
He's only a prince in a small way;
His horse he'd recall at a six-foot wall,
He'd never do for Galway."

Flirting Already?

LET THE ROOSTERS LIVE.

Councilwoman Lindsey's proposed ordinance to reduce all city poultry yards to a collection of husbandless hens and to guillotine the roosters whose ancestors saluted the morn immediately succeeding Peter's denial of his master may endear the lady to the roisterers who would succeed nights of wassail with snoring morns, but it will not meet the approval of the hens. The statement that the hens will "lay better eggs without assistance from the roosters" is open to question. Such eggs are certainly not better for propagation, and the statement that they are better for table use needs substantiation.

The banishment of roosters will involve denial of the maternal aspirations of the hen, who, by all the laws of poultrydam, is entitled to raise one brood of chickens each year. It is true that in this respect she may be superseded by an incubator and an artificial mother, but no incubator that ever was invented can hatch a chicken out of an egg laid by a husbandless hen.

If all the roosters are to be decapitated and stewed, it may be true that the eggs laid by the hens of today will be as nutritious and as pleasant to the taste as ever. But how about the hens of next year and the year after? Without the society of roosters eggs laid by the hens of today will be infertile, and then there will be no hens of tomorrow.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

WORRYING.

Disasters never leave us, there's always something grievous that we can worry o'er; there's something going balky, there's always something rocky, to justify a roar.
The parlor door is squeaking, the kitchen roof is leaking, there's trouble with the range; the cow is somewhere straying, the hen has ceased her laying, the dog has got the mange. There's always something trying, there's cause for tears and sighing, if you're that way inclined, if you are fond of weeping, if you are ever keeping a sore spot on your mind. If you are always searching for Worry, where she's perching, you'll find her every trip; she will not try to lose you, she'll badger and abuse you until you lose your grip. But if you have decided that grief should be derided and chivied from your door, the little daily troubles will seem as thin as bubbles—too small to make you sore. When there's an all-wool sorrow, small comfort can we borrow from optimistic sharps, who say that woes don't matter, and bore us with their chatter, and twang their sunshine harps. But we can learn to laugh at the little griefs and chaff at the trifling sores and smarts; our faith on goodness pinning, let's face the old world grinning, and carry cheerful hearts.

KEEPING THE PEACE.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

The major is one of the bloodiest and most persistent peace protagonists that ever drew a sword or shot the chutes. He had a plan all formulated that would assure enduring peace for the wide, wide world. He had secured the approval of all but the Kaiser, the Czar, the King, the Emperor and a few other crowned heads when Serbia suddenly exploded and hell-broth began to brew. It almost broke his little heart.

But his diplomacy preserved us from battling embroilment with Mexico and Japan, and that is some satisfaction.

As chairman of the Alexangelus board of strategy he wields a desperate knife and fork—but it is all in the interest of peace. You would think that he and Willie Bryan ought to sleep together in a folding bed, but not so. They agree on the desirability of peace as a national asset, but differ on the means or methods of maintaining it. It is much the same as the situation lies between Prof. Wilson and Col. Bryan. Both are insistent for peace, but as to the best plan of preserving it they differ widely. Bryan would pack it away in moth balls, but Wilson wants it kept in the front window. The major says that Bryan wants a pussy-footed peace at any price, while Wilson wants the brand that goes with a shotgun and an anchor. The major thinks that Bryan will kick over the traces if he is unable to dominate the next Democratic convention and will himself be a candidate on the triangular platform of peace, prohibition and prunes—meaning votes for women. At that, he would get the almost solid grandmother vote of our expansive republic and would bore a hole in the puissant Democracy that ages could not repair. A platform like that sounds very sweetly when sung over the Chautauqua circuit to the air of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," but is full of bum notes when spieled by the little German band.

But it is the Bryan idea of close harmony.

Instead of having mines, submarines and fortresses for use in repelling the invader the Nebraskan would go forth and meet the enemy with a few well-chosen remarks. The intruders would be pacifically invited to beat their swords into plowshares and join our citizen husbandry. Brother Bryan forgets that eloquence, to be potent, must be in the tongue of the listener. It chills and hardens under the perfunctory lip of the interpreter. If the interlopers should chance to be German, Japanese or Russian they would probably begin shooting before the leather-lunged commoner reached his peroration or completed his stage business of freeing the fluttering dove.

The major also holds that the other colonel—the real one—is like to repeat his tragic episode of 1912 and drive another wedge into the Republican corporosity. His platform would not exactly be war at any price, but it would be something near it. The revised edition would be: "Tread heavily and carry a war club." While the Nebraska colonel would be praying for peace the Oyster Bay Furioso would be preying for it. As the major has it laid out, the next Presidential campaign will be something like a four-handed reel with national defense as a sort of football. The Wilson Democracy and the regular Republicans will differ widely on many matters, but will behave much alike on the programme of preparedness. They want a sort of offensive defense. They realize that it might be expensive, but they view it a good deal as the wise business man does the carrying of fire and life insurance. As the major passionately says: "A preparedness which contemplates effective resistance of all forms of invasion is an insurance policy to which no objection can be raised save a mercenary one."

Is it too expensive?

The major proved his contention to me by recalling the gloomy fact that not long ago my precious poultry plant was plundered by malignant fiends because I was too mean to keep a dog or have locks on my coops.

"If you had had a night watchman and a machine gun," said he, "your esteemed birds would never have been taken by the ruthless invaders."

"That's all right," retorted I. "But how am I going to pay $127 a month to keep guard over $90 worth of careless hens?"

"That's just the point," returned the major, triumphantly. "You can't afford it and it would be a silly expense for you to undertake. But here we have a rich and powerful country with a lot of high-priced and highbrowed cities along the frontier. Any one of these blooming towns is worth the ransom of a full deck of kings and would pay tribute of millions of dollars to escape pillage or bombardment. As a nation the United States hasn't a good friend on earth. This may seem strange and unwarranted, but it comes mighty near being the truth. The French people are perhaps more friendly than any other, and their love is a bit wobbly just now. The ruling forces in most other lands are either jealous or contemptuous of us. With a lot of blundering Americans wandering around abroad and a sensational and belligerent press at home it wouldn't take much to set off the powder magazine. When kings and diplomats are hunting for an excuse it is not very hard to dig one out. It is useless to say that the old-world nations will be so weak and impoverished that thought of further war is impossible. It might enter into their heads that the United States is rich enough to pay their own debts. They will have to hunt the money somewhere and would prefer to plunder a foe than turn out their own pockets. Even a combination of Germany and England against the United States is not as impossible as the present old-world alignment would have been considered two years ago."

"Anybody can see that you are going to have peace if you have to fight for it," said I.

The major says he doesn't want a large standing army, nor does he favor compulsory military training in the schools or elsewhere, but he does want a programme of preparedness which will completely and effectively resist foreign invasion, no matter what form it may take. He wants the scientific advisory board of the navy to give the best of its genius to this idea.

FRIDAY MORNING.

Dual Tragedy.

JEALOUS RAGE AND SHAMBLES.

Painter Stabs Wife, Cuts Officer, is Shot.

Another Man and Liquor at Bottom of Case.

To Save His Life Policeman Fires on Slayer.

Thomas Gardner, 50 years old, a painter and paper hanger, stabbed his wife, Tilda Lindquist Gardner, 38 years old, to death with a butcher knife early last night after she had spurned his caresses and told him to ... his clothes and leave her. ... bed a dozen times about the body ... neck, the defenseless woman was ... trying to escape when H. E. Nelson, ... special police officer, appeared, and ... the murderer through the left ... the wound being probably fatal. ... Officer Nelson did not shoot until ... Gardner attacked him with the knife ... severely cut him on the left fore... arm.

At the Receiving Hospital Gardner ... said the tragedy was the direct result ... of the attentions paid his wife by another man and her reciprocation. He ... gave the name of the third party to ... the human triangle and the man was ... summoned to Central Police Station, ... but was not held.

"I want to die," the murderer cried ... while Surgeon Hiller was dressing his ... wound. "In the sight of God I am ... not guilty of murder, but I lived only ... for my wife and with her dead I don't ... want to live."

Gardner said the trouble started ... when his wife, who was the landlady ... of the Pearl apartments, No. 1264 ... Maple avenue, arrived home with the ... odor of liquor on her breath.

"She should have been home much ... sooner," he said, "for my supper was ... not ready, but I would not have cared ... much if she had not been drinking. ... Then she came in I asked her where ... she had been. She told me it was ... none of my business, and I got mad, ... but tried to disguise my feelings when ... I went to her, placed my arm around ... her neck and asked her if she did not ... love me.

SPURNED.

"She threw my arm from her ... shoulders and told me to let her ... alone. Then we exchanged angry ... words and began fighting. A few ... minutes later she rushed at me and ... demanded that I pack my clothes and ... leave her forever. That set me crazy ... and what followed I do not remember."

When the couple started their quarrel, Mrs. Gardner screamed for help ... and Mrs. Louise Farmer, who occupies an apartment across the hall, ran ... down to the street for a policeman. ... She met Officer Nelson and they hurried back to the scene.

"When I got to Gardner's apartment the fighting had subsided," the ... officer said. "I asked each if they ... needed an officer and both said they ... did not. Then I went over to talk ... with Mrs. Farner and while we were ... in conversation I heard Mrs. Gardner ... scream. I leaped across the hall in ... time to see the woman fall to the ... floor with her husband glowering ... over her like a blood-thirsty animal. ... When Gardner saw me in the doorway he made a rush at me, wielding the knife viciously. I reached for ... my automatic gun, but he had ... slashed my left wrist before I got it ... into action. When I pulled the trigger, the man fell backward over his ... victim's body."

Detectives took Charles Raymond, ... who occupied a room in the Pearl and ... who was a business partner of Gardner, to the police station and locked ... him up as a witness. Gardner said ... Raymond was in their apartment a ... moment before the cutting, but Raymond denied it.

The Gardners had two children, ... Marion, 16 years, and Lawrence, 15. ... The latter was home when the quarrel started, but told the police he ... went away with Raymond because he ... did not want to hear his mother and ... father arguing. He said they had ... fought frequently and he always tried ... to get out of the house. His brother ... was at Gardena at the time of the ... tragedy.

THEIR HISTORY.

Gardner said he married Tilda ... Lindquist seventeen years ago in ... Kingsburg, Fresno county. They ... came south six years ago, settling on ... a little ranch at Gardena, where they ... remained until last February. Then ... they came to Los Angeles, their purpose being to earn money to buy the ... Gardena ranch. Mrs. Gardner worked ... several weeks in a cafeteria and then ... opened the apartment-house because ... she thought she could make money ... more rapidly and with less work. All ... the while her husband was working at ... his trade and the children were doing ... odd jobs.

"We were getting along so nicely, ... saving our money and happy over the ... prospects of soon going to our own ... ranch when this viper of a man came ... into our lives," Gardner said. "He ... made life a hell for me, but I was ... hoping she would soon forget him. ... Instead, she seemed to love him more ... and more and I could tell by her ... coldness toward me that she wanted ... to get rid of me."

Mrs. Gardner's mother, Mrs. Anna ... Lindquist, lives in Kingsburg, while ... Gardner's father resides in Fresno. ... The children cried bitterly when ... the full realization of the tragedy ... dawned upon them. They were taken ... to the apartment of Mrs. Farner, who ... said she will care for them until their ... grandparents arrive. They are expected here this morning.

Gardner was removed to the County Hospital and physicians there said ... late last night he has little chance to ... recover. The bullet entered his left ... breast over the heart and going downward came out below the lung.

SPURNED.

"She threw my arm from her shoulders and told me to let her alone. Then we exchanged angry words and began fighting. A few minutes later she rushed at me and demanded that I pack my clothes and leave her forever. That set me crazy and what followed I do not remember.

"When the couple started their quarrel Mrs. Gardner screamed for help and Mrs. Louise Farner, who occupies an apartment across the hall, ran down to the street for a policeman. Officer Nelson and they hurried back to the scene.

"When I got to Gardner's apartment the fighting had subsided," the latter said. "I asked each if they needed an officer and both said they did not. Then I went over to talk with Mrs. Farner and while we were in conversation I heard Mrs. Gardner scream. I leaped across the hall in time to see the woman fall to the floor with her husband glowering over her like a blood-thirsty animal. When Gardner saw me in the doorway he made a rush at me, wielding a knife viciously. I reached for my automatic gun, but he had grabbed my left wrist before I got it into action. When I pulled the trigger the man fell backward over his wife's body."

Detectives took Charles Raymond, who occupied a room in the Pearl and who was a business partner of Gardner's, to the police station and locked him up as a witness. Gardner said Raymond was in their apartment a minute before the cutting, but Raymond denied it.

The Gardners had two children, Lawrence, 16 years, and Lawrence, 15. The latter was home when the quarrel started, but told the police he went away with Raymond because he did not want to hear his mother and father arguing. He said they had fought frequently and he always tried to get out of the house. His brother lives at Gardena at the time of the tragedy.

THEIR HISTORY.

Gardner said he married Tilda Lindquist seventeen years ago in Kingsburg, Fresno county. They came to the south six years ago, settling on a little ranch at Gardena, where they resided until last February. Then they came to Los Angeles, their purpose being to earn money to buy the Gardena ranch. Mrs. Gardner worked several weeks in a cafeteria and then found work in the apartment-house because she thought she could make money more rapidly and with less work. All the while her husband was working at the ranch and the children were doing as they pleased.

"We were getting along so nicely, saving our money and happy over the prospects of soon going to our own ranch when this viper of a man came between our lives," Gardner said. "He made life a hell for me, but I was hoping she would soon forget him. Instead, she seemed to love him more and more and I could tell by her actions toward me that she wanted to get rid of me."

Mrs. Gardner's mother, Mrs. Anna Lindquist, lives in Kingsburg, while Gardner's father resides in Fresno.

The children cried bitterly when told of the realisation of the tragedy that had fallen upon them. They were taken to the apartment of Mrs. Farner, who said she will care for them until their parents arrive. They are expected here this morning.

Gardner was removed to the County Hospital and physicians there said last night he has little chance to live. The bullet entered his left side over the heart and going downward came out below the lung.

PLAN WEEK OF PRAYER.

Observance Will be Joined in by Young Women in Forty Countries Throughout the World.

Organized in forty different countries of the world with a total membership of 730,000, the Young Women's Christian Associations the world over enter upon their "week of prayer" next Sunday.

Each year, a week is set apart for the consideration of the needs, problems and conditions surrounding the girlhood of all nations and for prayer for the efforts of the association.

"Hitting the Missionary Trail Around the World" will be the subject of Rev. L. A. Gould at the vesper talk here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock and Miss Blanche Adkins will be soloist. During the week there will be noonday talks as follows: Monday, "Africa," Miss Christine Sudermann; Tuesday, "North and South America," Miss M. Belle Jeffrey; Wednesday, "Europe," Miss Ludema Sayre; Thursday, "Australia and India," Miss Mary I. Bentley, and Friday, "Asia and China," Mrs. Paul McClintock. These talks will start at 12:30 o'clock.

COGGINSES LOSE LAND.

The efforts of Clifford Coggins, Clifford E. Coggins, Nella M. Coggins and Alice M. Coggins to homestead two sections of desert land (or 320 acres each) in Imperial county has been discountenanced by the government, according to a ruling received yesterday by Register Roche and Receiver Mitchell of the local Land Office. When the entries were made they were rejected by the local officials and the Coggins family took an appeal from that judgment. The action has now been affirmed on the ground that the lands in question are barren sand hills, and that the right to make a desert land entry is restricted to surveyed territory.

COUNTERFEITING TRIAD ON.

The trial of John M. Doane, charged with receiving $1300 in counterfeit $10 Crocker National Bank notes through the mails will begin before Judge Van Fleet and a jury this morning. Doane is charged with having mailed the stuff to what was supposed was a mythical person, O. R. Fleming. But there happened to be a man of that name in Los Angeles and he got the bills. He at once reported to the authorities and the mail was returned to the office. Doane called for it under the name of Fleming and was arrested.

A Worthy Life.

AGED MINISTER CALLED YONDER.

FOR FIFTY-SIX YEARS NOTED AS PREACHER.

Nonagenarian and a Prominent Figure in Presbyterian Church Work, Who Came Here Decade Ago, Dies Suddenly After a Long and Active Career.

Rev. Samuel E. Wishard, D. D., 90 years old, who for the past fifty-eight years was noted as one of the most prominent ministers of the Presbyterian Church, died suddenly yesterday morning at his residence, No. 135 East Avenue Fifty-three. The end came unexpectedly, for despite his advanced age Rev. Mr. Wishard continued his activities and appeared mentally and physically well when he retired Wednesday evening. Death was the result of heart failure.

Dr. Wishard was born in Johnson county, Indiana, about ten miles from Indianapolis. After a preparatory course in the county schools, he attended Wabash College. At the time of his death he was known as the oldest living graduate of that institution.

Following his graduation from Wabash, he entered Lane Theological Seminary at Cincinnati, and studied for the ministry. He graduated from this institution in 1856. A year later he married.

During his long career as minister of the gospel he served in many parts of the country. For sixteen years he was synodical missionary to the States of Utah, Idaho and Montana. Dr. Wishard retired from active work ten years ago, and came to Los Angeles to finish his life in peace and quiet.

Yet the cause was too much to him to forsake, even through advanced age, and despite his retirement he continued to preach in the Presbyterian churches of the city, and was often heard in the pulpit of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member.

Mrs. Wishard died three years ago. They had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary the year after coming to Los Angeles.

Rev. Dr. Wishard leaves four daughters and one son. The daughters are Mrs. Mary A. Whittier of Elmira, N. Y.; Mrs. A. A. Fulton of Canton, China; Mrs. W. E. Knight of Lexington, and Mrs. R. J. Caskey and Miss Hattie M. Wishard of Los Angeles. The son, Dr. Fred G. Wishard, resides in Pasadena.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Highland Park Presbyterian Church at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

ANOTHER AUTO BURGLARY.

Store Breakers Discovered by Car Men Jump into Their Machine and Flee with Cigars and Other Goods.

Automobile burglaries continue to be reported regularly every morning at the Sheriff's office. Yesterday the report came from J. A. Sherman, groceryman at the terminus of the Stephenson-avenue car line. He said that two men had entered his place on the previous night and were noticed carrying out numerous bundles of goods by the crew of one of the street cars. When the car men started toward the store, the burglars jumped into a waiting machine and disappeared. An inventory of stock revealed the fact that about $50 worth of cigars and other goods had been stolen.

IN NORTH TO MARRY.

James H. G. Powing and Hallie Peyton, both of Los Angeles, got a marriage license yesterday in San Francisco.

Sweet "Corner."

SPECULATORS HOLD UP CONSUMERS OF SUGAR.

A REMARKABLE situation exists in the United States sugar market. The large sugar interests of the country have "cornered" the entire stock of "raws" and are taking full advantage of their position before the new Cuban crop is ready for shipment. Due to the fact that there is a dearth of ships on the Atlantic for transporting the old crop still on hand in Cuba, the speculators have absolute control of the market. The new crop of Cuban sugar will not be ready until December 15, and before that time the speculators anticipate reaping a magnicent profit by boosting the price of sugar to figures never before known in the history of the industry.

On Tuesday of this week beet granulated sugar was worth $6.15 a hundred pounds and standard cane and berry sold for $6.35 a hundredweight in Los Angeles to the retail merchant. Wednesday, wholesalers raised these prices 15 cents, Thursday 10 cents, today 10 cents will be added, and tomorrow another 15 cents to the price of the staple. This is the most rapid advance that local wholesalers have ever had to cope with and they are far from satisfied with the prices the refiners are forcing upon them.

The figures for November 12, 1914, show that the wholesale price of beet granulated was only $5.60, with cane and berry bringing $5.80 a hundred. Figures for 1913 were even lower, beet granulated selling for $5 and cane and berry being offered to buyers at $5.20. It is thus seen that the price of sugar today is approximately $1 more a hundred than it was a year ago.

Heavy export orders from England and France have been given as reasons by the sugar trust for the abnormally high prices prevalent. Upon examination, however, it is found that the foreign demand is but a negligible factor in the situation, as the quantity of sugar that has been sent to England during the past three months was so small as to have no appreciable effect on the market in the United States.

The Cuban crop is enormous this year and when it once begins to move, which will be in about a month, prices of the commodity will take as quick a tumble as they are sky-rocketing now. No matter how firm a grip the trust has on the market at present, it will be unable to hold up prices with the new crop on hand, the experts declare. Local jobbers expect the market in Los Angeles to break downward inside of four weeks, but it may be the first of the new year before the reaction sets in.

GETS YEAR IN JAIL.

Old Englishman Convicted of Destroying Mail Matter Must Also Pay a Stiff Fine for it.

Edward Holt, an English derelict, convicted of destroying mail matter and sending improper letters through the mails, was sentenced yesterday by United States District Judge Van Fleet to one year in the County Jail and to pay a fine of $500.

In passing sentence the court told Holt that, in his opinion, he was a moral pervert and hardly responsible for his acts. Holt insisted that he had sent the letter complained of to C. White Mortimer, the British Vice-Consul, because Mr. Mortimer had refused to assist him. Holt told a rambling story about being doped in the Kings County Jail (Washington) and at Fairbanks, Alaska, but the court said that had nothing to do with the case. It is probable that an effort will be made to have Holt sent to Patton. He asked the court to see to it after his release from the County Jail that he be deported to England, but as he has been in the country twenty-six years this cannot be done. He claims to have been a blacksmith at Birmingham.

MOVEMENTS IN SOCIETY.

THE ballroom of the Alexandria will tonight be a blaze of light and animation, for the Wilshire Emergency Club is giving its annual charity ball and card party in the interests of sweet charity!

One of the most enjoyable and worthy causes for philanthropically-inclined men and women of Los Angeles is the maintenance of its own unfortunates, hence this entertainment.

There is to be a midnight buffet supper, with its attendant high-class cabaret, in addition to dancing and cards. Mrs. Ira Sidney Chapman, president of this club, with the co-operation of Mrs. Gustave William Saurret and Mrs. John W. Summerfield, who head the committee working so arduously in procuring funds for the alleviation of needy families, have in the personnel of patrons and patronesses this splendid list:

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. David Beidler, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Blinn, Mr. and Mrs. G. Alexander Bobrick, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brain, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, Mr. and Mrs. P. At the Athletic Club.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the week, though most informal, was given yesterday at the Los Angeles Athletic Club by Mrs. Owen Humphreys Churchill and her daughter, Mrs. D. H. McCartney, in compliment to Mrs. William G. Wilson of New York, who is their house guest, and for Mrs. William D. Stephens, wife of the Congressman. The board, perfectly appointed, was done in pale yellow, with a veritable bed of yellow blossoms nodding their heads from a base of maidenhair. The party occupied boxes at the Orpheum later.

This is but one of several delightfully-anticipated society functions the ladies are to contribute for the early autumn.

For Mrs. Ryan.

Mrs. Charles Martin O'Leary of No. 3580 Wilshire boulevard is entertaining today in honor of Mrs. Estelle Johnson Ryan, whose marriage to Lieut. Hugh Brown, U.S.N., is soon to be a fashionable society event. Mrs. O'Leary's compliment to the pretty bride-elect will take the form of a handsomely-appointed luncheon, with covers for Mrs. Benjamin Johnson, Mrs. Titian Coffey, Miss Florence Avery, Mrs. Alexander J. Mitchell, Mrs. Shelly H. Tolhurst, Mrs. Herman Janss, Mrs. Thomas C. Ridgeway, Mrs. Hulett C. Merritt, Jr., of Pasadena, Mrs. Bri Kelly, Mrs. Reginald Lloyd Jones, the honored guest, and hostess.

Yesterday's Interesting Event.

Former schoolmates of Mrs. Charles Taylor took possession of her pretty home, No. 3534 Figueroa street, yesterday afternoon, and extended to the popular and surprised hostess a pretty shower. The girls who perpetrated the enjoyable affair numbered friends who had attended Cumnock and Hollywood High School, consisting of Misses Pauline Long, Pearl Ryssen, Valentine Munn, Vera Minert, Alma Taylor, Charmion Waite, Betty Rogers, Emily Shuford, Dora Shriver, Vera McDonald, Madeline Alexander, Marie Braniger and Miriam Spencer.

A Pre-nuptial Delight.

The spirit of music hovered over a pre-nuptial courtesy of rare delight and harmonized the expression of tender congratulation and regret at parting from a coterie of talented songbirds and prominent society matrons, Wednesday afternoon, in a shower at the home of Mrs. Roth Hamilton, No. 671 Ardmore street, to Miss Mildred Ashley, who is to be a bride of tomorrow.

Mme. Jennie Kempton, one of the beloved leaders of Southern California's music colony, presided over the affair, with her daughter, Mrs. Hamilton receiving.

The courtesy was graced by the Mmes. T. E. Rank, Henry Wiltse, William Elwell, E. G. Loeb, Clyde Martin, E. P. Howard, Robert Brown, John Buckles, E. G. Voigt and Margaret West; the Misses Lillian Hamilton, Margaret Harvey, Phoebe Harvey, Helen Skilling, Emma Marmon and Miss Whitcomb and Messrs. Byron Gay, the groom-elect, and Horace Brown.

The Ashley-Gay wedding will be solemnized with a quiet ceremony tomorrow, attended only by intimate friends. After a honeymoon north, probably of a month, the couple return here for a short stay before leaving for New York, where they will make their home.

Honoring Rt. Rev. Glass.

At their palatial South Figueroa-street home, Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Connell entertained dinner guests last night, who were bidden to meet Rt. Rev. Joseph S. Glass, Bishop of the Salt Lake Diocese. Covers were marked for Capt. and Mrs. Randolph Huntington Miner, Mrs. Hugh Livingston Macneil, Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun Drake, Mrs. Longstreet, Alfred Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Melveny, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Hicks, Mrs. John G. Mossin, James Slauson and Frank Shaw. A floral mound of American Beauties graced the resplendent board which scintillated with its crystal and rich appointments.

The E. J. Marshalls are having the Drake-Macneil bridal party in its entirety out at their Chino country place for the week-end.

Doings at San Diego.

A large number of the members of the Beta Phi Sorority of the University of Southern California are spending the week in San Diego, some visiting the exposition and others attending the Southern California Teachers' Institute now in session down on the peninsula. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Frank Ewing McCreary and Miss Carolyn Hidden of San Diego, both members of the Beta Phi, entertained for the sorority and its friends in the blue reception room of the Southern California Counties' Building, a short programme of readings and music being rendered.

Those who went south numbered Mrs. H. E. Burmeister, patroness; Mrs. Walter Ellis and the Misses McConkle, Julia McConkle, Ruth Burdick Burmeister, Laura Burmeister, Theresa Reeve, Lily Kincaid, Martha Dresslar, Elaine Anderson, Agnes Barnhart, Lenore Ong, Gertrude Mallory, Hazel Fay, Dorothy Betts, Grace Hodgsett and Ethel Harris.

Los Angeles Student Honored.

Her many friends will learn with gratification of the signal honor which has come to a daughter of Los Angeles, Miss Hazel H. Havermale, who is a senior at the University of California, this clever girl having been appointed editor of Berkeley's monthly periodical, The Occident.

Miss Havermale's brother and mother are also enrolled at the University, the former being also a member of the senior class and the latter taking special research work.

Here from Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Loomis of No. 625 East Washington street are entertaining as their house guest Mrs. Charles H. Rose, wife of the Chief of Police of Honolulu. The visitor has been to both expositions and is being introduced to California's attractions by numerous motor trips. In addition she is receiving many social courtesies, Mayor and Mrs. Sebastian having entertained on Wednesday evening in her honor. She is to remain for at least another week.

Much Complimented.

Many entertainments have been planned in honor of Mrs. Rata A. Mills of Bradford, Pa., Grand Matron of the General Grand Chapter, O.E.S., who is a valued house guest of Mrs. S. J. Elsensohn of No. 350 South Manhattan Place. Mrs. R. L. Hazen made her the motif for a very delightful affair on Saturday evening, occuring at her home on Oxford, and Dr. and Mrs. Chambers were dinner hosts Sunday evening in her honor. On the afternoon of Monday Mrs. Rosa J. Burns gave a luncheon for the distinguished visitor, Mrs. Elsensohn presiding over a dinner of handsome appointments that evening. Mrs. Mills is leaving Monday for San Francisco, where she will sail Tuesday for Honolulu.

For a Visitor.

In compliment to Mrs. F. A. Hecht and her daughter, Mrs. Anna H. Raiston of Denver, Mrs. Minnie H. Laws entertained at dinner Monday evening at her home on Bonnie Brae, No. 1610. The honorees left the following morning for the San Francisco Exposition, stopping en route to visit Mrs. Law's sister, Mrs. Benjamin Dalvet, on her ranch near San Jose.

A Bride-to-be Showered.

A crystal and china shower was the pretty pre-nuptial tribute Mrs. John W. Summerfield extended on the afternoon of Wednesday, to Miss Stella M. Gonzales, bride-elect of Jerome Thomas Connor, whose marriage day is set for Wednesday, the 17th inst. A pink and white motif dominated throughout the rooms of the hostess' home, No. 1504 Van Ness avenue, a profusion of Enchantress carnations and tulle being arranged in artistry, while the tea table was exquisite in wedding bells suspended from satin-wrapped tripods. Presiding over the samovar was Mrs. Jennie Molle, and assisting were Miss Josephine Williams, Mrs. Andrew W. Francisco, Miss Myrtle Gonzalez, Mrs. Manuel Gonzales, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. Ellis Zemansky, Mrs. Richard A. Dannigan, Mrs. Thomas White and Mrs. H. L. Zuckerman.

A musical programme gave added enjoyment to the tea, which was attended by over a hundred guests.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

At 4 o'clock today in her attractive studio on the eighth floor of the Y.W.C.A. Building, Miss Ida M. Leonard is giving the second in a series of twenty Friday afternoon reading hours for lovers of good literature. George Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion" will form the topic for today, the talk to occupy the hour between 4 and 5.

Miss Leonard is a versatile interpreter of the drama, and already she has collected around her for this delightful series a coterie of literatti—men and women—who are finding in her a worthy guide to choice literature's gems.

For the last two November afternoons Miss Leonard has chosen Arthur Schnitzler's "The Lonely Way" and "The King of the Dark Chamber" by Rabindranath Tagore, to be given the 19th and 26th respectively.

The Los Angeles Travel Club class in parliamentary law, conducted by Mrs. I. W. Gleason, the district federation chairman of parliamentary law, will meet at 2 o'clock today in room 302, Trinity Auditorium. Non-members who desire to take advantage of these lessons may join the class by paying 25 cents per lesson. The literature section is also scheduled for the same time.

Shakespeare Class Increasing.

Much interest was centered about the open meeting of the Mazie Fullman Garrett Shakespeare class, which was held last Tuesday. More than fifty women were present, and the afternoon proved to be thoroughly enjoyable and entertaining. A splendid programme presenting a resume of the play "Antony and Cleopatra" displayed the work which had been accomplished under Mrs. Garrett's instruction. A group of Shakespearean songs was delightfully rendered by Miss Eva Shrader, and Mrs. Ross T. Hickcox, a reader of rare charm and personality, interpreted with fine effect several scenes from the play. Tea was served at the conclusion of the programme. The next regular meeting of the class will be held at the home of Mrs. Garrett, No. 1732 Garfield place, Hollywood, on Tuesday, the 16th inst., at 2:30 o'clock. Act I of "Julius Caesar" will be studied. All women interested in the study of Shakespeare are invited.

At the Woman's Civic Club.

Describing the climate as ideal, the land as very fertile and the government as excellent, James LeNoir, Cuban Vice-Consul, in his lecture on the "Government of Cuba" before the Business Woman's Civic Club last Monday, drew a vivid picture of the beauties of the Pearl of the Antilles with her cocoanut and orange groves, and coffee, sugar and tobacco plantations. In speaking of the government he said that after the war of independence the Constitution was patterned very closely after that of the United States with a President elected for four years, Senators and Representatives from the provinces, governors of the provinces, mayors of the cities, etc., much as we have them here, but with the addition to the President's Cabinet of a Secretary of Sanitation, which had proven such a fine thing for the country, reducing the death rate materially and ridding the island of the scourges of yellow fever, smallpox and cholera that formerly flourished there periodically. They have a very small army for coast defense and a mounted police for the rural districts. The women of Cuba take no part in politics, being confined very closely to the home and never appearing on the street unescorted even in the daytime.

NAME CHARTER ELECTION DATE.

VOTERS TO DECIDE QUESTION NEXT APRIL.

Board of Freeholders Discovers that no Way is Open to Submit Their Work for the Approval of the People with any General or State Balloting.

The fourth Tuesday in April, 1916, was tentatively set as the date for a special election on the proposed charter by the Board of Freeholders last night. Reconsideration of this decision may come at the next meeting, however, if the law committee of the board finds any legal objection to the date.

Kinks in the election laws of the city which have made it impossible for the city to join with the county and State in elections, were removed last night in considering the elections section for the proposed charter. This section will make the time limit for registration of voters the same as the county requirements of thirty days. Another change will permit the Council to delegate to the County Supervisors the duty of canvassing the vote.

In adopting a section governing the Municipal Art Commission, the freeholders decided that this commission shall be organized the same as the other commissions provided for in the charter. In general, the duties, and powers of the Art Commission are the same as at present, excepting in the proposed charter, the Art Commission will have jurisdiction over buildings and structures in public parks.

City Attorney Stephens has answered numerous questions relative to special and regular elections with reference to the proposed charter, the initiative repeal of the two-platoon fire ordinance and the several bond propositions approved by the Council for submission to the voters of the city. In the opinion of the City Attorney, as addressed to the Board of Freeholders and the Council, the only way in which the proposed charter can be submitted to the people is through a special election.

Considerable discussion arose over the City Attorney's report, and the board also received a report from Secretary Simons stating that their work must be finished December 4 instead of December 8, as stated by the City Attorney.

The City Attorney's opinion relative to the two-platoon repeal election is that it is incumbent upon the Council to submit this question not later than the next general election. The Council may submit the question at a special election and, as the petition is certified regularly, the Council must submit the question at any special election called for any other purpose.

With reference to the proposed charter the City Attorney says that the Board of Freeholders is required by law to submit its completed labors to the Council not later than December 8, 1915. The Board of Freeholders must set the date for the election when the charter is submitted, and, in calling a special election, the date must be at least sixty days after the proposed charter is published and publication must be completed by December 23. Because of the difference in city and county registration periods, it is impossible to combine a city and State election, the attorney says, and this precludes submission of the charter at the general State election in 1916. Moreover, the next regular city election will take place after the Legislature, which must consider the charter, if approved, has adjourned. Therefore, City Attorney Stephens says, the only way in which the charter may be submitted is by a special election.

Regarding the proposed bond questions the City Attorney says these may be submitted at any special charter or initiative election, provided the time set is in accord with the laws governing all the proposals voted upon.

BALKS AT STOMACH PUMP.

Declaring She Had Taken Three Tablets of Bichloride of Mercury Woman Refuses Medical Aid.

Following a quarrel with her husband, Mrs. Gertrude Lee, 22 years old, swallowed three bichloride of mercury tablets early last night. Five hours later her mother summoned the police ambulance and she was taken to the Receiving Hospital. When informed that her stomach should be pumped out the young woman refused to permit Assistant Surgeon Johnson to apply it.

"With three tablets of mercury in your stomach you may die," the surgeon warned, and suggested she go to a hospital for treatment. A private physician. "I would of doing such a thing," "I am going to the fair tomorrow."

Mrs. Lee is living apart from her husband, who called upon her Monday afternoon in her apartments, No. 1523 Winfield street. They argued and when he went away Mrs. Lee took the tablets.

Dr. Johnson says if Mrs. Lee's statement is true serious results may obtain.

How Ozone is Produced.

[Cleveland Plain Dealer.]

What is termed in chemistry "allotrope" of oxygen, though it consists of pure oxygen it possesses different properties, says the Engineering.

It is produced in nature chiefly by the evaporation of water (H2O), and the decomposition of vegetable matter, but the principal source is from electric discharges.

Every one has noticed the freshness of the air which follows a thunderstorm, but it is not generally known that this is due to the ozone generated by the lightning flashes. And when ozone is produced artificially it is usually done electrically on account of the simplicity, durability and cheapness of the apparatus as compared with the apparatus required for chemical processes.

Big Hit.

DOG SHOW IS QUITE NOISY.

In Other Words, a Howling Success.

"Kuma" is the Center of Attraction.

Results of the Judging to Date.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The eighth annual dog show of the Ladies' Kennel Association of Southern California opened at No. 239 South Broadway yesterday with a noise like—er, well, a noise like a dog show or a cabaret.

It is really a question whether 340 dogs barking at the same time can make more racket than a company of cabaret entertainers in perfect physical condition.

A QESTION.

Speaking from the standpoint of a person with lop ears which flare out from the head like a couple of abalone shells and soak up the sound from a wide radius, we would say that it is about a stand-off between the dog show and the cabaret when it comes to a question of sheer noise. However, in the matter of mere melody we are compelled to give the dogs an edge.

One can but wonder why some of our well known cafe and grill proprietors do not sometimes give the hired help a few days off and stage a dog show in the dining-room, benching it in the space usually reserved for the entertainers. Not only would this be novel, but a pleasing innovation.

SIMPLE.

Instead of throwing money on the platform, the guests would simply toss up a ham sandwich now and then, or a slab of roast beef. Either of these would be certain to elicit an encore.

The show yesterday was saddened by a peculiar mistake. Near the front of the room there is a long table that does not look unlike a bar. On it are displayed dog biscuits of various brands, sizes, shapes and colors. A reporter from an afternoon newspaper happened into the show. Immediately he spotted this table covered with the best that the market affords for dogs.

SAD MISTAKE.

"Hey, boy's, pipe this," he said, excitedly, as he grabbed a dog biscuit. "Sure as I am alive and hungry here is a free lunch. We'll eat all we can and then put some in our pockets."

But his dreams of sudden food were quickly shattered

"Say, there, you spit that out," demanded the watchful guardian of the canine culinary department. "That's for dogs only. No reporters allowed in the dining-room."

THE PURPOSE.

The Ladies' Kennel Association is an organization for the perpetuation of the dog. It is composed of public-spirited women who are determined that the dog shall be preserved to future generations. The work of the association will meet with widespread approval, the fear having been quite general that the dog might become extinct. Nothing will be left undone for its protection. Hereafter, anybody caught shooting a dog outside of the regular season will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Also, in the open season, any sportsman exceeding the limit will be dealt with severely. To acquaint all with the game regulations, the following limits are printed:

Bloodhounds, St. Bernards and Great Danes, one each per season.

Greyhounds, two per season.

Poodle dogs, five per day. (Shooting permitted on Broadway every day except Sunday.)

Bulldogs, one per night.

Pekingese spaniels, twenty-five per day.

Chihuahuas, thirty-five per day. (Use of rat traps for catching them barred, as is also the use of tanglefoot fly paper.)

Mexican hairless may be shot in same quantity as rabbits.

Mrs. Peggy Stone and "Kuma."

For combined simplicity and beauty, the exhibit wherein is contained Kuma is unequalled in the show. Kuma, a present to Mrs. Peggy Stone by the Emperor of Japan, is shown in a color scheme of black and white. The bench itself is covered and draped with black silk, with a rope of white ribbon running around the top. Kuma reposes on a silk polka dot cushion inside an open-faced basket of rare design. There is a background of greenery, while surmounting the exclusive premises is an immense spreading bouquet of huge carnations. Kuma is also surrounded by still other luxuries, such as additional pillows done in black and white.

POLO MATCH FOR TROPHY.

Los Angeles and Pasadena to Meet.

Reds Wallop Whites in a Practice.

Series Promises to be One of Interest.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

The Los Angeles and Pasadena polo teams will commence an exciting contest for a very special cup at the Midwick Country Club on Saturday. There will be three matches on three consecutive Saturdays and the team winning two out of three adds a star to its diadem.

A distinguished visitor will act as referee in the person of L. B. Harrison of the Cincinnati Polo Club.

THE TEAMS.

The Pasadena team will be captained by Hugh Drury, playing back. Dr. Mallaby plays No. 1, J. B. Miller No. 2, and Robert Neustadt No. 3.

The Los Angeles team will be captained by Carleton Burke, back, supported by Harold Cook, No. 1, Harry Weiss No. 2 and Reggie Weiss No. 3.

The series will be the occasion of social rejoicings at the Midwick Country Club, numerous dinner parties to follow each match.

The Red and White teams of the Midwick played yesterday, the Red winning by 8½ goals to 2½.

EXTRA MEN.

They had five men a side, the Reds including Hugh Drury, J. B. Miller, Robert Neustadt, Harold Cook and Rufus Spalding. And the Whites Carleton Burke, Lloyd Macy, Reggie Weiss, Harry Weiss and Dr. Mallaby.

After ten days' rest, they were all like giants refreshed and deserved a much larger audience for their prowess. But they had not given much notice of their intentions and only a small gallery of enthusiasts were on the scene.

Neustadt's new little mare is fast becoming a skillful player, and will shortly be christened according to her skill. She is a granddaughter of Salvatore and expected to live up to the traditions of her family.

A COMER.

And Lloyd Macy is in somewhat the same boat. A new polo player, whose reputation is in the making. He looks the part and they have great hopes for him. Harold Cook, also a debutante in the first flush of his maiden season, has almost settled down into a veteran already, a fine natural player who is expected to take high rank in the game at no distant date.

There will be contingents from both Riverside and Santa Monica, to witness the coming series, when positively the only smart place to be on Saturday afternoons will be the grand stand on the Midwick polo field.

A Trip.

LINCOLN WILL MAKE A VISIT.

TO MEET SANTA BARBARA TOMORROW.

Teams Have Met and Vanquished Santa Barbara Before, but Not as Early in Season—Kinney Lost Little Quarter—Hester Has Bad Shoulder.

Preliminary arrangements have been made for a football fracas between Lincoln and Santa Barbara schools, tomorrow afternoon at Athletic Park. The Rallsplitter players have been practicing this evening in machines for the game of conquest.

Previous aggregations have met once this season and Lincoln came out victor by 14 to 4. But the Santa Barbara boys have been working hard and Coaches Foley and Davis do not expect too easy a victory.

Captain Kinney of the Lincoln is a great little general, probably the best pilot in his league, while Hester makes a great little half. Lincoln was beaten by Poly by one of the gamest fights ever seen.

The winning men will make the trip: Adcock, Bell, Bush, Cuyler, Hester, Judah, Toolen, W. Isenhouer, Evans, White, Von Posch, Joerg, Oliver (C.) Kinney, Wood, Pierce, Van Dlyke, H. Isenhouer, Phillips, Alexander and Larson. Manager Hester will also go. He has been playing center but suffered a broken shoulder in the Poly game, and is out for the season.

PREXY HUMPHRIES IS IN NEW YORK.

WILL HURRY HOME TO ATTEND TO PRESS OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—William Humphries, president of the Olympic Club of San Francisco, is in town. He intends to stay only a day or two longer then he is going to rush back home as he has a lot of business to attend to out there. Humphries is one of the best known supporters of amateur sport in the world. He is so well thought of among the simon pures that they have figuratively moved heaven and earth this year to obtain his consent to run for the presidency of the Amateur Athletic Union, but he absolutely declines to become a candidate. He said tonight: "I think inside of two years that legislation will be passed which will permit of decision bouts again."

NEBRASKA IS ASKED HERE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Nov. 11.—Chancellor Samuel Avery of the University of Nebraska, tonight received a telegram from Pasadena, Cal., inviting him to permit the Nebraska football team to go to Pasadena to meet a football eleven of the Pacific Coast for a game on New Year's Day. The University of Nebraska was suggested as the Pacific Coast team. The telegram was sent by C. R. Erwin, president of the Southern California University of Nebraska Club, according to the telegram. Chancellor Avery did not indicate what action would be taken. If the team goes to make the trip, it will be necessary for the football management to secure, not only the consent of the university authorities but the Missouri Valley...

OPPOSE SPRING TRAINING HERE.

MAIER AND JAWN POWERS LEAD OPPOSITION.

Owner of the Angels Says the Fans are Sick and Tired of Fall Baseball and that the Exhibition Games Simply Prejudice Them Against Coast Baseball.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—It is hardly likely the Coast League will be formally convened for its annual session before Saturday morning. So long as the minor leaguers remain, the Coast delegation is in duty bound to play the part of host, which does away with the possibility of a meeting in real earnest.

There is no question but that the Coasters once they are gathered will discuss the question of allowing major leaguers to play either in the spring as well as in exhibition games in the fall.

Johnny Powers and Eddie Maier, representing the southern teams, are strictly opposed to permitting the big leaguers to come out here.

"The Vernon club takes its turn in using the Los Angeles ball field for a training camp in 1916," declared Maier, "and I for one am willing to go on record as stating that the gates will be locked. We don't want any exhibition games and prefer to keep our ball players as far away from the general public as can be done until our season is ready to open."

Powers avers that he is of the opinion the fans are sick and tired of fall baseball such as is given through the medium of exhibition games.

"When our season is finished," he declared, "let's have an end to baseball. No matter what any other owner does, I believe it would be wise to shut down our plants and wait for the spring to come to hand. I would like to see all such exhibitions barred."

CORONADO TEAM WANTS A GAME.

IS WILLING TO PAY OWN EXPENSES TO LOS ANGELES.

The Coronado High School football team has won the Class B county conference cup of San Diego county and would like to play any high school in Los Angeles on Thanksgiving Day.

They are willing to pay their own expenses and take gate receipts up to that amount, the surplus going to the home team.

The team weighs but 145 pounds per man but is fast and clever. It has walked over much heavier aggregations.

BOYS ENJOY BASKETBALL.

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—There is wailing, and some blushes among feminine pupils of the Lynn Classical High School. As to the boys, they refuse to be interviewed.

Miss Agnes C. McDonald, physical director of the Classical High, read the riot act to the girls this afternoon. She said: "In the future, girls, you will not be allowed on the gymnasium floor in silk stockings. Black silk stockings are bad enough, but when the girls come in yellow, scarlet and pink silk stockings, that is going beyond the bounds of propriety. Hereafter only plain black lisle stockings will be allowed in the gymnasium."

She then told the girls she had noticed at the basketball game lately when the boys of the school were allowed to be present, the attendance had been swelling each time. She could not account for this she said, until she noticed that some of the girls were wearing showy silk hosiery.

BEARS WANT REAL COACH.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—Chagrined by the stinging defeat administered by the University of Washington American football team in the big annual game last week, the University of California has determined to secure the services of the best eastern coach that can be had. A desperate effort will be made to whip a presentable squad into shape for an American game next year.

Just before leaving this morning for Seattle with the team, Graduate Manager John A. Stroud stated that a new man would be actively sought for as soon as the present season is concluded. "The best in the country is not too good for us," Stroud said. "California will be heard from in American football next year, and you can bank on that."

BENEFIT SWIMMING MEET AT BIMINI.

L.A.A.C. EXPERTS AND OTHER STARS WILL PULL OFF STUNTS.

At Bimini Baths this evening will occur a swimming meet for the benefit of four-year-old Cameron C. Coffey. One of the features will be the presence of the L.A.A.C. diving girls headed by Aileen Allen.

Vance Veith, the swimming instructor, will also display several of his youngest pupils, Miss C. Janes, 6 years old, and the aforesaid Cameron Coffey. The Bimini and L.A.A.C. teams; will also pull off a relay.

Cliff Bowes will be there with his high diving as will Willie Williams, national diving champion. Billy Logg will conclude the evening with a fire dive.

PAPPAS AND AJAX TO WRESTLE BOUT.

EVENT WILL TAKE PLACE AT WESTERN ATHLETIC CLUB WEDNESDAY.

The next wrestling bout between Gus Pappas of Chicago and Tony Ajax, to be staged next Wednesday night at the Western Athletic Club, is attracting much notice.

Each of the participants is confident that he will be the man to get the two falls out of three and get the purse. Good attendance is expected.

BERKELEY HOPES TO DO BETTER.

BEARS ARE ON WAY TO SEATTLE TO PLAY WASHINGTON.

Return Game Promises to be Peppy—With Several Exceptions Same Team will Play the Northerners—No Rooters are Going Along.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—Confident they will make a better showing than they did in last Saturday's game, the University of California football team departed today for Seattle, where on Saturday the second contest of the season with the University of Washington squad is to take place. With one or two exceptions, California will face Washington with the same men defeated 72 to 0 on California Field last week.

Twenty-one men with the coaches and the graduate manager will make the northern trip. No rooters will accompany the team. Coach Jimmie Schaeffer, whose resignation was announced yesterday, will go with the players, as he has agreed to remain as coach until the end of the season.

Alumni of California in the Northwest are planning to occupy a special section of the bleachers at Saturday's game.

OPERATION FATAL FOR BUCKNELL MAN.

APPENDICITIS BRINGS DEATH TO SUBSTITUTE FOOTBALL PLAYER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LEWISBURG (Pa.) Nov. 11.—Elmer S. Pettit, substitute end on the Bucknell University football team, died today after an operation for appendicitis which was performed Tuesday. Football is in no way regarded as responsible for his death as Pettit had not been injured this season and had not been in scrimmage practice for about two weeks.

HARRY BURNS GETS AN OFFER.

Harry Burns is in receipt of a telegram from Tommy Burns in New Orleans offering him a similar position in that town to the one which he held under Tom McCarey.

Harry did not quite understand the terms offered and has wired what terms he will accept. He is engaged in moving pictures here and would have to get a pretty good offer to take him away.

FAST GAME PROMISED WHEN BRAVES MEET U.S.C. FROSH.

ONE of the most interesting football games to be seen in Southern California this season is to be played on Bovard Field this afternoon when the Sherman Indians meet the U. S. C. freshmen.

The Frosh will carry several varsity men on the line-up and the team will be one of the fastest combinations gathered together this year in the State. Mallette, star of the U. S. C. backfield in the Oregon game, and Curry, the sensational freshman tackle, who loomed up wonderfully against the Oregonians, will be among those present when the opening whistle blows.

Marshall, formerly of Long Beach High, "Chick" Fox of San Diego and Ramsyer are also men of varsity caliber who are to be seen on the Frosh line-up this afternoon against Lieut. Wier's braves.

The Indians will get their chance this afternoon against a team in their own weight class. In the games this season the Indians have played against horrible odds. Outweighed, smothered by beef and long experience, the Braves have had their shifty plays spoiled in the making and have been unable to drive scores through the heavy lines of their opponents, although they did defeat the Los Angeles Athletic Club eleven in their second contest.

Against the U. S. C. freshmen, the Sherman Indians will be pitted against experienced players, but they will not be playing out of their class.

Stanford Team Suffers from a Tendency to Allow Opponents to Run up Several Scores Before Waking Up—Saints Weaker on Offense but Have a Wonderful Defense.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 10.—On the eve of the big game between the Rugby fifteens of Stanford University and Santa Clara University, Rugby experts about the Bay district are still at odds concerning the outcome of the contest, although the large number lean to the side of the Cardinal.

FINE OFFENSIVE.

The money staked on Stanford bases its safety on a more efficient scoring machine, upon a stronger offensive. In addition to this it is claimed that more Rugby science, a better knowledge of the game, is displayed on the turf at Stanford than at the Mission school.

Santa Clara rooters hope for victory because they have a better defensive aggregation and because they will be represented by a bunch of boys who put up the single word "fight" as their motto.

FORWARDS EVEN.

In comparing the two teams it seems that the greatest disparity as to excellence appears between the two backfields and that the packs are nearly balanced.

The Stanford backs start with the natural talent of more speed and have developed more finished teamwork in the open. They are able to get away with the ball in shorter order and to keep the ball in their own ranks better while it hurries toward the enemy goal. In the many cases of emergency that appear in a Rugby game, the Cardinals get away with more and better executed clever Rugby plays.

THE HEROES.

Individual stars, also, appear in greater numbers in the Cardinal backfield; more speed, more slippery swerves and dodges are exhibited to advance the ball and to edify the bleachers.

In Santa Clara, however, they will meet a line of defense not only harder to pierce than any they have found this fall, but also, and more important to the Cards because of their seeming weakness at defense, a bunch of plungers who will tax their defensive powers to the utmost.

Realising their weakness here, the Cardinals are applying the advice of the All-Blacks, who said, "The best defense is offensive play."

THEIR PLAN.

Therefore, the Stanfordites will trust their defense to their ability to stop rushes at their inception, to their ability to dart forward and nail the first man of a passing rush in his very tracks before he can pass. To do this it will be necessary for them to exhibit a quality they have not displayed in very great amounts this fall, that is the quality of determined and speedy resistance, known at Santa Clara as "fight."

The reasons for the greater development of this quality at Santa Clara are two: their training for the past few years, and the keen fight for places that has resulted at the Mission school this fall. Concerning the first reason, Santa Clara is noted throughout California for its hard game.

COMPETITION.

The second is the result of the equal ability of a large number of contestants for varsity positions necessitating a man's very utmost for every minute he is on the field.

At Stanford the very opposite has been true this season. The second string men have scarcely had a chance with the varsity until the last few days. The consequence has been that the varsity did not need to fight so it hasn't exerted itself greatly. But this is no fault in itself, of course. The fault lies in the fact that the first line men have lost the habit of playing hard.

ASLEEP.

Consequently it takes a series of opposition scores to wake them up to action. If they become impressed with the fact that the game is going to begin with the first whistle, they will probably win. If they wait for Santa Clara to prove to them that action is necessary, they will probably find that the score against them is too big to cover, by the time they wake up.

The Stanford forwards have developed an ability this year that will stand them in good stead against their opponents. This is their ability to initiate and carry through without backfield assistance, fast passing rushes. Whether Santa Clara opposes this with the same stuff is doubtful, but it is sure she is going to make it hard for the Cards to walk away with it.

ON LINEOUTS.

In the lineouts the Catholics will not have to do much excelling to beat the Card forwards at feeding the back field, but they will have to look out for quick starting forward rushes through their line. At heeling out from the scrum also, the Missionites may have an advantage but here again they will have to look out for interception by fast breakaways. In the loose it is probably a toss-up. At artistic work with the toe the Stanford men probably have a shade but in dash and fight they will again find themselves at a disadvantage.

THE SCORES.

The scores of the games played this season bring out the same things that observation at the side of the turf returns: A stronger Stanford offensive, a stronger Santa Clara defensive and a tendency on the part of the Cardinals to take it easy when possible.

The schedules with their results follow:

September 11—Stanford, 0; Olympics, 0.

September 18—Stanford, 31; Barbarians, 6.

September 25—Stanford, 16; Titans, 6.

October 2—Stanford, 43; Olympics, 13.

October 9—Stanford, 80; Barbarians, 3.

October 16—Stanford, 49; Olympics, 8.

October 23—Stanford, 38; Palo Alto, 13.

November 6—Stanford, 29; Olympics, 11.

Totals: Stanford, 313; Opponents, 53.

September 13—Santa Clara, 13; Palo Alto, 0.

September 19—Santa Clara, 65; Barbarians, 0.

September 26—Santa Clara, 9; Olympics, 3.

October 3—Santa Clara, 22; Palo Alto, 5.

October 10—Santa Clara, 16; Olympics, 6.

October 17—Santa Clara, 41; Titans, 0.

October 31—Santa Clara, 11; Olympics, 8.

Totals: Santa Clara, 301; Opponents, 22.

Tries—Against Stanford, 13; against Santa Clara, 4.

Taking the games with the Olympic Club as a basis of comparison, we find that in the early part of the season, the Cards ran up enormous scores on the clubmen while the Missionites did not. The Santa Clarans, however, managed to hold the clubmen down a little tighter than did the Cardinals. Later in the season the clubmen became stronger and the scoring against them lessened, but again the Cards have very much the best of it. Here, too, we find that the Missionite defense is somewhat stronger. These games are probably more conclusive tests than any played by the teams, since both Cards and Missionites did their best work against the Olympics, the best club team in the north.

SHOW LITTLE.

The results of the games with the other teams show little as to the relative strengths of the two collegiate aggregations for the reasons that the club teams varied in strength and that they were not taken seriously by the collegians.

However, Stanford's game against the Palo Alto Athletic Club shows one thing plainly and that is the very strong tendency of the Cardinals to play only as hard as necessary and not one whit harder. The score of eighteen points run up by the clubmen does not mean that the Palo Alto men are stronger than the Olympics, but merely that the varsity followed its all too habitual course of taking it easy.

BOWLING NOTES.

Elmer Darrow and L. N. Taylor, better known as "Cy," certainly gave the fans a treat on the Majestic alleys last night. The match was to have been a five series affair, three series to win. Taylor took three of the first four, winning the match in one of the classiest ten-pin exhibitions seen in Los Angeles for a long time. Taylor had 208 for high game and 590 7-15 average.

Darrow's high game 227 and 197 1-3 average. Scores follow:

PAUL PRITCHARD WILL RUN AGAIN.

Paul Pritchard, the ringtailed Tiger two-miler of several years, will be on the track for Occidental next spring. He did not compete last year because of heart trouble.

His best time is 9m. 57 3-5s., and if he runs as he did in the days of old Oxy will be sure of at least one first in every meet.

Pre-game Remarks.

HUNS AND QUAKERS TO MEET AT HADLEY FIELD.

The Pomona Team Dissected and Explained—Game Promises to be a Real Battle—Whittier Outweighs the Huns but not Much—The Probable Line-up for Saturday's Game.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CLAREMONT, Nov. 11.—Hadley Field will be the scene Saturday of one of the biggest football games of the present season when the Huns invade Whittier to tackle the Quakers in their annual gridiron contest. According to all dope, the teams are evenly matched in almost every respect, and a great battle should result.

HARD WORK.

The Huns held their final hard scrimmage before the big game tonight, when they tackled first the scrubs and then the freshmen in a work-out lasting more than an hour. This practice was held behind closed gates, but according to information which has leaked out from the inside, the Sage Hen varsity showed up in fine style.

Coach Stanton has about decided upon the men whom he will use in Saturday's combat. Of course, none of the Sage Hen warriors know for certain whether they will start the game or not, for the coach never announces his line-up until just before the game begins, but it is thought that the Huns will line up just about as they did tonight for the final scrimmage.

SLAMMERS.

Jesson and Nisbit will undoubtedly start the game in the two half-back berths, and in these men the Huns have two consistent ground gainers. Jesson has had the advantage of playing for two years under Coach Stanton's system, and is an experienced man. For Nisbit, this will be the first big game of his college career. Nisbit was a star in high school at the Rugby game, and has proven to be one of the most promising prospects that Coach Stanton has ever had to work with. His performance in Saturday's game will be watched with interest.

Green will be seen at full when the referee's whistle blows, while McFadden will undoubtedly pilot the team at quarter-back. Both of them have had a year's experience in intercollegiate football, and can be counted on to deliver the goods.

NEW ENDS.

Two new men will occupy the two wing positions. Greathouse and Sugg have been showing up in great style in all practice games, but have never been under fire in a big intercollegiate contest. If these two men can hold up their end of the game, the Huns will have a well-rounded team, for it has been the two end positions that have caused Coach Stanton the most worry this year.

Raitt and Dahlem, the two Sage Hen tackles, are on a par with any other tackles in this part of the State. Raitt is a letter man, while Dahlem is playing his first season on the varsity, but the latter played through four years of high school football, and can be relied upon to fill his position in an acceptable manner.

TOUGH GUARDS.

Cooper, right guard, is holding down the same position this year which he held on last year's championship varsity. He is better than ever this year. Shellenberger, the other guard, is the heaviest man on the team, and is a hard fighter. He is one of the strongest defensive players the Huns possess.

Waltz at center is, without a doubt, the strongest defensive player on the team. Last year he was good enough to win the almost unanimous selection for all-southern center, and this year he is playing a better game than ever before. If Waltz should happen to be laid out, the Huns themselves admit that their hopes of another championship would immediately fade.

IN CONDITION.

Coach Stanton is known as a past master in the art of conditioning his men for a football game, and he has gradually worked his varsity into the best possible shape. The Huns are known as late starters, and this year has been no exception, but their work has been constantly improving, and the Blue and White varsity should be in tip-top shape for their first big game.

In the matter of weight, the Huns will be outmatched by the Quakers by eight pounds to the man. The Whittier team average is 171 pounds, while the Pomona varsity averages but 163. In the matter of expereince, the Quakers also have it on the Huns by a small margin. However, the Huns do not mean to let a difference of a few pounds in weight stand in the way of victory, and hope to defeat the Quakers by showing more fight. The Huns are always a dangerous team for anybody to tackle, and this year's varsity is no exception.

The two teams will probably line up as follows:

POMONA.

Player, position—	Weight.	Experience.
Raitt, L.T.R.	175	1

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—The University of Michigan football team, which arrived at Mayne, a near-by suburb, today, was put through a strenuous signal drill on a local school's gridiron late in the afternoon.

Members of the squad were somewhat worn by their long railroad journey and several limped from injuries, but Coach Yost declared they would all be in shape to give a good account of themselves in the game with the University of Pennsylvania next Saturday on Franklin field.

Maulbetsch, the star back, who was injured in the game with Cornell last week, it was said will be able to start against Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Chicago's football squad is on the home stretch in the race for the championship of the conference football title this year. The University of Chicago trophy hall that has already dented the wall for the hanging of the pennant, and there are no contests in sight grabbing the prize at the University of Minnesota. There is no question at the University of Illinois about Appenzellar's ability to beat the Badgers and looking on ready to quell the beast all around. Wisconsin, being a defeated team, the real clash Saturday is billed for Minnesota. Minnesota has been beaten, but not whipped and Chicago enters the fray with a clean record. According to reports today, locally as well as from the North, the Gophers are certain to win. The odds are 8 to 5.

ILLINOIS.

URBANA (Ill.) Nov. 11.—Illinois drill for the Indiana game was a "pathless" performance tonight, the Illini rehearsing their offense against the second team with tackling and blocking barred. It looks as if Rappe will be able to get in the field Saturday his strongest team.

Applegarth was in his street clothes and Hasselman will start at guard. Applegarth is expected to be able to play against Chicago. Otherwise the Illini team seems in good form. Foster ran signals with his teammates and will more than likely be played at some moment of the Badger game. With so many bad feet, it is better to let one of the half-back would be in fair shape to stack up gridiron caper against Chicago next week.

YALE.

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Nov. 11.—Yale's schemes will be over until after the Princeton game. The coaches have decided to give the varsity players only dummy work until Saturday as only one day's scrimmage is likely to be offered next week in preparation for the Harvard match. Today the secrets of the varsity on the details of the Princeton formation featured the practice. The intelligence were given the Tiger plans and signals in dummy attack, at the varsity. Plenty of time was taken to illustrate the various features of the attack. Mal Snell will probably start at fullback if his injured thumb permits his playing. Hal Higginbotham instead of Church will open the play at left end and that Gates may be replaced by Baldridge at left tackle are still possibilities.

HARVARD.

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) Nov. 11.—From the work done in the stadium this afternoon it looks more than ever as if Harvard could repeat last year's performance of holding its regular football players out of the Brown game. The question has been one that the coaches have been pondering over all week, but the subs have come along very well, and, with several regulars in the line-up are expected to give a good account of themselves against the team that beat Yale 3 to 0 a week ago. Taylor, varsity center rush, played at right tackle with the subs today while Boles was at right half back with Enwright and Rollins as substitutes. This shift was made after the regulars had spent some time drilling on the new plays for the Yale game and also having a short and easy session on defense against the scrubs.

PRINCETON.

PRINCETON (N. J.) Nov. 11.—Coach Bush has now finished the list of his preparatory work for the Yale game Saturday and for the season there remains only the final canter on the Tiger schedule to put an end to the first year of the Princeton football under his sole guidance. The final work-out of the squad today was of the lightest sort possible. A dismal drill was the main feature and Bush followed the first task around the stadium to inject a little snap into the plays and to see that they were timed perfectly. There was a short dummy scrimmage in which no tackling was allowed, to perfect the defensive formations. The second drill consisted the first half of the afternoon and behind the closed gates of University Field the team went through a group of plays that will be uncovered for the first time against the Elis on Saturday.

CORNELL.

ITHACA (N. Y.) Nov. 11.—While the entire Cornell varsity team, with the exception of Shiverick took the field this afternoon the regulars did not go into a real scrimmage and it was evident that the coaches realize that one of their chief problems now is to keep the players in good physical condition. As the players had to be given extra work to put them in shape for the Harvard game they have been going along almost slow to form; for several weeks, however, the team have only played one scrimmage and in this way the danger of overtraining has been eliminated. All of the men reported in good shape, Shelton, left end, being in the line-up for the first time this week. The coaches think that he has entirely recovered from the injuries sustained from the Michigan game.

OXY AND THROOP TO PLAY TODAY.

A string of orange and black decorated automobiles loaded down with the specimens of budding manhood that compose the Occidental football team will wend their way to Pasadena this afternoon where the Tiger varsity plays Throop.

This is Oxy's last game before the Pomona battle but the squad is just beginning its hard work. Fast and heavy scrimmages, will be the order during next week with the trainers and rubbers working overtime. The Timber Wolf is taking no chances.

THINGS LIVELY AT ANNANDALE.

Van Loan is Pulling off a One-armed Game.

Big Caddie Tournament on Next Monday.

Rain has Materially Helped the Course.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

Golf is effervescing at the Annandale Country Club, and there were seventy-five players out on Wednesday afternoon, including a foursome in which Artie Shafer, Charles Van Loan, J. S. Mather and Ben Leslie took part.

Van Loan's one-arm golf excites any amount of interest. Crowds collect to watch him drive off at the first tee where he gets an unusually long ball, way past the bridge generally. Indeed, an incapacitated arm seems to have been good for Van Loan's golf, for he certainly plays a better game now than he did before.

The tie between Dr. Warner, Dr. Bentley and Victor Kleinberger, on Saturday was played off, Dr. Warner and Kleinberger tieing again. Dr. Warner is now the final winner, he and Kleinberger having played on Wednesday, the Doctor being even with par and Kleinberger one down. That was for the club cup, match-play against par.

A CADDIE TOURNAMENT.

Annandale is also getting up a tournament for their caddies to take place next Monday. It will take the form of match-play against bogey and three cups have been donated by J. S. Mather, R. S. Gibson and William Hanley. First, second and best medal scores will be rewarded.

They have some very good players amongst the small caddies at Annandale, notably Sam and Louis Ostrow, Victor Owen and Willard Bradley, and the amateurs are giving them every encouragement.

The rain has done the Annandale course a lot of good, but the chief complaint against it as a championship course is that it has not been kept up-to-date, the bunkers are too shallow, the course a shade too easy for latter-day ideas of the tribulations that should beset a real golfer.

Del Monte is credited with the ideal bunkering, good deep pits, with beveled edges, which take a powerful, masterly stroke for recovery. Los Angeles is now installing this type of bunker, but it finds little favor with the long-handicap player.

CLUBMEN ARE TO SETTLE THE TITLE.

PLAY WILL BE FINISHED ON BEVERLY COURTS ON SATURDAY.

Play for the tennis championship of the L.A.A.C. will be finished on the Beverly Hills Hotel courts Saturday afternoon.

In a semi-finals match held yesterday Ed McCormick ran about the court with the pep of his olden days and wopped Vic Dixon, 6-1, 6-4.

There will be but two matches Saturday, Wayne vs. McCormick and the winner of this vs. Fred Adams, the former Coast champion.

WHAT ELMORE HAS TO SAY.

I wish at this time to correct a few reports which have been circulated as coming from myself as to the reasons for my quitting as I did.

I am not dissatisfied with the treatment I received from Coach Glaze, as I think no one has been a better friend to me than Coach Glaze and he has given me every consideration possible under the circumstances.

I felt that I was a misfit in the U.S.C. team and was doing no one any good and had made up my mind to quit after the Oregon game, unless I showed more than I had shown so far this year, and, not having a chance to play I lost my head and quit, but not till the game was hopelessly lost.

The report that it was a fraternity row is without foundation, as Glaze is too big a man to let petty matters influence him.

J. J. ELMORE.

Well known track athletes appear among players on college football teams. Probably the greatest is Harry Worthington of Dartmouth, the eastern intercollegiate and amateur athletic union broad jumper who is champion in both organizations. Willcox, who has run 440 yards in 48s., is playing quarterback for Harvard. Moore of Princeton, has stepped the 100 yards in 10s. and the furlong in better than 22s. Fred Kelly has been playing for the University of Southern California, and the injury to Kelly is likely to hurt his future as a champion hurdler.

Mr. and Mrs. Topperwein, said to be the greatest artists in the United States with rifle and revolver, will stage an exhibition shoot on the grounds of the Los Angeles Gun Club next Thursday, beginning at 2 p.m.

The Topperweins can do almost everything with an arm but make it walk. They shoot the designs in cards pasted on the edges of cards, use a gun with each hand and hit the objects at once and do many other incredible stunts.

On Tuesday evening they will hold an after-dark trap shoot from the end of the Venice pier. During the day there will be several open matches for amateurs, the only price of admission being the cost of targets.

HAM'S WONDERS HAVE WORK-OUT.

RUSH THROUGH COLUMBIA LINE IN GREAT SHAPE.

Veterans Playing Like Colts—Ham Fish Greatly Pleased Despite Fact that All His Men did not Show Up. Former Stars will be Ready for Rutgers Saturday.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—Ham Fish's team of former college stars had its first practice for the Rutgers game Saturday on the Polo Grounds today. In a fifteen-minute scrimmage at South Field the old-timers went through the Columbia line like a motor reaper in a wheat field, scoring three touchdowns and quitting only when Coach Metcalf refused to have his entire eleven put on the hospital list.

The Columbia boys didn't know how to check the game the veterans played. It was much different from anything they had been up against this season. They were like so many charging bulls. "Torpedo" Moffet, one of Penn's 1914 stars, simply lowered his head, bowled over waiting tacklers, scoring two touchdowns.

Ham Fish said the practice was quite satisfactory, though all his mates didn't show up. The former Harvard captain and all-American tackle expects to have his regular team out for practice tomorrow afternoon. The line-up that will face Rutgers will be as follows:

Half-backs, Moffet (Penn.) Baker (Princeton;) full-back, Street (Princeton;) quarter-back, as yet undecided, though it will probably be Arthur Howe, Yale's 1911 captain; center, Al Journeay (Penn.;) guards, Hersburg, Withington (Harvard;) tackles, Fish (Harvard,) Hann (Yale;) ends, Kilpatrick (Yale,) Hardwick (Harvard.) Some line-up, eh?

WANTS WIFEY'S BILL PAID, TOO.

ROY MIDDLETON OF FLAT ROCK DOES NOT GET DECISION FROM THE OAKS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 11.—Roxey Middleton left tonight for Flat Rock, Ill., without having reached a decision as to his status with the Oakland club. The Oakland magnates refused to accede to Middleton's demands in the way of transportation for his wife and that is what is keeping them apart. Leavitt and Cook profess to be disturbed not in the least as regards the outfielder's threat to jump to the Federals and declare that he can go to the outlaws, if he feels that way about matters.

ED MAIER IS SORE AT BABE BORTON.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF TIMES, Nov. 11.—If the Federal League ever goes kerfluey, let Babe Borton, erstwhile Vernon first-sacker, look out for himself.

"There is one ball player I have my eye on," declared Ed Maier today. "During the middle of his last season with our club, Borton came to me and said that at the end of the season we wouldn't have any trouble reaching an agreement. Then he jumped practically over night without ever saying good-by. Later he wrote and asked us to give him a job again, but as we had paid $2500 for Gleichmann, I couldn't see why we should bother with Borton. And now Borton can take his medicine. I'll remember him, if certain things happen, that's all."

AT THE STAGE DOOR

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Billie didn't arrive in Los Angeles yesterday for a conference with Thomas Ince as expected.

Reason?

"Zeigy" got lost.

No, not Flo.

It was her Pekinese spaniel which wandered away, fell into the rude clutches of the San Francisco dog-snatchers, and was held for ransom. It seems the dog suites at the St. Francis didn't suit "Zeigy;" he got the "forty-nine" spirit in his veins, and sought the exciting Bohemian existence of the alleys. And Billie absolutely refused to leave for Los Angeles until the naughty doggie returned, which was late yesterday.

"And nothing was changed as you may surmise,"

But the innocent look in Zeigy's eyes."

So Miss Burke, Mr. Ziegfeld and Miss Burke's mother took the Lark last night, and will arrive in this city this morning, leaving at 1:10 today for New York, after her conference with Mr. Ince, and the send-off which the Ince Company will give her.

Mr. Ince is very enthusiastic over Miss Burke's picture work. He declares she has certain screen ingenues we could mention tied up in a sack and thrown over the cliff.

Pen-scrapes from Bee.

Beatrice Nichols, former Burbank favorite, has packed her nifty summer furs and winter laces, her fur-trimmed shoes and portable Marcelle wave, and gone to Australia with her talented husband, Thomas McLarnie, also a Burbank favorite. And she writes me from Sydney that she "dislikes it there immensely," and is so homesick for California she "nearly kissed the zoo bear."

The company of which they are members opened in "Stop Thief," and got over beautifully, but she says that Walter Catlett and Jim Applebee were terribly missed by the McLarnies.

Miss Nichols and Mr. McLarnie are playing the leads in a number of American farces in the larger Australian cities, under the Williamson management, "A Pair of Sixes," and "Baby Mine" being among the number. She confides (for our local consumption) that a dose of Oliver Morosco would be a mighty good thing for the Australian show business.

Pop, May.

May Boley writes she is too happy for anything at the thought of coming back to Los Angeles with "Six Long Letty," and that she's booked up solid during the dinner hour for the first week.

As Others See Her.

Anna Held viewed herself on the screen yesterday for the first time, out at the Morosco Photoplay Studio, and expressed herself in her well preserved French accent:

"I think I have some expressions, yes?" she cried in glee. "But, oh, oui! I have been looking so weeked, so naughty all these years, and didn't know it? But see, there's a nice, sweet smile, like church. That is not so good—look like I die—but the teeth photograph well, do you not think? And the make-up! Ah, mon dieu, it looks as if one had the—what you say?—the mildew."

Drama Going to the Dogs?

One being who was thoroughly upset by viewing Miss Held in the flickering photographs was Miss Held's Pekinese spaniel with a very unspellable name. She calls him something which sounds like "Tshing," for short, and when "Tshing" saw those pictures, he first growled, then whined, then ran up to the pictures, then back to Miss Held. Finally he grew militant and tried to bite the picture, but fell back crestfallen, and at last contented himself with an occasional refrigetory bark.

Some Wardrobe.

The poor mere man P. A. tried to describe Miss Held's thirty straight-from-Paris gowns to me, but it was hard going, and by and by it resolved itself into something like this:

"Well, there's one gorgeous affair that's just the color of cream tomato soup, and there's another that looks exactly like a salad, a nice shrimp salad trimmed with mayonnaise and green stuff, and there's another frock with pantelettes, just like they decorate lamb chops with, and there's a lacy thing like French pastry, and a blonde hat exactly the color of a Bronx cocktail, and some creme de minth stockings, and a hat trimmed with Maraschino cherries."

Get in Line.

If you're engaged to somebody and haven't given your "Nearly Married" party at the Burbank, you're not an exception, not a-tall. It's being done.

Nax, Too—Maybe.

There is a rumor that Nazimova will be secured by the Triangle for Griffith pictures. There were negotiations between her and Griffith when the noted actress was here last summer, but nothing was settled then, as it is said she demanded $10,000 a week.

Poor Old Lunnun.

David Griffith is in receipt of a letter from his brother, who is in London, and who writes that he was looking for apartments, the other day, and was shown some very handsome ones on the top floor of an excellent establishment, at an astonishingly low rate of rent.

"But I guess you are mistaken," said Mr. Griffith's brother. "I am not David Griffith. I must not take these apartments at this rate on any false pretenses."

But he was pressed to accept them, and afterward learned that the Zeppelin air raids make the upper story rooms very unpopular. In fact, if you're very elegant indeed, you can afford to live in a cellar!

Bully Bull Fight.

Also, Tally's Broadway has broken out in a new spot, and a bull fight "wot is a bull fight," with a real man tossed on the horns of a real bull, is being shown in the Farrar picture.

What's the Use.

"Judge" Walter Kelly, at the Orpheum last night, missed telling his famous yarn about the Scotchman who bought a box of a million pins and then wanted a rebate because on count it was short three pins.

"The fact is," declares the Judge, "I'll have to cut out that story. I was visited yesterday by two Scotchmen who vowed that there was no point to it.

"'Why shouldna the mon claim a shortage?' asked one, 'if the box was three pins short?'

"Well, what could you say to that? There goes one of my best."

Pat's Portness.

When Pat Rooney III., astat 4 goes on at the Orpheum, of a Saturday afternoon, the rest of the Rooney family nearly die of holding their breath in fear and trembling. Once the half portion Pat imitated a certain house manager of pompous and dignified air, and the rest of the Rooneys nearly lost their jobs. Since then Pat has been told to confine his efforts to his stage compatriots.

Only Real Ball Throwers.

But, after all, as Charlie Eyton justly remarks, the only really fierce bull fight occurs when two motion-picture producers get to setting forth the rival merits of their films.

Castles, Too.

It is reported that after about $175 worth of long distance conversation and telegrams between Jesse Lasky in Los Angeles and Samuel Goldfish in New York, the latter gentleman has signed up the Vernon Castles for Lasky pictures, to be made at the Hollywood studio.

Farewell, Carlyle.

Carlyle Blackwell, formerly of the Lasky company, has signed up with the World Film Company, and will leave for New York in a few days.

Welcome, Henrietta.

Henrietta Crossman, the noted actress, has accepted an engagement on the Orpheum circuit, and will fill the place made vacant by the death of Blanche Walsh. She is in Seattle at present, and will shortly be seen in this city. Her playlet is "Thou Shalt Not Kill," and was written by her husband, Maurice Campbell.

Anna Held's daughter, Lina Carrera, will be seen with her pretty ma—relative, I mean, in one of the Held pictures.

All a Horrid Lie.

They say it is not true that Anna Held sent Billie Burke the calling cards she had left over.

David's New One.

David Warfield has a new play by David Belasco, entitled "Van Der Decken."

cheers for the company, for T. J.

Childlike and Bland.

Avery Hopwood has still another naughty farce which has gained success in the East, entitled "Fairer and Warmer." We thought Mr. Hopwood didn't understand his own jokes in the case of "Sadie Love," but we begin to believe it's just his blondness makes him look so innocent.

Clever Little Izzy.

Isabelle Lowe (a cousin of Edmund Lowe,) who played June in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" at the Mason a year ago, has gone into vaudeville in New York, and is receiving some good notices. She has an Edgar Allan Woolf sketch, in which she plays the role of a wild little Irish girl.

Some day some manager will wake up to the fact that Miss Lowe is possessed of one of the most delightful personalities which ever went over the footlights, and then Miss Isabelle will burst into the electrics.

U.'s Blue Ribboner.

There is to be a private showing tonight at Woodley's Theater of a "U." film entitled "A Knight of the Range," in which Harry D. Carey is seen in the leading role. Olive Fuller Golden plays opposite him.

Dusty's New One.

Dustin Farnum, who has gone east, will return in the course of a month and begin work on a new film play for the Morosco Photoplay Company entitled "Ben Blair." It is a film version of the popular Lillibridge novel.

Almost Frightened Away.

"Do you always fight with your leading ladies?" Anna Held inquired in a frightened tone of Forrest Stanley yesterday morning. Miss Held had read that Stan always required a man's size fight wished on with every picture and didn't know it wasn't of the temperamental sort.

Hopper's Second Flickerer.

De Wolf Hopper has about finished his "Don Quixote" for the Triangle and will do another picture by Granville Warwick. Who is this Warwick, by the way? He is often heard of, but is a most mysterious person, for he is never seen. Can his middle initial be—but pshaw, what's the use of trying to guess?

"Light fantastic" artist.

Emily Francis Hopper, who, with Ellsworth Cook, is pleasing audiences at the Orpheum this week in dancing novelties.

BOYNTON TEAMS WILL PLAY SERIES.

A three-game baseball series to be played between the Boynton office team and Boynton Store team, is attracting considerable attention. The first go of the series will take place at Exposition Park tomorrow afternoon, October 12. The stake for the winners of the series is a banquet.

The players are: Boynton office, H. Fletcher, K. Hoodsman, F. Boynton, E. Jones, H. Boynton, D. Mills, P. Goodman, R. Preston, D. Reader and A. Judd, and for the store, A. Helms, R. Blackburn, F. Stewart, A. Lyon, F. Gabbert, A. Banks, A. Leach, W. Dewitt, R. Wilcox and C. Pemberton.

CORONA FOOTBALL MEN QUIT GAME.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CORONA, Nov. 11.—The Corona High school football team will no longer be one of the contenders for the championship of the Citrus Belt League. The team has disbanded for the season and the remaining games on the schedule have been cancelled. The injuries received by a number of the players recently, strenuous objections on the part of parents, and their lack of material, made such a move imperative, although Coach Roy Haag did so with many misgivings.

BALL PLAYERS OFF FOR IMPERIAL.

SHOPS INCREASE LABOR SCHEDULE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 11.—H. S. Wall, superintendent of the Santa Fe shops here, the second largest on the 11,000-mile system of that railroad, announced that effective today the plant increased working hours 10 per cent.

The shops, which employ about 1200 men, went on a schedule of ten hours a day, six days a week and this is the longest hours the shops have worked since July, 1911, when they were taxed to the limit with the repair of motive power destroyed in the roundhouse fires at Barstow and Seligman.

Increased traffic, both passenger and freight, and the overhauling of both locomotives and cars, freight and coaches, is responsible for the increase which will enlarge the pay roll for November to more than $185,000.

Indications at present point to the fact that the schedule for working hours will be maintained for several months.

PROTEST "CHAIN."

Local railroad men have registered a protest against the letter chain which has been passing around in railroad circles throughout the country for the benefit of W. D. Westbury, formerly traveling agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul at Chicago, who was crippled in the service.

General Agent T. W. Proctor of the railroad started a chain of letters by writing to five of his friends asking them to send in ten cents each and to each write five of their friends who they believe would do the same thing.

Local railroad men, including U. L. Voris, D. P. Smythe, M. A. Louis, E. L. Daniels, F. T. Mullen and Lon Manners, received letters. They have figured that the seventeenth link in the chain if unbroken would have produced over nineteen billion dollars for the man.

Postal authorities are investigating the case, for letter chains are prohibited, it is said.

PEEVED AT DOG JUDGE.

Rivalry at the dog show took the form of open and bitter resentment last night during the judging of the cocker spaniels.

When Chesasuque Nantahala, an "unknown," was pronounced the best dog in the show, triumphing over Knebworth Rowdy, four times champion, a portion of the crowd gave voice to its disapproval of Judge Thorpe's decision with hisses. There were other, although milder, demonstrations later during the evening.

Knebworth Rowdy is regarded by many fanciers as the best cocker ever produced on the Coast, and in two big shows was adjudged the best dog of any breed. That he failed to bring home the bacon last night caused consternation and the decision resulted in one of the biggest sensations in the history of Los Angeles bench shows.

MONTROSE NOTES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

MONTROSE, Nov. 11.—The new $15,000 grammar school that has been begun is progressing rapidly and it is expected that shortly after the new year it will be ready for occupancy. The building, which is of most approved style, will be equipped with new devices of advantage to teachers and students.

It is rumored that a new electric road is to be built from Montrose to La Canada in the very near future to extend later to Pasadena. To begin with it is approximated that the cost of the contemplated road will be in the neighborhood of $50,000 and will provide work for many men through the winter.

The extensive road improvements being made in this section have been making rapid progress and the recent rains have not interfered with the work, which will keep many men employed until late in the spring, and will keep the cry of "hard times" from being heard in this part of the county.

Basketball has grown to be an almost world-wide sport.

Dog Show Noisy.

Dachshunds, no limit. (Limit was removed at request of market hunters.)

GREAT IDEA.

The show is a four-point affair, which seems to be satisfactory to everybody concerned, as well as those who aren't concerned.

The canine is here shown in an acute stage of evolution, and speaking dispassionately and without prejudice, it can be said that it would be hard to improve on any of the high-class dogs and bitches shown. Most of them come from the best of families, and do not seem to be afflicted with mange or hydrophobia. Nearly all the standard brands are on display, with several extra fancy varieties. Anybody desiring to furnish their home with a complete outfit of dogs will find many here from which to select. The buyer can obtain dogs for the parlor, dogs for the sitting-room, dogs for the kitchen, dogs for the screen porch and dogs for the dining-room. Only the latest patterns shown.

THE BOSSES.

The show, or dog department store, is being admirably conducted by the bench committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. W. Brennan; Mrs. Anna Bell, the president, and Mrs. F. M. Connor, secretary. All of these are among the large exhibitors.

The benching is especially elaborate, some of the dogs being displayed amid surroundings luxurious enough to satisfy an oriental potentate.

Kuma is the center of much interest. Kuma is the famed Japanese spaniel presented to Miss Virginia Stone by the Mikado. These Jap spaniels run mainly to eyes. Viewed in the face, they look like a small edition of a deep-sea diver with his helmet on. The greater the eye area the more valuable they are. In time it is hoped to bring them to a point where they will consist entirely of a pair of eyes with a tail attached to the same. Kuma is displayed in silk and satin surroundings. Kuma is easily the centerpiece of the show.

ANOTHER.

Another elaborate bench is that of Mrs. Anita Baldwin, where five dogs of the most expensive vintage are displayed with up-to-date furnishings, including feather beds, electric lights, hot and cold water and steam heat.

Unlike the Jap spaniels, which are top heavy in the eyes, the Yorkshire terriers run mainly to hair. The Yorkshires are husky, luxuriant dogs, and if allowed to run at large would provide cozy quarters for fleas. Although a small dog, it is endowed with so much hair it is estimated that one life-sized Yorkshire could accommodate a community of fleas equal to the population of Manhattan. But fortunately or unfortunately, the Yorkshires are not permitted to accumulate fleas at random.

PETTED.

They are pets and house dogs, and completely surrounded by safeguards and sanitation. When a flea does manage to climb aboard an organized hunt is at once started and does not end until the flea is treed or captured or shot down. Take Champion Billy Boy, as a shining example. He weighs only about two pounds and a half, and it is estimated that two pounds of this is hair. He has hair all over him. In fact, until you punch him with your finger, you are not sure whether there is anything inside the hair. He looks like a collection of switches on the bureau in milady's boudoir, whatever that is. The hair is not exactly the same length all over, but it has a general average of fifteen inches, which is something to brag about. Champion Billy Boy does not have hair on his body only, but all over his face as well, and he has a mustache like Frank Wiggins. Young men who aspire to raise hair on the upper lip might get some valuable pointers from Mr. Wiggins or Champion Billy Boy.

A CHAMPION.

Sunnie Son Shiner, owned and supported by Mrs. Harry Baker, came through as the best black and tan in the show. In fact, he carried off every honor in the black-and-tan department. He was not entered in the russet and ox-blood classes. These black-and-tan dogs are built like a spider, and run almost exclusively to shivers. They shiver by instinct, training and environment. The temperature has nothing to do with it. They would shiver in a bath cabinet or a bake oven. To the uninitiated it would appear that the average black and tan has perpetual ague. That is a mistake. Shivers are a sign of good health in a black and tan. Only when they are dead do they cease to shiver, and that is regarded as a bad sign.

Among the large, lumpy dogs is a fine display of Great Danes and Blue Danes. These compare favorably in size with a yearling calf. Carlyle Blackwell, of moving-picture renown, has Medford Bell, a fine, large bitch, entered in the Great Dane department. This is Blackwell's maiden attempt as an exhibitor.

L. C. Graft is the most extensive exhibitor of Blue Danes. Any one of these would eat as much as a cow. Mr. Graft must be a very wealthy man to support so many large dogs.

The show is so large and complicated as to require the expert services of two judges. S. L. Harris of Olympia, Wash., judges the English and French bulldogs and Boston terriers, while E. Wrightson Thorpe of Calgary, Can., is judging all other breeds and classified specials. These men are experts in their line, being able to grab a strange dog, to whom they have never been introduced, and tell the dog all about himself. It will be the painful duty of Mr. Thorpe, who, is an Englishman, to judge the German police dogs, of which a large assortment is being shown by William A. Matern. However, there should be no serious complications as this is strictly a neutral dog show.

ENTRIES TO DATE FOR BOXING BOUTS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Nov. 12.—Because of a breach between the City Attorney's office and the Pasadena Police Department, Chief McIntyre has asked the city appoint a special prosecutor to handle the police cases. The breach came when Deputy City Attorney James H. Howard refused to accept the testimony of percentage-hunters in prosecuting a certain case. During the trial of this case Mr. Howard learned that the principle evidence against gambling and blind-piggers by paid witnesses, their services being paid for on a basis of $5 for every $1 of the fine collected.

McIntyre declares that this method of obtaining evidence is not different from that employed in other cities, but Mr. Howard says other cities may do so but that Pasadena will not. "I don't think anybody can make it under those conditions," said Howard. "I don't think any man, unless his reputation would suffer in any case and employ persons as witnesses," he continued.

McIntyre says that Howard's action will demoralize the efficiency of the Police Department and make it impossible to obtain evidence against violators of the law, as members of the Police Department can't be used as stool pigeons as the police might as well be trying to enforce the law. Attorney Munger is backed and Howard in his stand against the testimony from the commission witnesses.

RELIEF TO SUFFERERS.

Opening its doors a little over a year ago the Pasadena Free Dispensary has given relief and treatment to thirty-one sufferers. Most of those who were children who were suffering from diseases of the eye, throat.

The Dispensary which is already affording relief to so many of the poor was made possible through the efforts of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette who started the plans a year ago, when Dr. Burdette passed away. She will leave the work in other hands awhile, but was present at the meeting to Miss Pickhardt, superintendent of the Pasadena Hospital of the dispensary, it is said, the dispensary to stay the ravages more than anything else with every kind of disease treated here.

The Edna Altar Memorial Guild has been allowed to settle. It moved its headquarters today from historic South Raymond to No. 43 East California and will hold its regular meeting this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The association planned a Christmas for little Mexican tots, but neighbors rose up in arms to protest. They didn't want such a poor and famous street to furnish a home for a lot of poor little Mexicans, so the association had to find other quarters.

TO ADOPT BABY.

Since the jitney-bus competition of the Pacific Electric, it has affected adversely the business of the Pacific Electric, it is not so in Pasadena, at least to a considerable degree.

A new time table will be issued to-morrow to take effect November 14, but according to President Shoup the Oak Knoll Short Line cars will not be affected. The service to Lamanda Park, however, will be changed from a half-hour schedule to a twenty-minute one. The best jitney-bus service in Pasadena is from here to Los Angeles Fort.

JITNEY DRIVER FOUND GUILTY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Nov. 11.—William L. Sapp, jitney driver, is to face Judge West for sentence tomorrow morning for manslaughter in the killing of a passenger through carelessness in driving an automobile. The jury that convicted him was out but twenty minutes.

Sapp was driving a jitney for William White of Santa Ana on August 21 when he struck a buggy at Delhi. It was in the middle of the day, the road was not slippery and there was no approaching vehicle to interfere with a clear passage to the left of the buggy, which was occupied by two children of R. J. Webster.

Dozing on the seat beside the jitney driver was M. S. Rafield of Los Angeles who had been in Santa Ana putting on a special sale. As the jitney struck the buggy, the jitney turned over and Rafield was killed instantly. Sapp was sentenced the day after the wreck and has been held in jail ever since, he being unable to secure bail.

"Let this be a warning to all automobile drivers in this county," said Dist.-Atty. L. A. West. "A driver of an automobile who, through lack of reasonable care and caution, kills a person, will be prosecuted. Many accidents here are caused by drivers of machines who attempt to cut around another while a third machine is approaching. In the Sapp case, however, it was a plain case of careless driving. Sapp waited until he was within twenty feet of the rear of the buggy before he tried to turn out, and he was going too fast to make the turn."

POULTRY ASSOCIATION.

Van Nuys to Give Show in Los Angeles of Birds Raised in the San Fernando Valley.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VAN NUYS, Nov. 10.—Local poultrymen organized the Van Nuys Poultry Association last night. B. R. Holloway was selected as temporary president, with M. M. McConaughey as secretary. One of the first projects to be undertaken by the new association will be a poultry show in Los Angeles on November 23, continuing until the 27th. More than $200 has been donated by the residents of Van Nuys to be used as cash prizes for the poultrymen making the most creditable showing of birds.

Arrangements have been made for the free transportation of the fowls to and from the show. W. P. Whitsett will have charge of the exhibition rooms. The poultry industry was introduced in this valley four years ago through the efforts of H. J. Whitley and it is rapidly becoming one of the important local industries.

CHANGES ITS NAME.

A change in the name of the Johnston Organ and Piano Manufacturing Company is announced. Henceforth it is to be known as the California Organ Company. This change was made with a view to broadening the scope of the company, which is the only pipe organ factory on the Pacific Coast. Among the pipe organs now under course of construction are two school instruments, one for the Owensmouth High School, the other for the Marian grammar school.

COLLIDES WITH TRUCK.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

COMPTON, Nov. 11.—Carl Munch, of Los Angeles, was riding a motorcycle to Long Beach today when he collided with a truck wagon driven by a Jap and sustained serious injuries. Munch attempted to pass the truck wagon but in doing so struck the hind wheel of the wagon, throwing him from the machine to the curbing of the road. Two salesmen from Los Angeles who were passing in an auto witnessed the accident and took the young man to the Clara Barton Hospital in Los Angeles, where it was found that his right shoulder was broken and his back badly wrenched.

FINDS HORSE AND WAGON.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WATTS, Nov. 11.—Marshal Ellis discovered a horse and wagon this morning. The wagon, half full of junk, had no driver in sight. On investigation it was found that the outfit had been rented from a Los Angeles livery stable early in the morning by two strangers. Marshal Ellis traced the two men to Compton, but lost track of them there. It is thought that they were discovered while pillaging some ranch house, and abandoning the rig made their escape.

WETS AND DRYS CHASE SPEAKER.

Sheriff's Deputies Beat Back Pursuing Mob.

Unhappy Use of Impolite Word Starts Trouble.

Watts to Hold Prohibition Election Today.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WATTS, Nov. 11.—"If Al Levy's cafe is granted a license here it will make ——— out of your wives and daughters!" shouted Paul Nourse in a speech at the prohibition meeting tonight.

For a second one might have heard a pin drop in the large audience in Odd Fellows' Hall. Then wets and drys alike made a wild, concerted rush for the stage where the young Los Angeles lawyer held forth.

Men and women surged angrily forward, shaking fists and crying out in protest. Nourse turned white as a sheet. Al Levy, the Los Angeles restaurateur, was the first to reach him.

But help came unexpectedly. Six stalwart deputies from the Sheriff's office, seated near the platform unbeknown to the majority of the audience, rushed up and formed a ring around the frightened young lawyer. They beat back the mob, being compelled to use plenty of force.

Forming a flying phalanx with Marshal Sam Ellis in the forefront and the indiscret speaker in the middle the rescue party rushed the crowd and plowed a passage to the head of the flight of stairs leading to the street.

The officers were compelled to push the crowd back at every step. One determined rush by the angry crowd would have overpowered the deputies and placed the now thoroughly frightened attorney into their hands.

While the officers were working their way toward the street one deputy rushed down the stairs and run the county machine up to the door of the building. As the angry Watts people, the officers and the attorney reached the waiting car another effort was made to get at the offender, but he was hustled into the car and it shot ahead.

The crowd, foiled in its attempt to punish the man who had uttered a word that had probably never been used at a public gathering before, followed a short distance and then returned to the hall.

FIRES OF BITTERNESS.

The occurance of tonight has fanned the fires of bitterness in the dry and wet fight to almost the breaking point. Leaders of the dry faction realized what a blow had been given their cause by the visiting speaker and apologized to those who returned to the hall.

The meeting tonight was planned by the dry faction as the wind-up of their campaign for the election tomorrow. The wets, who say they have been denied a debate with the drys, decided to attend the meeting tonight and trouble was looked for. The drys appealed to Sheriff Cline and six deputies were sent to Watts to keep order. Had the visiting speaker kept to his text the meeting would have probably ended amicably.

After Attorney Nourse had been rescued and sent out of the city the drys voted to adjourn buf the wets wanted to tell their side of the story and did. An attempt was made to turn out the lights but Marshal Ellis remained by the electric switch and would not allow any one near it.

The election today will be just as bitter as any in the past history of Watts. The propositon of a cafe ordinance, allowing Al Levy to erect a $40,000 cafe within the city limits, is being fought by all voters of the dry faction. In the recall, if the present Board of Trustees is ousted, Watts will go dry again and the cafe ordinance, even if it carried in the election today, will be ultimately defeated.

Every precaution will be taken today by the officers to make the election a peaceful one, but it is feared that with the incident of last night's meeting fresh in the minds of the voters, trouble may result.

PLAN NEW CHURCH.

The new church to be erected by the members of the First Christian Church of Watts is to be guarded every night. The old building was destroyed by fire three weeks ago and the congregation say it was the work of firebugs.

The new church is to be much larger than the old one and the contract for the building is to be let this week. A member of the congregation will sleep in the church every night to protect it from vandals and will continue the all-night guard until conditions in and around Watts are different than at present.

PAYS PET'S BOARD.

Six weeks ago an old mare valued at about $5 was stolen from the barn of Mrs. E. Thompson, residing near Watts. The thieves, thinking the animal was a valuable one, turned it loose on the highway after discovering their mistake. The old mare wandered about for several days and was at last taken in by John Barramore. The animal had been owned by Mrs. Thompson for many years and she made every effort to recover it, but did not inquire at Watts.

This week Mrs. Thompson had posters printed offering a reward of $20 for information leading to the whereabouts of the mare and Marshal Ellis located her at the Barramore place. Mrs. Thompson was notified and today paid the reward and board bill amounting to $50 and recovered her horse.

SHOT BY HUNTERS.

John Muncie, a ranchman residing near here, was shot in the right leg and painfully injured today by boy hunters. The two boys, John Ering and Paul Kling, were hunting near the Muncie ranch when they saw something moving through the high weeds and thinking it game of some kind, fired. Two loads of No. 8 shot struck Mr. Muncie in the leg but the hunters were some distance away and the wounds are not considered dangerous.

CATS AND THEIR VALETS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 11.—Ten Persian and Angora cats of the nobility of catdom will be shipped from here November 27 for San Francisco, where they will be exhibited in the big cat show there on the 29th. The cats will be atended by a valet whose particular duty is to comb their hair, shampoo them, manicure their nails and see that they are fed along scientific lines. F. Ferguson, who owns the cats, is polishing and grooming the animals for the big show and expects to take some blue ribbons.

Divers Fail to Find Body at Long Beach.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Nov. 11.—Heart-broken over the strange absence of his wife of a day, and believing that his mother-in-law is responsible for his troubles, Newell Stearns, aged 19, son of the late F. W. Stearns, today sought legal aid to locate his girl bride, Olive McKnight Stearns.

Not until he took this action did the younger social set know that Newell Stearns and Olive McKnight, aged 17, eloped and were wed at Santa Ana a week ago. The bride for whom Stearns is pining is one of the prettiest young women in Southern California and a great favorite here.

The great mistake was made when, the next day after they were married, the happy groom consented to his wife telephoning her mother, the wealthy Mrs. O. B. McKnight, of the Dennie apartments. Immediately upon hearing that her daughter was married, Mrs. McKnight begged that her daughter see her in Los Angeles that afternoon.

Mistake No. 2: The young hubby consented to allow her to go alone. She never came back. Stearns believes that Mrs. McKnight persuaded her to remain away from her husband. Whereupon he sought the services of Attorneys Swaffield & Swaffield, who are handling the Stearns estate.

Young Mr. Stearns graduated from the local High School two years ago. He was engaged as chauffeur for Mrs. A. C. Stoddard of Hotel Virginia. Mrs. McKnight, who came here with her daughter from Omaha last August, looked with disfavor upon her daughter's ardent suitor, and upon several occasions is said to have told her not to see Mr. Stearns. But Cupid defeated her until the day after the marriage.

DIVERS FIND NO BODY.

After two divers from the U.S.S. Cheyenne examined thoroughly the bed of the ocean under the Pine-avenue pier the conclusion was arrived at that there is no human body in that locality.

Christian W. Menegold, chief gunner's mate, and F. A. Arline, diver, of the crew of the Cheyenne, spent more than twenty minutes in all in searching for the remains which Wilbur Counts yesterday insisted he saw fastened to the piling at the bottom of the ocean. The divers stated that the ocean floor is of clean sand, and no objects except one or two old piling were discovered in their search.

FIND WOMAN DEAD.

Friends calling to see why the aged woman did not come out of the house to water her flowers as usual today found Mrs. Rebecca Gardner dead on the floor of her bedroom at No. 453 Almond avenue. She had evidently been dead for two days. She was alone in the house, one daughter, a nurse, being engaged on a case in Fullerton. Another daughter, Mrs. J. J. Brown, lives in Woodland, Cal. Mrs. Gardner was 84 years of age.

YALE RAMS HARVARD AND RIPS UP DECKS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Nov. 11.—Damage to the steamer Harvard estimated at about $5000 resulted from the vessel being rammed by her sister ship, the Yale, today. The Harvard was at her berth at the Pacific Navigation Company dock when the Yale, upon arrival from San Diego came down the channel from the turning basin on the way to her berth just above that of the Harvard.

A mistake in the engine room caused the accident. Who was responsible for the error in signals will be determined by an investigation to be conducted later by the local board of United States inspectors.

The sharp prow of the Yale cut into the broad stern of the Harvard like a knife and carried away the rail, ripped up the deck and damaged plates and staterooms.

The damage being entirely above the waterline the Harvard was allowed to proceed on schedule to San Diego this afternoon and the damage will be repaired by a gang of ship carpenters while the steamer is in service. The Yale was not injured.

A hoodoo seems to have taken a permanent berth in the engine room of the Yale. Twice she has been laid up for weeks this summer on account of damaged turbines that cost thousands of dollars for repairs, to say nothing of the loss of business to the company by the steamer being off the run.

Trouble was again experienced a few weeks ago but the damage proved to be slight and the vessel was not taken off the run.

Bringing the crew of the wrecked steamer Fort Bragg, the steamer Willamette arrived tonight from San Diego and proceeded to San Francisco and Portland after taking additional passengers here.

The Fort Bragg went on a reef off the Mexican coast last Friday night and will be a total loss. She had a cargo of coffee and hardwood for this port and San Francisco. Passengers and crew were picked up from the beach by the cruiser San Diego and brought back to San Diego yesterday.

Andrew Larch, a fireman on the Fort Bragg, was the hero of the disaster. He tied a line around his waist and swam through the surf that was breaking high on the rocky beach. He fought for two hours through the waves and undertow before he finally reached the beach almost exhausted.

While he was fighting his way a lifeboat was lowered and two men that had been washed to sea were rescued. The boat was dashed on the beach but the men were saved.

TEACHERS PROTESTING POLITICS IN SCHOOLS.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 11.—Dr. J. H. Francis, superintendent of Schools here, may be elected the president of the California Teachers' association, southern section, in session here. Mrs. Ida Scott, principal of the Logan school, San Diego, is also spoken of for the office.

It was learned among the teachers in session here that Dr. Francis had left for his home in Los Angeles to fight for his rights before the civil service fire there, where his appointment is declared illegal by the board. He was at once begun to work in the president's chair. It is said tomorrow would be a busy day for the teachers against the school affairs.

The civil service appointment is contended for, who declare that his appointment is illegal because the old civil service board made it. An appeal is made by the teachers association passed to bring about reforms. It is said they will try to have a bill passed to take away the appointive power of the boards for school superintendents and to require that positions be given by certificate, as teaching positions are. Many teachers do not care for high brow stuff in their amusements and last night and today packed the Toadstool, an Isthmus concession which is a huge revolving wheel that throws its patrons off in most undignified positions.

Last night the Pasadena delegation had sole possession of the wheel for a time and throughout the evening more than 1500 of the teachers rode the wheel or watched their friends as they were thrown off the revolving disc. Today more than 2000 teachers visited the Painted Desert, where the Indians held open house and entertained their visitors from early morning until late tonight with their dances and singing.

The big event of the day for the teachers was the concert by Constantino at the organ at the exposition. More than 10,000 teachers listened to the great tenor, who was assisted by F. Alamend and Mrs. M. Stevenson. The audience was the most appreciative that ever attended any of the open-air concerts at the organ and throughout the programme the great throng, including many music lovers, was silent except for applause.

A complimentary ball was given to the visiting teachers by the management of the Grant Hotel in the big ballroom of the hotel tonight.

HOW TO DESTROY CATARRH GERMS AND END CATARRH FOREVER

Just Breathe This Antiseptic Air in Your Own Home and Quickly End Catarrh. Relieves Head Colds and Snuffles in Three Minutes.

Of all the diseases caused by germ, Catarrh is one of the most persistent and loathsome. Catarrh can be cured but the only way is to kill and drive out of your system the catarrhal germs which have found lodgement there. When the germs go the disagreeable symptoms will stop.

There is nothing better for such cases than breathing into your nose, throat and lungs the pleasant, soothing, healing, germ destroying air of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me,) a combination of purest oil of Eucalyptus and other powerful, antiseptic, germ destroying ingredients.

Simply put a few drops of Hyomei in the inhaler that comes with every complete package and breathe its air for a few minutes, four times a day. By breathing Hyomei in this way every particle of air that enters the air passages of the nose, head and throat and goes into the lungs, is charged with a germ destroying balsam that penetrates every nook and crevice of the mucous membranes lining these air passages, kills the germs, heals the inflamed, swollen membranes, stops the discharges, clears the passages and completely overcomes the disease by destroying the cause.

Mr. S. B. Middlebrook, 140 Broad street, Stamford, Conn., writes:

"I had been troubled with catarrh for some time, so bad that my breath was offensive. But now I am free of it and can say that if anyone, suffering as I have, will try Hyomei, it will positively cured them, as it did me."

If you want to be free from every symptom of catarrh, are tired of trying one thing after another without benefit, do as Mr. Middlebrook did, go to The Owl Drug Co. or your nearest druggist and get a Complete Hyomei Outfit. Use it every day for a few minutes and if it does not drive the catarrh germs from your system and give you lasting relief from catarrh, your druggist will give you your money back. Hyomei is inexpensive and with this protecting guarantee behind your purchase there is absolutely no reason why any sufferer from catarrh, head colds, etc., should not give it a fair trial.

Culver City at the Gates

If you gazed at a barley field one day—and twenty-four months later saw twenty-six different lines of business operating in that field, to say nothing of scores of beautiful homes, churches, schools, parks, paved boulevards, cement walks and curbs, stately electroliers, etc.—wouldn't you think a real city was about to develop in and adjacent to that spot?

Culver City is developing fast. Powerful interests are pushing it ahead. Population increasing by leaps and bounds. Many more homes are needed at once. If you have surplus capital you should double and treble it at Culver City. Can you think of another Southern California community that has kept pace with Culver City's growth during the past two years—the quietest period the country has known for many years? There's a reason for this progress. Go today and see for yourself.

Culver City is convenient both to city and beach—between Los Angeles and Venice, where three great interurban electric lines converge — on four city-to-sea boulevards.

Investment Issues Waver Under Realizing While Most Speculative Interests are in the Control of Manipulators—War Shares as a Rule are Lower.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The tendency of today's market was doubtless disappointing to the conservative interests which welcomed yesterday's general rise in standard shares. Investment issues were inclined to waver on realizing sales, while specialties were again under the influence of manipulation. Conspicuous among these were General Motors, which made an extreme gain of 25 to the new high price of 460; Willys-Overland up 23 to 235, and the Maxwell group, wherein gains of 2 to 5 points were registered. Other issues of the same class, notably Studebaker, Baldwin Locomotive, Lackawanna Steel, Crucible Steel, New York Airbrake, Continental Can and American Can, rose 3 to 6 points. United States Steel was another feature of strength, coppers coming forward with a rush in the final hour on an advance to 18⅛ in the refined metal. Anaconda rose 1⅜ to the new high quotation of 87⅛, and American Smelting, which was next to Steel in activity, gained a total of 2½ to 99⅝, its best price since 1910. There were desultory upward movements in oils, especially Mexican Petroleum and fertilizers, American Woolen, South Porto Rico Sugar and Mercantile Marine preferred certificates, all at material gains. Bethlehem Steel continued to reflect its feverish course of the previous day, rising 5 to 435 at the opening, declining to 412½ and closing at its opening price. Rails were under restraint throughout. A considerable part of London's offerings were reported to be for Dutch account. Total sales amounted to 972,000 shares. Foreign exchange was visibly strengthened, but Paris checks were a trifle easier. Mercantile Marine 4½s were conspicuous features of the bond division, that issue rising 4⅝ points to 94½ on extensive "future" sales. Total sales, par value, were $7,230,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE.

Oil Securities Command Attention. Heavy Trading in Union Features Meeting—Mines Neglected.

Heavy trading in Union Oil at better prices featured the session of the local exchange yesterday. Demand for the stock was very strong, and closing sales were recorded at the new high figure of 66.00. Associated also evidenced improvement, and a gain of over three points was registered during the day. West Coast preferred moved up to 110.00 bid, and Amalgamated was in frequent call at 78.50. Mining issues were quiet, and few sales were recorded. Tom Reed showed continued weakness when the stock dropped to 2.10 on rumors of a passed dividend by the board of directors at a meeting on Wednesday last. Nine thousand shares of Ivanhoe were transferred at .17¼ and .17⅝, and Fessenden, Big Jim, Gold Range and Lucky Boy were also active. Los Angeles Investment declined to .40¼, and 2000 shares of National Pacific brought .01⅝.

WAR INVOLVES PROBATE CASES.

MOVE TO TIE UP TEUTONIC HEIRS OF BRITONS.

Will is Filed with Order from High Court of Ireland that no Subject of a Country Enemy to the Allies Shall Have a Share of the Estate.

The great war in Europe is having an effect on the estates of British subjects in the adoption of precautionary measures to prevent such estates passing into the hands of subjects of Germany, Austria-Hungary or Turkey while the conflict is in progress. The will of Mary Beattie, who died at Mullaghmore, county of Tyrone, Ireland, August 4 last; a certified copy of which was filed for probate here yesterday by Public Administrator Bryson, contains a memorandum setting out in full the conditions made possible by the war.

Stamped on the copy is the statement that "this grant is subject to the conditions stated in the annexed memorandum." A seal with streaming green ribbon of he High Court of Justice of Ireland, probate division, marks the difference between the United States and Great Britain.

It is expressly provided that no portion of the assets of the estate shall be distributed or paid during the war to any beneficiary or creditor "who is a German or Austro-Hungarian or Turkish subject wherever resident, or to any one on his behalf, or to or on behalf of any person resident in Germany, Austria-Hungary or Turkey of whatever nationality, without the express sanction of the crown, acting through the treasury." If any distribution or payment is made contrary to this condition, the grant of probate of letters of administration will be revoked.

No difficulty will be experienced in proper cases, it is stated, upon applying to the Solicitor of the Treasury for the payment of a moderate sum out of the assets to beneficiaries or creditors who are German, Austro-Hungarian or Turkish subjects resident in this country at the commencement of the war and during the war.

Mary Beattie's estate consists of an apartment-house at No. 1115 Wall street, valued at $15,000. It is bequeathed to two nieces, Rhoda Campbell and Rebecca Campbell, both of Ireland. The certified will did not contain the certification of the American Consul and it will be returned for this formality.

FOR ARSON.
A QUICK CONVICTION.

Only fifteen minutes' deliberation was necessary on the part of the jury in Judge Houser's court yesterday morning to decide that Salvatore Turco was an accomplice of his partner, Joe Barbera, in the burning of their clothing store on East Ninth street, on which they carried excessive insurance.

This is the third conviction on an arson charge within a period of two weeks, and according to Deputy District Attorney Keetch will discourage other incendiary fires by showing that the officials have awakened to the grave dangers to the community through this kind of criminality, and are willing to prosecute to the limit.

Both Barbera and Turco will be sentenced Tuesday morning unless the appeal of their attorneys for a new trial is granted, it being understood that such procedure will be instituted.

Immediately following the conviction of Turco, Frank Knapp, convicted three weeks ago of having set fire to his home at No. 419 Young street, on June 25, appeared with an appeal for probation. The appeal was denied and Knapp will have to serve two and a half years in San Quentin, according to the sentence of Judge Houser.

CORSETS AS CLUB, HUSBAND GETS DECREE.

Corsets used as a club and wielded by an angry wife might cause most husbands to organize a masterly retreat. In the divorce court yesterday George Bacon Wilson admitted that Mrs. May G. Wilson chased him through the rooms in their apartment at Venice just because he told her she was trying to frame up on him.

The circumstance arose after a quarrel September 12, 1913. He said she thrust her nose against his and called him bad names. When he pushed her away she cried out that he was beating her.

After the corset episode Mrs. Wilson packed her trunk and left. She said she would not return. She filed suit for divorce, but at the trial yesterday she offered no evidence. Mr. Wilson was given the decree. The mating of the couple took place at Chester, Pa., in 1912.

GAINS FREEDOM.
WILL WORK FOR CHILD.

Judge Craig yesterday reduced the bail of W. M. Beck, who has been in jail on an extortion charge, to $500 in order that he might get out and earn sufficient money to care for his 11-year-old daughter. His attorney, S. S. Hahn, declared that it would have been necessary for Beck to have given her away to anyone charitably inclined if such procedure had not been followed.

Beck was held on a charge of having threatened the life of Secretary McCorkle of the Socialist colony at Llano del Rio, near Victorville, when that official and Job Harriman, the promoter, refused to grant him permission to inspect the books or to return to him the money he had invested and was in need of for the purpose of taking care of his girl. Friends furnished the bail.

DOUBLE KNOT FAILS.
WOMAN WINS A DIVORCE.

After a double ceremony because of an irregularity in the first marriage, Mrs. Maria F. H. A. Dunton obtained a decree of divorce yesterday from Dr. W. A. Dunton in Judge Monroe's court. The dates of the marriages were July 26, 1906, and August 26, 1907.

Mrs. Dunton testified that quarrels were constant and that Dr. Dunton was cruel to her. She objected to being called a Mexican when as a matter of fact she is Spanish, and once she threw a cup at him when he used the term, she said. He retaliated by striking her. They separated. Dr. Dunton hunted her up, she testified, and attempted to kiss her. He asked her to return to him, but she said she refused.

MANY SEEK ESTATE.
THIRTY-FOUR WANT PART.

Thirty-four heirs of Rev. Peter Y. Cool desire to participate in the distribution of the $20,000 estate of his widow, Sarah M. Cool, who died without making a will. But this desire is opposed by Mrs. Cool's brother, Eugene Aram of Sacramento, who filed the final account and asked for the distribution.

Rev. Peter Y. Cool organized the first Methodist Episcopal Conference in Los Angeles in 1876. When he died in 1880, the estate was worth about $6000. Mrs. Cool died in 1913. During the thirty-three years she had the property it enhanced in value. Mr. Aram claims the estate is his sister's separate property and that he is entitled to all of it. Mrs. Margaret Berryman and John M. Cool, the sister and brother of Rev. Peter Y. Cool, claim half of the estate under a provision of the statutes.

The case was called in the Probate Court yesterday and transferred to Judge Conley, sitting in extra sessions. It was submitted on briefs.

HE IS MISSING.
MAY BE DEAD HERO.

Ellen Bell obtained a decree of divorce from David Bell on the ground of desertion yesterday. Under ordinary circumstances she would have been happy to remain the wife of Mr. Bell for he is a soldier, with a record under Lord Kitchener in India. But David deserted her four years ago, and she does not know whether he is a dead hero or still fighting for King George.

The couple were married in Somersetshire, England, in 1882. He brought his family to Los Angeles five years ago, stayed one year, and went away. Attorney W. J. Hanlon, representing Mrs. Bell, says Mr. Bell's location in the war zone is not known.

LOAN OR GIFT.
COURT TO DECIDE.

Whether the $10,422 which Ezra T. Stimson is seeking to recover from his brother-in-law, Fred P. Waters, was lent or intended as a gift will be determined when the action is tried February 9, 1916. Mr. Waters filed an answer to Mr. Stimson's suit yesterday, denying that he owes this money. It was voluntarily given to him by his sister, Mrs. Stimson, and her husband, to enable him to take up ranching on account of ill health. He says he never requested nor did he agree to repay the sums given him. On the contrary they were gifts made because of the love and affection the Stimsons felt for him.

Mrs. Stimson testified during alimony proceedings last Monday that she had paid her brother $150 a month, declaring the allowance was from her separate funds set aside to her credit by Mr. Stimson. The latter, according to his attorneys, has paid the $2500 ordered advanced by Judge Monroe, which with $1000 previously received by Mrs. Stimson makes a total of $3500 animony accounted for.

TO SAN QUENTIN.
YEAR FOR EACH DIME.

For stealing 50 cents from Victor Imaisumi, a Japanese, whom they held up at the point of a gun, M. S. Holquinn, an Indian, and Andrew Rubio, a Mexican, were given five years each in the penitentiary, Holquinn being sentenced by Judge Craig to San Quentin and Rubio to Folsom.

Holquinn made a plea for probation on the ground that he was the principal support of his parents and seven brothers and sisters, as well as of his own wife and baby. This failed to bring leniency owing to the fact that the Indian had a previous court record. Two previous convictions against Rubio were also produced in evidence.

LITTLE BOY SUES,
SEEKS LARGE DAMAGES.

Peter Valkof, 11 years old, filed suit through Louis P. Phillips, administrator of the estate of Cornelius Valkof, against the Southern California Edison Company for $50,000 damages yesterday, alleging it was owing to the negligence of the corporation that his father, Cornelius Valkof, met death March 28, last, at his home, No. 1634 Grover street.

The complaint sets up that a cable broke in the rear of the Valkof home and dropped across a wire fence. The death of the elder Valkof resulted when he touched the fence, which was highly charged with electricity. It is alleged that the cable was weakened by branches of trees rubbing against it.

TYPISTS IN ROW,
ALL OVER BUSINESS TRADE.

Miss Mildred A. Evans, a stenographer, and Miss Margaret Jaquay, also a stenographer, are engaged in litigation as the result of an alleged transfer of a public stenography business in the Marsh-Strong Building from Miss Jaquay to Miss Evans. The latter, who filed suit yesterday to restrain Miss Jaquay from molesting her, asks $565 damages, and recites these alleged acts on the part of Miss Jaquay:

That she retained the keys of the office; that she entered it while Miss Evans was absent and examined her account, read her correspondence and circulated the contents of the letters among other persons; that she instigated the filing of attachment suits against Miss Evans, so that under the contract, the business would revert to Miss Jaquay.

Miss Evans has retained Attorneys Frederick A. Preston, Fred E. Burlew, Lloyd L. Miller and Edwin B. Root. Miss Jaquay denies the allegations, and an interesting legal scrap is in view.

INS AND OUTS ABOUT THE COURTS.

HELD FOR FALSE DEED. Charged with having secured a six-cylinder automobile with a fradulent trust deed on Northern California land and a note for $3000, R. L. Cramer was brought to trial in Judge Houser's court yesterday. The complaining witness in the action is M. P. Waite, son of a millionaire Riverside banker and land owner and himself wealthy. J. M. Thomas, an alleged accomplice in the deal, will be the chief witness for the State. Deputy District Attorney Doran said that Lawrence Parry, a third member in the alleged bunko game, had fled.

GETS FIVE YEARS. Arthur Coates, colored, admitted before Judge Craig yesterday afternoon that he had not expected to run into as big a man as Policeman Moulton while burglarizing the home of Mrs. E. M. Walker, and that anticipating interference from some boy companions, he had endeavored to pull his revolver and take a shot at his captor. His plea for future liberty on probation was denied because he was previously convicted of burglary and the suspended sentence on that occasion, five years at Folsom, was imposed by the court.

NEEDS HER BOY. Mrs. Ada L. Manis needs the testimony of her son Gilbert, 11 years old, to win a decree of divorce. The witnesses she summoned yesterday failed to make out a case of desertion and Judge Monroe asked for further testimony. "If I had my boy here he could corroborate my statements," said Mrs. Manis. The court wanted to know where he was, and was told that Mr. Manis had taken him into the Santa Monica Mountains, but just where she did not know. The case was continued until the 20th inst.

WHISTLE CASE LOST. The Pacific Electric was able to convince the jury in Judge Wilbur's court yesterday that the motorman of the car charged by Mrs. Sylvia Moore with negligently blowing the whistle at Santa Monica January 16, last, resulting in the horses driven by her husband, Earl Moore, running away and throwing him out, blew the whistle with ordinary care. Mr. Moore was fatally injured in the accident. His widow asked $50,000 damages, but the jury gave judgment for the corporation.

CUT IT OUT. Lee Beldin, proprietor of the Southern Pacific Transfer Company, long in business here, was granted a permanent injunction yesterday by Judge Conley against the Los Angeles Transfer Company, prohibiting the latter concern from using the name of the former. The Los Angeles Transfer Company as the official transfer company of the Southern Pacific Railroad was charged by Mr. Beldin with attempting to become known and do business under the name of Southern Pacific Official Transfer Company. Mr. Beldin produced the latest telephone directory showing this name listed just above that of his own company. Under the court's decision the name so similar to that of Mr. Beldin's company will not be allowed in future directories.

INCORPORATIONS. American Wool and Hide Company, incorporators Charles S. Born, Sam Davis and G. E. Devalan, Jr., capital stock $50,000, subscribed $300; Brant Motor Car Company, incorporators O. E. Brant, Frank H. Willard and H. B. Hurford, capital stock $20,000, subscribed $30.

WAREHOUSE COST TO BE BOOSTED?

DEMAND FOR UNION SCALE MEANS BIG SUM.

Council to Decide Whether Contract Shall Go to Low Bidder or Work be Done by Force Account for Twenty-three Thousand to Fifty Thousand More.

Following the lead of Chairman Wheeler of the Finance Committee, the City Council will today vote on a resolution to reject the bid of $117,000 by a local contracting company for building the new harbor warehouse and order the Harbor Commission to do the work by force account at a cost variously estimated at $140,000 to $175,000. According to the engineer's estimates, $23,000 is the least possible loss to the city through refusal to let the contract, while members of the Harbor Commission and some of the Councilmen assert that a decision to do the work by force account will cost the city at least $50,000 more.

Labor-union walking delegates from the harbor district are behind the movement, and, with a view to compromise, the Council met in executive session yesterday with the Harbor Commission and representatives of the Merchants' Realty and Investment Company, the low bidder, in an effort to induce the contractors to sign a supplemental agreement to pay the union scale of wages on the job. E. J. Conley, manager for the Merchants' Realty and Investment Company, asked Councilman Wheeler what he meant by "the prevailing wage scale," asserting that his company is paying current wages for its labor. Mr. Wheeler said he meant the "prevailing scale of wages paid in that locality." It was brought out that the labor-unionites of the harbor district have demanded wages 50 cents a day higher than those generally paid in the main part of the city, and Mr. Wheeler was holding out for an agreement that the contractors would pay the harbor labor-union wage scale.

"Do you want to put Los Angeles right where San Francisco is today?" asked Councilman Conwell. "It does not look like good business to add even $23,000 to the cost of this warehouse. It seems to me that members of the City Council owe something to the taxpayers of Los Angeles, as well as to the labor unions of the harbor district."

Representatives of the contractors explained that their bid of $117,000 for the job was made on a competitive basis and the company included fair wages in that price and did not intend to sign a supplemental contract binding it to abide by any wage scale that the unionites might want to fix.

The Council will decide today either to recommend that the Harbor Commission let the contract to the lowest bidder or pay a lot more of the people's money to do the work by force account, or else pass the buck back to the Harbor Commission for decision.

FIGHT RENEWED.
LAW POINTS SOUGHT.

The fight of property owners against the Pacific Electric transformer station at Vermont avenue and Exposition boulevard was transferred from the Council to the Board of Public Utilities yesterday and, after listening to protests from residents in the neighborhood, who complain that the station is a "noisy nuisance," the board referred the matter back to the Council, with a report from Traffic Engineer Howell, suggesting, that the whole matter be referred to the City Attorney for an opinion on the points of law involved. The Pacific Electric obtained a franchise to electrify the old Santa Monica air line in January, 1912, and this franchise required the company to complete electrification within six months. The point now raised is whether or not the railroad has a right to do this work which, the Utilities Board says, is necessary for the operation of the line.

PLANS APPROVED.
FOR LICENSE OFFICE.

Mayor Sebastian yesterday looked over the Efficiency Commission's plans for a central license bureau where city licenses of all kinds may be issued from the same office. He approved the general plan and within a few days an ordinance will be introduced providing for the changes. Public convenience will be served by the new office, inasmuch as instead of passing applicants for licenses down the line of nearly a dozen different offices where licenses are issued, all will be referred to the central license office where their applications will be filed. From this office, the applications will be forwarded to the department having jurisdiction over the particular line of business for which the license is asked, and when granted, the license office will forward the licenses by mail.

Betkouski's Birthday.

President Betkouski of the City Council celebrated his fifty-fifth birthday yesterday and when he reached home he found a huge bouquet of roses from the members of the Council, with a blue and white polka-dot Windsor tie, and a box of chewing gum from Clerk David Carroll.

Bond Deal Ratified.

N. T. Powell, chief deputy in the City Treasurer's office, filed formal notice with the Council yesterday that the $334,000 class A, and $792,000 class B bonds included in the first purchase of the Chase National Bank have been delivered in New York and the Council officially confirmed the sale. The second purchase of the power bonds made by the Chase National Bank has been forwarded by express.

May Reduce Flushing.

A proposition for leasing another vacuum street cleaner at $500 a month was received by the Council from the Board of Public Works yesterday. The proposition was referred to the Finance Committee with the Public Works Committee associated, to consider a plan whereby the vacuum sweeper may be used in the Jefferson street district to do away with the flow of water from street flushing that is swamping the lowlands, in that vicinity.

Police Pensions.

The police pension bureau held its monthly meeting yesterday and granted a pension of $125 a quarter to Minnie M. Toolen, widow of Lieut. Toolen, who was killed while making an arrest last month. The pension drawn by the late Michael Holleran, retired from the department November 22, 1911, was ordered discontinued and Mrs. Holleran was notified that she is entitled to apply for a pension in her name.

WEDDING ENDS CASE.

After Hearing is Postponed Justice is Surprised by the Return of Parties with News of Marriage.

Mrs. Myrtle A. Wentzel, mother of Miss Aline Wentzel, when called to the witness stand in Justice Hanby's court yesterday afternoon could not give the exact age of the girl. It was on the question of age that a statutory charge against Dale Sheeley rested in a large measure, the girl being past 17, and possibly 18, according to the mother.

Justice Hanby granted a continuance of the preliminary in order that the District Attorney's office might write to Milwaukee, the former home of the Wentzels, to ascertain the exact birthdate. Less than five minutes after he had pronounced November 26 as hearing day the defendant, complaining witnesses and attorneys in the case returned.

Sheeley had secured a marriage license with the consent of the mother of the girl and the two young people were married. As a wedding present, Justice Hanby, after regular legal procedure, gave the newlyweds a dismissal of the case.

GET NEARLY ALL OF IT.

Judge Van Fleet yesterday gave judgment for $200 in favor of the complainant in the action brought by Fulton & Woodly, boat builders of San Pedro, against the yacht Detroit and its owner, William La Plante. The defendant claimed that the charges in the bill ($225) were excessive. The Detroit was burned at Catalina Island some time ago.
